TO OWN LINES

Government Will Be In Possession

OF THE RAILROADS

THIS IS A UNITED STATES PRE- DICTION.

A Great Transition Will Occur During the Next Ten Years—So the President of the Santa Fe System Tells the General Public.

Chicago, June 16.—E. P. Ripley, president of the Santa Fe system, predicted in an interview that the United States government will own every line of railway within its domain in less than ten years. He believes that the measure for government control will be introduced in congress at the initiative of the government for the purchase of all the railway systems as an economic necessity. How much money will be required for the purchase Ripley refuses to estimate, but says that the present capitalization of the railroad systems is not their total value. If the railroads are asked to name their price, Ripley says they will ask more in nearly every case than the capitalization at present.

"Within five years, certainly not more than ten years," said Ripley, "the United States government will own the railroads within its borders. The rate regulation bill being considered at Washington is the step which presages this final result."

THE WRONG MARY.

Surprised at Return of the Supposed Burial.

New York, June 16.—If Mary McGonigle had been a reader of the newspaper, none of the complications below would puzzle her relations. Mary McGonigle was struck by a trolley car last April and died shortly afterwards in an hospital. On notification from the coroner's her relatives came to view the body and she was identified by her son Edward, a private in the 5th United States Infantry; her sister, her brother, and a cousin. A burial permit was issued in the name of Mary McGonigle, an insurance company paid $17 on the life of Mary McGonigle; the transition company paid $350 for the funeral of Mary McGonigle; the body of Mary McGonigle now lies in Calvary cemetery.

Recently, Mary McGonigle in the flesh walked into her sister's home. To say there was surprise at her visit would under-estimate the emotion of the relatives. The sister screamed, the brother dropped his new clay pipe, and the small niece fainted. Mrs. McGonigle herself was surprised, but placid. She had not read the newspapers.

Then came the explanations. Mary McGonigle had been buried all right, but it was the wrong Mary. The living woman is a washerwoman in private service and her address fluctuated with her employment. The dead woman who bears such an extraordinary resemblance to her was no relative, but had known her and had given her address at the hospital. The undertaker who buried the late Mary was summoned to view the living Mary.

"I never saw such a resemblance," he gasped, "and I've buried a many."

STOLE HIDE TO CLOUDS.

Youth Left Aeronaut Clinging to His Balloon.

Lincoln, Neb., June 16.—Clyde Heckle, eighteen years old, made a 6,000 feet balloon ascension last night, clinging for a part of the time to the clutch rope. He landed half an hour later in the mist near a shallow lake at a summer resort near Lincoln. Adolph Weisberg, an aeronaut, who gives exhibitions by ascending and dropping in a parachute, had made preparations for his regular trip. Heckle was helping to hold the ropes. He had asked to be allowed to make the ascent, but had been refused. Just as the aeronaut, seated in his parachute attachment, called to let go, Heckle cut the two ropes holding Weisberg. The balloon leaped upward, and Heckle grasped its clutch rope. Weisberg and his parachute were left on the ground. For possibly a thousand feet Heckle went upward, almost like a rocket, clinging only by his hand. Then he managed to swing himself astride the clutch rope, and after an ascent of over a mile came down without mishap.

SEES A CHURCH.

Fall Over Rope Made Him Lose Memory.

Paterson, N.J., June 16.—The first case down to be tried in the circuit court this week is that of Benjamin Elkind against the Third Presbyterian church of Paterson, a corporation, for $10,000 damages for injuries received by tripping over a rope stretched in front of the burned edifice in January, 1907.

At the time of the accident Elkind was a student in New York university. After he had fallen over the rope and fractured his skull he is said to have lost his mental powers, not being able to study or memorize, and for some time not able to talk. Doctors say now that it will be quite a while before he will be entirely recovered.

SEEKS GOLD WITH GEESSE.

Farmer Sends Out Flock on Prospecting Tour.

Youngstown, O., June 16.—William Holzbach, Salt Springs, will prospect for gold on his farm at that place with geese. For fifty years traces of gold have been revealed in the sandbanks on his farm, but although the farm has been prospected several times it has never been mined for gold.

