DRILL IN THE HEAT

THINGS ACTIVE AT CAMP AT BARBIEFIELD.

About Ready For General French's Inspection—A Tattoo Will be Held Some Evening Next Week.

Wednesday was a busy day in camp for everyone, from the officer commanding down to the servants. All day long, the sun shone down on the heights, and all day long the men drilled in the heat, scattered in companies all over the hill, from Barbiefeld village fully three miles down the Gananogue road.

Every day now, from early morning until late at night, one can hear the men shooting at the ranges. Every man in camp, of every corps must shoot and according to the score he makes, so will be paid by the government at the end of camp.

While one company of one regiment is shooting at the ranges, the remainder are out drilling on the green, under capable instructors from headquarters.

It is really remarkable to see the great difference one day makes in camp, to see how much better these fellows drill to-day than they did yesterday and every day they will keep on improving, until the last day of camp, when they will be quite capable.

The men are all taking a great interest in the visit of General French, on Saturday morning and all want to be in the best condition. The troops will all be drawn up on the heights, facing camp for the inspection and march past, and here also any drilling that is necessary will be done.

Major Munnell has an extra large signalling class this season, but as he has good instructors, every member is making excellent headway. Cadet Munnell is in charge of one squad, Sergeant O'Leary, of another, Sergeant Crowley, of another, and the general doctor looks after all.

The night has not yet been chosen for the tattoo, but will be soon and elaborate preparations will be made for it. There should be about twelve bands in line, and a massed band of this size should turn out some music.

There will likely be a big display of fireworks during the evening. The citizens are eagerly awaiting the evening of the tattoo as it is always a great drawing card.

The army medical corps has not had a very hard time of it so far, but very few cases being reported and then only for minor ailments, cramps, rheumatism, etc.

The early morning ride of Col. Hughes and his staff through the lines, makes the men sit up and take notice. The ride takes place at 7.50 o'clock, and everything must be spick and span by that time, and everyone must be ready for a hard day's work.

The different regiments are becoming very keen on baseball, and some fine games are expected before camp closes. Teams are practising every spare minute of time at all parts of the grounds.

Captain Thomas Healey, of the 47th regiment is again under canvas, and once again his company promises to be about the finest in line. Every year Captain Healey has a fine company and this year it is better than ever.

The Y.M.C.A. tent is always in great demand, as the boys all know they are welcome and can always have a good time there. Secretary Tremblay and his large corps of assistants are quite pleased with camp life, and take a great interest in all that is done.

Manitoba Elections in July. Toronto, June 16.—A long special despatch to the News says: There is little doubt that the Manitoba elections will be held in July. There are rumors that they will be held before the arrival of Laurier on July 7th, but the lists can scarcely be in shape by that time.

The liberal leader, T. C. Norris, has placed the date at July 14th, but the Winnipeg exhibition is in full swing then. The last week in July is considered to be the probable date.

Business Men Added. Montreal, June 16.—The names of Messrs. J. W. Ross, George F. Drummond and William M. Birks, all prominent Canadian business men, of Montreal, have been added to the list of governors of McGill University.

The corporation of the university have authorized a change in the statutes by which the number of governors will be increased from fifteen to twenty-five.

Summons have been issued for the arrest of two residents of Smith's Falls, named Driscoll, as the result of a row which ensued between them and two members of another family, named Murphy. On Friday, it is alleged, two of the Driscolls went to Murphy's home and gave John a severe beating. On Sunday he was taken seriously ill as a result of the manhandling. The Driscolls have not been served yet.

"Laxative Fruit Salt Saline," a glassful taken before breakfast cools the blood and leaves the system in perfect condition. Sold at Gibson's Red Cross drug stores.

Mrs. Alexander Ross died, on Wednesday, at Cornwall, at the age of 104, after an illness of two days. She was born in Gleanagry county, and lived in Canada all her life.

WAR A FACTOR

Has Boosted Several Into Presidential Chair.

West Point, N. Y., June 16.—The example of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, as one of the several presidents whom the fortunes of war had boosted into the White House, was held up to the graduating class of the military academy by Secretary of War Dickenson in his commencement address.

"The war of the revolution," he said, "elevated to the presidency Washington; that of 1812, Jackson, that with Mexico, Taylor; that between the states, Grant, and that with Spain, Roosevelt. Although their ascension to the presidency did not follow immediately upon their military service, there can be no doubt that the reputations gained in arms by the two Harrisons and Hay were potent factors in raising them to that high office. Doubtless the secretary of the navy can satisfactorily explain. It may follow the army."

"Where will you find in the history of any people such a record of private and public virtue as has been shown by our military men who have held the chief magistracy? Their fortune was exceptional, but not their qualities, were those of the soldiers of whom they were exponents. There must be an apex on every pyramid, but because it is highest it doesn't necessarily differ in essentials from that by which it is sustained."

In concluding, he said that the system of military education in this country is unsurpassed anywhere in the world.

COCKTAILS AND WOMEN.

Julia Ward Howe Shocked at Habit Among Sex.

Boston, Mass., June 16.—Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, the grand old woman of America, authoress of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," who recently passed her ninety-first birthday, discussed the part of womanhood in playing a social role in the twentieth century life.

Mrs. Howe believes that other women could live to be ninety-one easily if they would shun the fast life of society and look with old-fashioned horror on the insidious and invidious cocktail.

Mrs. Howe's ideas are not so old-fashioned as her precepts for living. For instance, she hopes to live long enough to see the enfranchisement of women throughout the United States. Insofar as the right of equality goes, Mrs. Howe believes that American women are just beginning to attain their rightful place.

"I have been shocked to hear of the prevalence of drinking among society women, to-day," said Mrs. Howe. "The cocktail habit, as I believe it is called, is the curse of modern society. It is alarming."

STABBED WITH HATPIN.

Woman Jabbed Officer in the Stomach.

Globe, Ariz., June 16.—Although Deputy Marshal G. W. Morris was dangerously wounded, he managed to arrest a woman on Monday, he did not realize the fact until to-day. The woman fought desperately, beating the officer over the head with a bottle, and he did not notice the tiny wound in which the steel had broken off until examined by a physician to-day. Morris will probably die.

Tried Suicide in 1908.

Hartford, Conn., June 16.—It is said that Mrs. Mary Scott Charlton attempted suicide here after her desertion by a man named Betts, in 1908. The manager of the hotel, where they stopped, claims she jumped into the Par river. The trunk in which the body was found in Lake Como bore the name of "W. C. Betts," and is thought to have been given her by her companion of 1908.

It is said the woman was of a highly jealous nature and that Betts was afraid of her.

At Brockville county court the criminal case of the King vs. Robins failed to materialize. Robins is charged with indecent assault, alleged to have been committed upon his daughter in Gananogue over one year ago. At the December sittings the latter was ill at the general hospital. Upon recovering she removed to Alexandria Bay, N.Y., where she is still residing. The crown informed the court of its inability to produce her attendance and the case was further enlarged.

When tired and thirsty these warm days remember the soda fountain, where the most tempting drinks are served, at Gibson's Red Cross drug store.

Owing to the growing trade relations between Canada and Germany, the Emery Wheel Manufacturing company, Smith's Falls, are making up an order of over 500 wheels to be shipped to that country as a sample order.
