

THE SPORT REVIEW

THE IRISHMEN BEAT THE C.L.C.'S BY EIGHT TO THREE.

Partell, the Irishmen's Pitcher, Threw a Great Game—The Result Gives the Victorias a Big Lead on the C.L.C. Team.

The biggest surprise of the season was handed out to the supporters of the C.L.C.'s at the cricket field Saturday afternoon, when the Y.C.C.A. beat them in the city league baseball game by a score of 8 to 3, and yet gave us no need for surprise when one saw the game put up by the Irishmen. It seemed as though the whole game rested on Partell, the Irish twirler. Many who watched the Victoria-Irishmen game a week ago Saturday were surprised to see the game pitched by Partell, but the way he shot the ball over the plate last Saturday was a wonder. Talk about speed! Why he burst the skin on the palm of Stokes' left hand and all the knuckles were swollen, and all this under the heavy catching glove. And to see the way he watched first base. He just kept his eye on the bag all the time and was beside the man who batted more than six feet away. Partell had good support. Tilton on first base played the best game of the season; Ryan at second played a cool steady game; Millan at third is always right there with the goods; Doyle was replaced at short-stop by Duncan; Harry, a new man, was a little weak, but a little practice will help him a lot.

The C.L.C.'s were in their usual goal form, Mathis twirled for them and pitched a good game; Dehoney played two innings at second base and was then replaced by Saunders. Score by innings: C.L.C. 2.0.0.1.0.0.0.—3. Y.C.C.A. 2.0.1.5.0.0.0.—8. C.L.C.—Brown, c.; Mathis, p.; Davidson, 1b.; Dehoney, 2b.; Laird, s.c.; Cook, 3b.; Wilson, r.f.; Joe Kwart, c.f.; Coyne, l.f. Y.C.C.A.—Stokes, c.; Partell, p.; Tilton, 1b.; Ryan, 2b.; Duncan, s.c.; Millan, 3b.; Joyce, r.f.; Harry, c.l.; Doyle, l.f. Fred Lamb, umpire.

Not Out of the City. Kingston, Aug. 1.—(To the Editor) If you will contradict the report that the Kingston Irishmen's Baseball Club is to play in Ottawa on Monday, you will greatly please the officers and members of the above club. The team is not out of the city.—THOMAS HINAUGH, secretary.

Will Stimulate Interest. The Oswego, N.Y., Palladium notes Major Carruthers' scheme to train sailors here, and remarks: "If the plan proves a success Kingston, which not only has many excellent young sailors but interest in the sport will be stimulated, for it follows that the more sailors there are the more boats there will be. Yachting is too close a sport to be neglected, but there is not any doubt but that it does not command the interest on Lake Ontario that it did twenty years ago. Major Carruthers' scheme should help considerably to revive the game."

City Baseball League Standing. The result of Saturday's game between the C.L.C.'s and Irishmen gives the Victorias a pretty good grip on the city league championship. The only chance there is for a tie is for the Victorias to drop their next three games and for the C.L.C.'s to win two of the three games they have still to play. The team standing is: To Victorias 6 1 3. C.L.C.'s 4 3 3. Irishmen 1 7 2.

Sporting Notes. Tenfour defeated Altoona in an Ottawa Valley League baseball game by 7 to 6.

Lad Thrown From Wheel. A young lad on a wheel very narrowly escaped serious injury Saturday evening. He was coming in lagged street at a terrific rate, and as Brock street was reached, he attempted to turn up that thoroughfare. Right at the corner, however, he attempted to make the turn safely, but just at the corner he ran into a soldier and was thrown off his bicycle, almost under the wheels of the wagon. Luckily, he escaped with a few bruises.

Off on Long Canoe Trip. William Bearance, Charles Moxley, F. Kincaid, G. Henderson, H. Edgar, Dr. A. Pihlow, D. Whitman and Dr. T. M. Gallweith left this morning on a canoe trip through the Rideau to Ottawa, down the Ottawa to Montreal, and up the St. Lawrence to Kingston. They will be away two weeks.

Visit Wolfe Island. After an extended wedding tour Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Dealing have returned to Wolfe Island, where they will spend a few days with the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Laughlin, who many friends are glad to see, return again.

Thief Yet Undiscovered. The police have so far been unable to get any clue as to the party who robbed Brown's drug store early on Saturday morning. The thief left nothing behind to establish his identity.

To Go With Earl Grey. Professor McNaughton, of McGill, will leave shortly for Hudson Bay, where he will join Lord Grey's party.

Some of Kingston's Needs Dwell Upon—A Writer Wishes the Citizen Could See With Strangers' Eyes.