Mr. Holzbach wants to be sure there is gold on the farm before he spends any money putting in apparatus to mine it. He has purchased a flock of geese and thinks they will solve the problem for him.

USED CRIB TO CATCH THIEF.

Woman Holds Till Police Come—Blinded by Vinegar.

New York, June 16.—When at dawn a man leapt out of a closet and commenced to choke her husband, Mrs. Nathan Jasper hurled a cup of vinegar into the man's face. Howling with pain he freed Jasper. Mrs. Jasper sprang at him and she kept at him until a policeman named Jasper says the man he had befriended was a former employer, whom he had dishonored on account of his habits. He says the man stole his jewellery before hitting in the closet.

RESIDENT ENGINEER.

Graduate Gets Position With Quebec Bridge Co.

He is a graduate of Upper Canada College, Toronto, and of the Royal Military College, and has been employed by the Illinois Central and the Baltimore and Ohio railway. He was also on the engineering staff of the Chicago drainage canal.

BABY CAUGHT IN BUSHES.

Escape of Infant—Carriage Went Over Cliff.

Montreal, June 16.—A small boy wheeling a baby carriage on the moon-tain carelessly ran it too near the edge and the carriage went over the cliff. Spectators rushed to the spot expecting to see the baby killed. The carriage had fallen over one hundred feet sheer down, but the baby had been caught in a dump of bushes within a yard of the edge of the cliff. The baby was rescued and found to be unharmed.

Four in Same Family Elope.

Highgate, Ok., June 16.—Citizens of Highgate gave a public dance in honor of the elopement and marriage of four persons in the same family. Peter Jarvise, a wealthy French-Canadian Indian, recently married Mrs. Mary Davenport of Independence, Kan. Each had a son and daughter by former marriages. The elder Jarvise boy eloped with and married the oldest Davenport girl. A few days later his younger brother and the remaining Davenport girl fled to Pawhuska and were married.

QUEEN MARY

Is Appointed Regent If It Is Necessary

SHE HAS FULL POWER

THERE ARE CERTAIN THINGS TO BE AVOIDED.

She Cannot Hold Communion With the Church of Rome or Marry Into That Faith and Retain Her Royal Power as Regent.

London, June 16.—Prime Minister Asquith, in introducing the regency bill in the House of Commons, yesterday, stated that the bill followed, in all respects, the latest precedent, the act of 1810, passed by parliament on the birth of the late Queen Victoria's first child. The bill, the prime minister said, provided that Queen Mary should be the guardian of any child under eighteen years of age who might succeed King George. It also gave her majesty full power and authority in the name of the child to exercise the royal power under the style of "regent." The bill disabled the regent from continuing to hold power should she become reconciled to, or hold communion with the Church of Rome or marry a person belonging to that faith.

The experiences, at Quebec, of thirteen emigrants engaged by a hosiery firm at Paris, Ont., are causing considerable comment and commotion here. The men say they were detained a week in the immigration hospital, although possessing considerable money. Their letters and telegrams to the firm were not sent, and, finally, without explanation they were deported. The men also say the firm subsequently informed them it had sent $60 to the customs officer to release them, but the money was returned with the intimation that the plan was to return the men being "contract labor."

The men say that the deportation was in consequence of the men being "contract labor."

Dr. Louis Sumbone, who has been conducting researches in Italy on behalf of the English pellagra investigation committee, claims to have established that pellagra is caused by a parasite carried by a small insect, the simuliid, which breeds in running streams.

A Mere Human Machine.

Chicago, June 16.—George M. Reynolds, head of a $300,000,000 banking concern at the age of forty-five years, is a living example of what attending strictly to business will do for a man.

Mr. Reynolds has never lost a day from sickness; he has never taken a vacation that he did not have business inside; he does not drink; he does not smoke; he does not play bridge; he does not play golf; he has no favorite author; he has no hobby but banking; he has no country residence; he does not even take exercise; he works nine hours a day.

Make your business your pleasure and marry early. I don't play any outdoor games; I have no interest in them, and yet I never was in better health in my life.

