His First Sermon.

Hartington, July 6.—Rev. Mr. Wadell delivered his first sermon to his people here last Sunday evening. He spoke from the words "Men, whose hearts God had touched," and was listened to with much pleasure and interest. Next Sunday he will deliver a sermon by Rev. A. Fokes will be delivered to the Orangemen in this church. Members of lodges from Sydenham, Harrowsmith, Verona and Perth are expected to attend. The Free Methodist camp meeting at Verona, has drawn a large number of our villagers thither during the last two weeks. Quite a number from here embraced the opportunity of "seeing the wild beasts" afforded by the Mighty Hand show in Kingston on Dominion Day. Miss E. M. Jelley is giving in normal entrance at Sydenham, and Master Ian Revell on Faculty of Education. A picnic was held last Thursday at Cosy Island. S. Babcock, Seattle, who has been guest of his brother, W. son Babcock, for a number of weeks, left for Western Ontario this morning. Benson Babcock accompanied him. They will visit friends in those parts for a short time.

Wild Things at The Hague.

Ottawa Citizen.
According to a despatch from The Hague, the contention of the United States in connection with the Newfoundland fishing dispute is that America is entitled to send warships into Newfoundland waters and soldiers to Newfoundland shores to protect citizens of the United States when they are exercising the liberties granted to them of fishing in Newfoundland waters and of drying and curing fish on Newfoundland shores. It is possibly a good thing that this dispute was referred to the Hague tribunal when it was. A few more years of uncertainty and our friends, the Americans, might be claiming ownership of the big island and contesting the rights of Great Britain to control of everything in the vicinity.

THE LINING IS THE GAYEST PART OF THE COAT NOW.
Mohair and pongee motor coats in their natural color have very cheerful linings of polka dotted foulard, and the foulard shows on the outside in turn back revers and breast cuffs. This coat of light tan mohair has a lining of blue foulard dotted in white; and the thin lining while not adding materially to the warmth of the coat helps to keep out the stifling dust. The hat, a new motor model for midsummer, is light and comfortable, yet fits firmly over the hair. It is made of blue straw and the long blue veil, twisted in and out, forms part of the trimming.

BUDGET FROM NEWBORN.

Wedding of Miss Lewis and William McDonnell.

Newboro, July 5.—Albert Gamble, who went west in the spring, intending to homestead, returned, on Monday. Since going west his house and nearly all his effects were destroyed by fire.

The many friends here of Richard Bell will learn with regret of his death, which occurred in the Western United States, last week. Mr. Bell was the youngest son of Robert Bell, formerly of this place, and during his residence here was very popular with all classes.

Miss Jean and George Bawden spent the week-end in Frankville, the guests of Hal Bawden, who recently opened a store at that place, and in meeting with good success. Henry Leggett and Mrs. (Dr.) McGee, Elgin, spent Sunday the guests of R. O. Leggett. James Bell spent a few days last week renewing acquaintances at Addison. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bass and son spent a few days last week the guests of friends at Lyndhurst. J. A. Shaver left, on Saturday, to spend a few weeks the guest of his daughter at Iroquois. Mrs. Shaver left, the same day, to visit her sons, at Syracuse, N.Y.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. James Walsh died at their home here on Sunday. Robert Bolton, Brockville, returned home, on Friday, after a short visit with relatives in town. A number from here intend going to the garden party at the Narrows tomorrow afternoon. J. W. Church, of Terre Haute, Ind., and S. Bishop, of Peterboro, are the guests for a few days of Mrs. George Bolton. Mr. Yager's new launch has been equipped with one of the largest searchlights on this part of the Rideau.

Miss Bella Landon, North Tonawanda, N.Y., is spending her holidays at her home here. Mrs. Arthur Wallace, Syracuse, N.Y., renewing acquaintances here. Dr. and Mrs. King left, on Thursday, to spend a few days with relatives in Toronto. Dr. Preston is spending a few days in Montreal on business. Mr. and Mrs. John Forrester, Westport, were recent visitors here. Miss C. M. Sturgeon returned, on Wednesday, from a short visit in Toronto. Mrs. Henry Bolton and Miss McMullen, Perth, are the guests, this week, of Mrs. George Bolton. Mrs. Burns, Westport, was the guest, last week of her mother, Mrs. Annie Gilhuly. Mrs. Ida Gallagher, Toronto, is spending her holidays at her home here. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Field and family, Watertown, N.Y., are the guests of Mrs. L. Field for the summer.

Miss Frances Grattwick Lewis, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Sydney Lewis, and William McDonnell, manager of the Bank of Montreal, Moose Jaw, Sask., formerly of Peterboro, were the principals in a very pretty wedding, in St. Mary's Anglican church, here, on Wednesday of last week. The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. J. C. Stanton. The bridesmaid was Miss Bessie Lewis, sister of the bride, and J. M. Croighton, Picton, assisted the groom. Miss Jean Lewis, Brockville, was flower girl, and Cameron Fields, Ottawa, was page of honor. The wedding march was played by Miss Mary Tett, and Miss M. Taplin, Ottawa, sang the solo, "O Perfect Love," during the signing of the register.

Cause of Disgust.

Peterboro Review.
The heavens are bright with rockets, the bars are full, men are full, the streets are full, and the nation is full of joy. And lo! The Puritan Fathers rose from the grave and walked upon the sons of men. Then they went back again disgusted. Someone had told them that the main thing on was a prize fight for the championship of the world.

"Fresh strawberries" dispensed at Gibson's Red Cross Drug Store fountain. It pays to drink there. It's easy to love our enemies—after the undertakers get them.

IMPORTANT HINTS ABOUT PRESERVING

When Canning or Preserving, two essentials to good results are: Sound Fruit and Good Sugar. Canada's orchards supply the one and in Extra Granulated Sugar you have the other. Tell your grocer plainly "Redpath's" Extra Granulated.

When you want Loaf Sugar ask for "Redpath's" Red Seal Paris Lump in Dust Proof Packages.
