

SLEEP WAS IMPOSSIBLE ALMOST DRIVEN TO DESPAIR UNTIL CURED WITH USE OF Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

No symptoms of nervous prostration is more to be dreaded than the inability to sleep. Man can exist for considerable time without food, but without sleep, and the restoration which it brings, he soon becomes a mental and physical wreck.

When you cannot sleep and rest look to the nervous system and remember that lasting cure can only be obtained from such treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, which naturally and gradually restores the exhausted nerves to health and vigor.

William Graham, Atwood, Ont., writes: "My wife had been ill for some time with nervous prostration and we had two of the best doctors we could get, but neither of them did her any good. She gradually became worse and worse, could not sleep and lost energy and interest in life. She was almost giving up in despair when a friend advised the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

"From the first box my wife used we noticed an improvement and after using six boxes she is completely cured and as well as she ever was, eats well, sleeps well and feels fully restored. I cannot say too much in praise of this valuable medicine for I believe my wife owes her life to its use."

Every dose of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food goes to the formation of new red blood cells and is, therefore, certain to do you good.

GENUINE COAL DIAMONDS

Just as some sorts of wood are better fuel than others so certain varieties of coal burn more slowly yet give out more heat than others. Our coal is always "good coal" because it is our stock-in-trade. It's possible to get this highest grade coal elsewhere, but you're SURE to get it here. It's the only kind we sell. We charge no more for it. We get it from the mines by being cranky—knowing it when we see it, and insisting on getting it. YOU won't have to insist to get it.

A postal or telephone brings you coal that cannot be surpassed.

THE NEW BREAD BY-LAW.

It is some time since the legislature adjourned, and so it may be forgotten that an Act was passed with reference to the weight of bread, and that this Act comes into operation on July 1st. The small loaf shall weigh thereafter 24 ounces, and the larger loaf 48 ounces. There may be a smaller loaf still of 12 ounces, but it is not likely to be in much request. Indeed it is a question whether it will be made at all when it is not different in quality and the price must be made to fit the size.

The day of the "fancy bread" will, it seems, be generally over. It is in demand under the old regime under the legislation of two or three years ago, and considerable expense was incurred by the bread winners in order to meet the wants of the hour. It will cost something to abandon these appliances and to replace them with the requirements of the new law.

It may be that the bread manufacturers will be satisfied with the new conditions, and it may be that they will not. When the legislation was passing through its various stages there was a very decisive conflict of opinion, and some men felt that they were being imposed upon by the untimely and unnecessary agitation of their fellows.

It is to be hoped that the law which now goes into effect will be given a fair trial before it is again amended, for there is nothing so annoying as frequent changes without cause.

EXPERIENCE THAT COUNTS.

Kingston is not the only place which has trouble and discontent and dissatisfaction with regard to the streets. In St. Thomas there is a street railway which belongs to the city and which it is not desired to pull up for pavement purposes. Apparently it is not so long since the track was removed, and a good deal more wear can be taken out of it. So the idea is to pave the streets on each side of it, brick being laid along the ends of the ties, and the surface covered with Westramite, which the Westramite company guarantees for five years, and undertakes to renew any part of it being injured by railway repairs.

The idea, further, is to put broken stone or macadam between the street car rails, and to roll it down and make it as binding as possible. Is there not a suggestion here as to what may be done in Kingston? The cry is that the pavement of the streets on which the tracks are laid cannot be undertaken because of the cost of taking up the railway and laying it in a concrete bed, reinforced with iron in place of wooden ties. To this cost the company has offered to contribute $3,000, conditionally, that it will be guaranteed a supply of power at an acceptable price, which means its own price.

The St. Thomas experience suggests that perhaps paving can be laid on each side of the track, and in such a way that it will not be seriously affected by the everlasting repairs which have to be made to the street railway, for somehow it is never level. The board of works can very well afford to reconsider the subject, for there is seemingly a general protest against the proposal to macadamize the business streets, and the aldermen should be very willing to give the property owners and taxpayers just what they want.

UNCOVERING THE GRAFTERS.

Hon. Charles Murphy is to be congratulated upon the reforms which he is aiming at in the Printing Bureau. It is now an immense institution, and represents an immense capital which is supposed to be wisely invested. The extravagant living of a departmental head, which could not be accounted for, not even on the ground that he had become suddenly rich through mining speculation, facilitated the enquiry which the secretary of the state had inaugurated.

There were suspicions of wrongdoing. It took time to get at the facts, and the ground covered was very long, about twenty years. This showed how progressive was the dishonesty and how subtly it was carried on. At the end Mr. Murphy reached a position where he could act, and at once an official, a high flyer, disappeared. He realized that he could not escape the toils and remain at his post. Several others, who were either associated with him, or petty grafters on their own account, were suspended.

