RICHARD WHITE DEAD

HE WAS PRESIDENT OF MONTREAL GAZETTE COMPANY.

He Had Been in Failing Health for Some Time—One of the Best Newspaper Men in Canada.

Montreal, June 21.—Death took place this morning of Richard White, president of the Montreal Gazette Printing Company, publishers of the Gazette, the only English morning paper in Montreal. Mr. White had been in failing health for some time and of late years had taken little or no part in the business affairs of the company, these being left entirely in the hands of his son, Smeaton White, as managing director. The late Mr. White was one of the best newspaper men in Canada, having been associated for many years with his brother, the late Hon. Thomas White. He was born in Quebec in 1853, and in 1856 established the Peterboro Review. Later the brothers published the Hamilton Spectator and came to Montreal in 1870, and purchased the Gazette. Mr. White became one of the best known citizens in Montreal and always took a prominent part in its affairs.

Card Sharp Made Money at Shawinigan Falls.

Shawinigan Falls, June 21.—Quite a lot of excitement was created here, Sunday, by the visit of a card sharp who selected a comparatively quiet part of the town to perform his tricks. He soon gathered around him a considerable crowd of sporting youths, many of whom left the stand short of five, ten dollars and upwards.

His equipment consisted of an umbrella and three playing cards, two black and one red. Opening up the umbrella, he formed a sort of a table upon which he moved and manipulated the three cards. His game was to shift the three cards and place them out in a row on the umbrella. Anyone who could pick up the red card would receive from him five or ten dollars, according to the stipulation, but if the picked card turned up black instead of red a like sum was forfeited to the operator. The sharper was accompanied by several accomplices, who won money easily from him, thus inciting the timorous ones around to try their luck at so easy a game. Several of the gay young sparks who were fleeced of their savings notified the chief of police of the presence of the gambler, and the whole police force went out in search of him. He is unaccounted for as yet, however, and it is thought that he was making for Montreal, where he has been seen before. The three trains leaving this station were closely watched by plain clothes men, but as they were so crowded, it is possible that the sharp was there unobserved.

TO ERECT MEMORIAL

In Memory of the Late Mrs. R. S. Fomeri.

A very largely-attended meeting of the members of St. Luke's church was held in the church hall, on Monday evening, for the purpose of considering the proposal of placing a suitable memorial in the church, in memory of the late Mrs. Fomeri, wife of the beloved rector of St. Luke's.

At the request of the churchwardens, the chair was taken by W. Carroll, who very ably addressed the members present, as to the object of the meeting. Then several propositions were made as to what form the memorial should be in. After considering them all, it was unanimously decided to erect an altar and retables, in the church.

The following members were appointed as a committee to secure designs and prices and report at a meeting to be held on Monday evening, July 4th: W. Carroll, A. J. Shannon, J. Caldwell, B. Reynolds and J. Henry.

Cut Up Alive, and Not Hanged.

Detroit, Mich., June 21.—Dr. E. L. M. Beistol, of Detroit, has a plan for doing away with the vivisection of cats and dogs. He thinks condemned criminals should be turned over to the doctors for vivisection.

"I believe every condemned criminal should suffer the penalty of his crime by vivisection, all other methods of punishment to be done away with by law," said Dr. Beistol. "The law's victim would not suffer at all. Does not the subject of a surgical operation prepare to be vivisectioned in a certain sense?"

"Electrocution, death by the rope, or the guillotine do not do away with the evil, nor do they help science. Vivisection would help science and be a benefit and blessing to humanity."
