DAY ON WEDNESDAYS. Chinese Laundrymen Pay Licence Fee-The Tax Rate for the Year

Gananoque, July 7.—The merchants of the town celebrated Wednesday aftergoon the first of the citizens' half olidays, which will be continued every Wednesday afternoon during July and August.

Fixed at Twenty-seven Mills.

At its session, last evening, for the first time during the past four years, the town council was asked for its donation of $100 toward the Dominion day celebration. For the past three years this donation has not been ask-

The sum of $11,250 was the amount | estimated by the Board of Education or its needs this year, and that amount was granted by the town countil at its session Tuesday even-

The old rate of twenty-seven mills was again struck by the finance committee of the council, as requisite for the needs of the town for general and ducational purposes this year.

The three Chinese laundrymen, on whom a tax of twenty dollars per an- U rum was placed by the council, some time ago, have been treated to a little scare. None of them having paid, and giving as reasons that they hadn't the money, tax too high, etc., summonses were issued for the three and then there was almost a foot race to see which could get to the town treasurer's office first to settle the bill, each anding sufficient to straighten him up or the year. The cases against them were consequently dismissed.

The treasurer's report of the Dominion day celebration shows a small deficit. This will be made up by private The Citizens' band went down, last evening, to fill an engagement for the Thousand Islands Yacht Club, at its club house near Alexandria Bay.
