When the host arrived at the fine grove on Howe Island, the psenickers found everything in readiness for them. The grounds were shaded, nicely laid out, large swings, shady seats, and other things that make picnics jolly being provided. Soon the races were commenced, and those were races for every one, young and old, and in every branch of the saies. Iwo and three handsome prizes were given for every race, and nearly everyone carried home a prize. After the races came supper, a very important item in a picnic, and it was a most jolly crowd that an down to do justice to the rood things provided. About 8.30 o'clock the Wolfe Islander struck out again for the city, carrying a contented growd. The different races resulted as follows:

Wellington, N.Z., dune 28.—Sir Joseph Ward, the premier, in a speech, foreshadowing the government's trust legislation, says the government possessed clear evidence that a powerful American company was exercising a restrictive and prejudicial influence in New Zusland. He added that it had created a monopoly of the worst kind which must be stopped. The premier did not name the company.

The Whig learned that it cost probably $150 a year to keep the track on Princess street in repair. If excavations made in the street were properly filled, the railway track would not require nearly so much attention at the joints. It is the poor filling that caused the rails to sink at the joints.

This fact has been continually noted. Along stretches of track off the travel-
