Venezuela Is Charged With Backing Project

PROPOSED BOYCOTT

ON GOODS MANUFACTURED IN THE UNITED STATES.

Alleged Growing Imperialism of United States Excites South America—Must be Prevented From Dictating Course of Politics.

Valparaiso, June 25.—A confederation of South American countries to combat the alleged growing imperialism of the United States by a boycott on American goods was postponed here today by the delegates from Venezuela to the Pan-American conference beginning in Buenos Ayres to-day.

If, on arriving at Buenos Ayres, the Venezuelans find the sentiment favorable to such a plan, they said they would offer a motion providing for the confederation. The treatment accorded Venezuela by the United States in the recent trouble that resulted in the overthrow of President Castro and her course in the enforcement of claims against Venezuela were cited as evidence of "American aggression in South America." Unless checked, the Venezuelans declared, the United States will soon try to dictate the whole course of South American politics.

London, June 25.—Rev. Father Bernard Vaughan, brother of the late cardinal, has aroused, fiercely hostile criticism, chiefly from the non-conformists, for praising King George for having decided to maintain the royal racing stud.

"Everything that makes for the national character ought to be supported and encouraged by Englishmen," Father Vaughan declared. "Every true Englishman has something of the sportsman in his character. When it is developed along legitimate lines, it helps him to realize himself and gives him that indescribable something in his deportment and character which makes for the English malice."

It has fulfilled the pledges of the party. It is a great satisfaction to me that it has accomplished so much. ## NOT BINDING

Veto Conference Is To Seek An Agreement

BUT IF IT CANNOT

THEN MATTERS WILL REVERT TO FORMER STATUS.

Talk of Recalling Sir Eldon Gorst and Also Accepting Sirdar's Resignation—A New Treaty Between Russia and Japan.

London, June 25.—It is hoped the lords' veto conference will be finished before the end of July. Augustine Birrell, a member of the conference, speaking at Bristol, said the conference was not between pope or plenipotentiaries, not between those who could bind or loose, not between those who could sign, seal or deliver, so there was no need for anyone to get agitated. The notion that any piece of paper would meet at a round table to try to discover a compromise, Mr. Birrell declared, was ridiculous. The object was to discover some agreement and to find out how far it would carry them. The position would, in the event of a disagreement, revert to its former status.

An unconfirmed report is in circulation that Sir Edward Grey, the minister of foreign affairs, has decided to recall Sir Eldon Gorst, the British agent in Egypt, and appoint in his place Sir Arthur Hardinge, the British minister to Belgium and a cousin of Sir Charles Hardinge, the new viceroy of India. The liberals scoff at the report, saying it is impossible the government would respond so quickly to the criticisms of the Egyptian administration in Colonel Roosevelt's speech at Guildhall. It is also reported that Gen. Sir Reginald Wingate, the sirdar of the Egyptian army, is to resign and will be succeeded by Gen. Sir John Maxwell, who, at present, commands the British troops in Egypt.

Dr. Emile Joseph Dillon, the correspondent and author, who resides in St. Petersburg, will have an article in the forthcoming number of the Contemporary Review, in which he states a new treaty is about to be signed by Russia and Japan, which countries have been recently drawing steadily together. This alliance, Dr. Dillon says, is the unintentional result of American diplomacy which recently has been inspired, according to Secretary of State Knox, with an altruistic spirit toward China, but which, according to the authorities at Tokio and St. Petersburg, the United States has been pursuing with anti-Japanese and anti-Russian aims.

He was inspecting the work when the floor above fell and he was buried beneath the debris. Workmen hurriedly dug him out. He was badly bruised, but conscious, and was removed to his hotel. It was learned later that four persons were badly injured. One man had his hip bruised and all were severely cut and bruised. The building was undergoing alterations at the time. The section where the accident occurred was in the hands of the contractors.

Labor Organizations.

Washington, D.C., June 25.—Labor organizations were declared by the house to be not immune from the anti-trust and interstate commerce laws. The party will go right through to Chicago.

While in the city the chief and party were driven about the city by Chief Armstrong and Capt. Reid, of No. 2 station.