The secretary of state is not disposed to say anything until he has discussed the situation with his colleagues, but he has set about a cleansing of the Printing Bureau, and he will not stay his hand until the work is complete. He is to be congratulated upon the earnestness and thoroughness of his task. He is the discoverer of the evil, and he has undertaken to stamp it out. The conservative correspondent who would deny him any credit for the pains he has taken to purge the public service is not doing him justice.

The grafting that Mr. Murphy has ended begun long years ago, in all probability, under another dispensation and government, and until the present, it has defied detection. It will be easy to follow up what Mr. Murphy has uncovered, but it is safe to say that before parliament meets the Printing Bureau will be re-organized, and under conditions that will guard against the speculations of any officials.

THE PROFUSION OF SLANDER.

There is no justification for the wilful slandering of our public men. It certainly will not do Sir Wilfrid Laurier any harm to charge that "a trusted friend," offered to have a county judge in Manitoba made a member of the supreme court if he would contribute $10,000 to the local election fund.

The premier for Canada gave the evil report an unqualified denial, but the conservative papers see in it an alleged evasion of the point. Evasion? Sir Wilfrid added that the man who would undertake to bribe his way towards promotion on the bench would be guilty of a heinous offence and would deserve impeachment.

Fortunately the matter will be carried into the courts at once, as action has been taken against the attorney-general of Manitoba, who repeated the scandal originally set in motion by Hon. Mr. Rogers with the consent and approval of Hon. Mr. Roblin. Judge Prudhomme is the judge to whom contempt advances are said to have been made. Mr. Chevier is alleged to have been the go-between, and he and the judge repudiate the charge and demand a retrial. This has been withheld—the slanderous ministers dislike to eat the leek—but sooner or later they will have to recant and the sooner it is done the less will be the humiliation.

The superior court at Quebec has just vindicated Hon. A. Turgeon, and put an end to a miserable story which A. Laverge, M.P.P., put in circulation with regard to him. It was alleged that Mr. Turgeon, who is the soul of honour, had entered into a conspiracy to defraud the province with regard to certain lands which passed into his possession. The government took the action in order to have a judicial enquiry and decision; and the character which the court has given Mr. Turgeon will stand without any injury from his vilifiers.

This slandering of our public men, without occasion, is most despicable. There is no sense in it, and no warrant. Political malice will account for some of it, or rather partisanship will make some wild and unsavory remarks acceptable when they are without foundation. Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hon. Mr. Turgeon may not be the worst of the vindictive assaults of their opponents, but they are very strong men. Others, not so strong and not so able to resent attacks, have suffered from the slanders of the enemy and have passed from life before they had been vindicated. It is to the eternal discredit of some politicians that they are willing to hound an opponent, to death without a cause.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

In Manitoba there is a tempest of some kind, but so far as Hon. Bob Rogers is concerned it is merely a brain storm.

Does the present disturbed condition of the political barometer indicate merely some passing political thunder shower downpours, or are we in for a regular political general election cloud-burst?—Exchange.

Peterboro will not pave certain streets unless the telegraph and telephone men put their wires in conduits. In Kingston this matter has not engaged the attention of the council, and it is a very remarkable fact.

The by-law which penalizes public profanity and obscene language is still in force. Some of those who attend the base ball matches cannot be aware of it, and the sooner the police magistrate makes the fact apparent the better.

A conservative print seems to be amazed because certain grit papers have wept a trifle over the fate of Mr. Foster. It is a pity someone cannot drop a few tears, even a grit editor. There does not seem to be any address on Mr. Foster's account in the conservative sanctum.

So far an election has not been ordered in Sydenham ward, and so the seat formerly occupied by Ald. Craig is vacant. Is that right? What is the matter? Are the aldermen who plundered the water department afraid that their action will be indirectly condemned by the people?

Ex-Ald. Giroux, one of the chief offenders against the proprietors of Montreal, one of the twenty-three whom the people of Montreal banished from public life, is again trying to break his way into the city hall. His appeal is to his French compatriots. Does he imagine they will condone anything?

The Toronto News thinks that on the whole the tour of Mr. Porden through Ontario has been successful. One cannot tell. In the last election, with the aid, and the prestige and the loud talk of Sir James Whitney, the federal opposition lost ground. It will hardly gain until led by something more than a human icicle.

The Hamilton license commissioners are trifling with the hotel-keepers who have offended so much as to be unworthy of licenses. The Spottator takes them in hand, and plainly tells them that they have a duty and should perform it in a manly and non-political way. Here is an independence of the press one can admire.

The Eloquent Men Silenced.
Peterboro Examiner.

With the passing of Hon. George E. Foster, who was read out of the conservative party by J. W. Johnson, M. P. P., at Belleville, in the presence of Leader Borden, the brains and oratory of the conservative party is snuffed out. The party papers declared that Foster was maligned by the Globe, yet they endorse the action—by proxy—of their party leader in casting aspersions on the very offence of which he was declared by the party mouth-piece to be innocent.