"I have an automobile. I ride three times a week. I never went to college. I began as a messenger in a bank at fourteen."

Will Return to Japanese Hobby.

Reno, Nev., June 16.—Gladys Emery Aoki, daughter of Archbishop Emory, of the Episcopal diocese of California, has patched up her romance and will withdraw her suit for divorce. The reason is their child, Aoki having announced that he did not care whether his wife got a divorce, but that he would fight for the custody of the baby. Her lawyer advised her that her husband would probably be the victor in the courts, so she sent for him. After a conference it was officially announced that the suit would be withdrawn and that Mrs. Aoki would return to her husband's home.

Sweeping Reforms.

Spokane, Wash., June 16.—Sweeping reforms in the government of the state of Washington are advocated by Governor Marion E. Hay in a letter to the state senate. He favors changing the constitution and nominating by direct vote United States senators, congressmen, governor and lieutenant-governor and the state legislative and judicial officers, including judges of the supreme court, to be appointed by the governor.

Traces Success to Teacher's Gift.

Ogdensburg, N.Y., June 16.—Anthony Garrow, an Ogdensburg boy, is winning fame through Canada by his daring and spectacular work as a steampack. He is at present engaged in guiding the cross over St. Michael's cathedral in Toronto, where he swings about at the end of a rope 200 feet from the ground. He developed into a decorative painter of much merit and attributes this talent to the action of his teacher, Miss Mulligan, in this city at one time presenting him with a box of paint.

Will Remove Wrecks.

BROCKVILLE MYSTERY.

Man Charged With Attempting to Poison.

Brockville, Ont., June 16.—Charles Landan, a well-known tinsmith, is in custody charged with a serious offense, that of attempting to poison Thomas Sheridan, of the firm of Sheridan & Power, one of his employers. The story is that three weeks ago Sheridan, who took his lunch at his place of business, discovered a peculiar taste to his tea and threw it out. The same happened the following day, and two or three days after when it was decided to investigate. Henry Dyer, a constable, was placed in confinement in the building and through an opening claims he saw Landan take from his pocket a paper and shake its contents into the tea. The two following days warm water alone was left in the tea bottle, and Landan's arrest followed.

Samples have been sent to Prof. Ellis, of Toronto, but as yet no report has been received, and Landan meanwhile is in jail. He was known as a quiet, inoffensive man, with a highly respectable family.

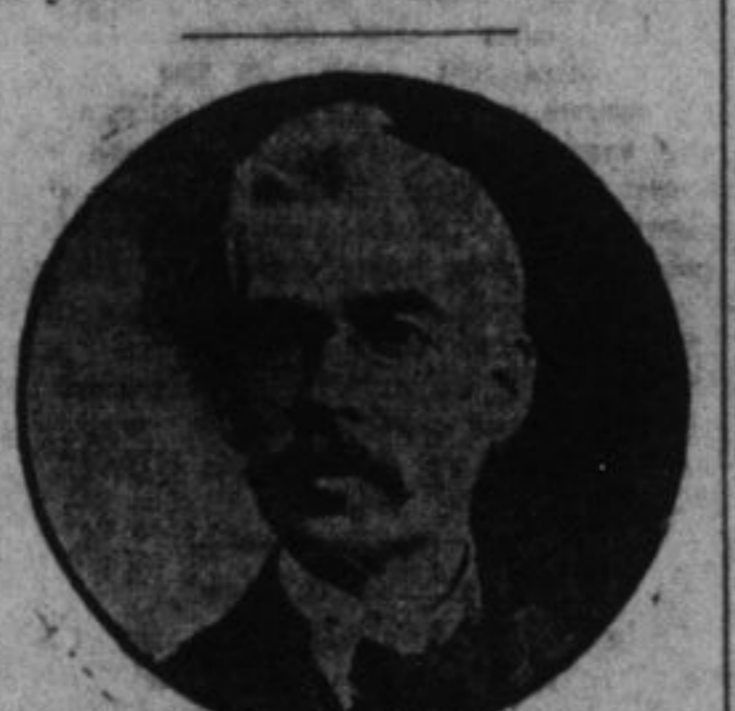

WALTER R. STUBBS, GOVERNOR OF KANSAS.

