STATE PRISON INMATES SEE WILD WEST SHOW.

Colonel Cody's "Glad to See You Here" Amuses 1,500 Prisoners-He Corrects Break.

Auburn, N.Y., June 15.—Buffalo Bitl's Wild West show gave a performance to-day, which was not on the season's schedule, and to perhaps the strangest audience and in the most unique surroundings in which a show has ever been given. The performance was presented, inside the state prison walls to the keen enjoyment of the 1,500 inmates, who for more than an hour paid the strictest attention and gener-

The entertainment was arranged by James J. Hennessey, of this city, and when the matter was presented to Col. ody, this morning, he gladly connted. Within an hour 205 of the solonel's performers and the prancing horses were on their way to the prison. The inmates were taken from the hops and arranged on the prison

In opening the colonel made a break which amused his audience and so en was unable to find words to proceed. He said : "Gentlemen, I am glad to see you all here to-day." A roar of applause greeted the slip Continuing, he said : "I am not glad that you are in prison, but that you can see the show. I hope you will get out soon.