DIES AS WEALTH COMES.

Writer Expires in Poverty, Ignorant of Fortune.

San Antonio, Tex., June 16.—Two days before he died in destitution, Edward R. Quares, a newspaper writer, was granted title by the Mexican government to a gold mining prospect for which he had a standing offer of $75,000. Death claimed him before he could be notified. Quares was employed at times on the New York Sun, Cincinnati Enquirer, St. Louis Globe-Democrat, Washington and Nashville, Tenn., papers. He was born in Minden, La., and was fifty-six years old.

HARRY G. ELLIOTT, Popular Canadian railway man who goes to Chicago as first assistant general passenger agent of the G. T. N. system.

WITH CLEAN SHEET

PROBLEMS CONFRONTING THE SOUTH AFRICAN UNION.

Favors Encouragement of White Population and Prevention of Asiatic Immigration.

London, June 16.—A despatch from Pretoria says that Premier Botha, outlining his policy, announced that there was no other way possible than to form a government from the remnants of the white population. All other proposals would be most fatal to the South African union, as investigations had clearly proved that the majority did not wish for a coalition ministry. The time had come for starting with a clean sheet and he hoped that his own would be dissolved and amalgamated into a great party, with broad, wide principles, to be known as the South African National party.

Premier Botha also read a manifesto dealing with various questions connected with the government. The foremost of these was the task of welding the different races into one great people by applying sympathetic treatment to the natives and colored people. The manifesto stated that the nation's aims should be the encouragement of white immigration, the prevention of Asiatic immigration and the adoption of a broad educational policy. The needs of the workers should be duty to the empire, regard for defence, development of industries, settlement of mining lands, the encouragement of capital and the opening up of foreign markets.

DIES FAR FROM HOME.

Rev. E. J. Carson Succumbs to Fever in China.

Toronto, June 16.—Word was received by cable at the foreign mission office of the Methodist church, yesterday, of the death of Rev. E. J. Carson, who succumbed after a short illness from typhus fever.

Mr. Carson was transferred from the western part of the work to the newly-acquired mission at Ching Kiang when it was taken over by the Methodist church from the London Missionary Society. He was an exceptionally valuable missionary and had learned to speak in Chinese in an unusually short time.

Mr. Carson went to China in the fall of 1906, accompanied by his wife, who was a Miss Dunfield, of Winnipeg. He is survived by his wife and two children. Deceased was sent out by one of the western conferences and was a graduate of Wesleyan College, Miami, Mo.

HUSBAND RULES LIVING.

Ancient and Important Dispute Finally Settled by Judge.

Toronto, June 16.—One hat at $20, a fur jacket at $125, a Persian lamb of them at $20 and a muff at $37.50, all of them purchased at the Holt, Renfrew Co.'s store, formed the basis of a suit before Judge Denton, which concluded yesterday.

Briefly the circumstances, as shown in the evidence, are these: Mrs. Leslie A. Davidson, of 138 Albany avenue, in the absence of her husband, who is manager of the Computing Scale company of Canada, bought these furs, having them charged up to him.

When he came home he found his wife living at the King Edward hotel and refused to pay for them on the ground that his wife had left him and that he was not responsible for purchases. The Holt, Renfrew people sued for payment.

In giving judgment in favor of the defendant his honor said, in part: "The family is an unhappy one. The husband and wife are not living together agreeably, but I could not find that under these circumstances the husband was justified in refusing to pay for these furs if they were necessities. The plaintiff's case rests on the point as to whether these goods were actual necessities.

"The husband must set the standard of his wife's living; and must say what shall be the standard of his wife's dress.

"The evidence shows that the wife of the defendant is fairly well supplied with furs, having some $165 worth in cold storage at the present time.

"I find that the defendant is not liable."

It will be remembered that the recipient, a local evangelist, while in Germany, befriended an unfortunate woman, whose father turned out to be an Australian millionaire, who was so grateful that he willed the fortune as above indicated. One condition was that Mr. Kild change his name to Burn, his own name.