Kingston, July 30.—One of Kingston's best men said a few years ago that Kingston's progress was retarded by a lot of its moneyed men, men of property with little minds and small souls, men who use old bricks, old scowls and seal mechanics to do their work. It is a pity some of the old-fashioned eyesores are not taxed for non-improvements, instead of the modern improvements put up by live men. He further said that out of hundreds of funerals of such would help our city a lot, but I do not know, some of the young rowsters grow and croak just like their dads. A business man took a trip westward for a week, and visited many cities and he said he got his eyes opened. Cities with no such natural advantages had paved streets, up-to-date hotels, specially designed for the comfort of summer tourists, police forces active, aldermen alert and open for any industry that would help their city; buildings of latest design and not all after one pattern; street car service quick and prompt and each street called out by men conductors, so that you didn't have to rattle your neck against a street car should get out, as in the case with strangers. Good macadam roads properly built and oiled are in evidence. "But," said he, "I have the greatest faith in Kingston's future. The agitation now going on means business. It is showing up the live ones and the dead ones."

NO FEAR OF YELLOW PERIL. So Long as Chinese are Educated Before They Come West.

Rev. Dr. Kilborn, a returned missionary from China, occupied the pulpit in Queen Street Methodist church last evening. He spoke on the "Yellow Peril." He said that he had seen the world and the world was not so bad as it is made out to be. He said that he had seen the world and the world was not so bad as it is made out to be. He said that he had seen the world and the world was not so bad as it is made out to be.

Baldheads Will be Scarce When Parisian Sage is Better Known

It Keeps Women's Hair Soft and Glossy, Says Elizabeth House.

No man likes to look older than he is. Every woman on earth absolutely abhors such a condition.

You may be 30 in year, but if you are bald-headed or grey, people will surely take you to be many years older, and you will be helpless to prevent it. Dandruff is the root of all hair evils. It is not for the sake of decorative ornaments working with a persistency worthy of a better cause, there would be no baldness. Parisian Sage, America's greatest hair restorer, will keep you looking young and attractive. It is guaranteed by G. W. Mahood to make hair grow, and stop falling hair; to cure dandruff in two weeks; to stop itching of the scalp almost instantly.

Charlie suggested that it would be a good time to start for Alexandria Bay. The judge pook-pooked at him so early. Twenty minutes to six, he said, was time enough. "But the boat starts promptly at six," demurred Charlie. The judge finally after sent to catch a steamboat, the five and, as the river was choppy the Devoys, Dr. Taylor, Judge Aspinall and the mechanic were all enveloped in oilskins.

"Hi her up there," said the judge to his mechanic, and the mechanic did hit her up, according to Charlie Devoys. Then came the adventure with the bull, which ended so victoriously. In about five minutes the belt was fixed and the engine cranked. The farmer was left ashore, too astonished to speak.

Just at six the boat at the dock at Alexandria Bay was crowded with folks. For some time they had wondered where Charlie and his family were. As the moment for starting approached some of the folks got much concerned. The whistle of the steamboat sounded once, when around a bend in the river came a small boat at top speed. Every wave was seen clear over her bows. In the steering seat sat the judge, with a cigar as set as were his oilskins. Within halting distance the judge ordered the mechanic to cut loose the whistle, and its wild shrieks startled the crowd aboard the steamship.

The heavy thud of the bull's hoofs, as he made for the judge, would have terrified anyone but "Fighting Joe." The bull's nostrils flared open and froth appeared on his mouth, as he thundered heavily toward the approaching judge. In another second they came together and the judge had the bull by the horns. He was not even carried off his feet, but the bull was swerved and his horns described a curve as they strained back through the air, while he groined with the struggle.

Then the judge was bent over backward as the bull heaved and got a firmer foothold on the earth. But the judge was not to be caught on the horns, nor lifted up by a swing of the bull's head, when the infuriated Hercules tried to shake him off. He allowed the bull to get his head down, and then to make a short rush and suddenly jerk up his enormous horns, wearing out the strength of the bull. As the bull threw his head back for the third time, with the judge clinging fast for dear life, "Fighting Joe's" old training came to the fore. He aided the bull to throw his head upward and backward, and put all his strength into a side twist, which nearly dislocated the animal's neck. The judge staggered, and still pushing, the judge kept his advantage, and in an instant the prod Hercules went crashing to the earth, and the judge unfazed the belted bull. The judge did not linger to gloat over the out-raged bull, but hurried back to the boat, and gave the trophy of his victory to the mechanic. The mechanic found that with some wire and ingenuity the strap would serve, and fixed the belt so that the party caught the steamboat.

It all came about from the visit of the Elks to Alexandria Bay. As "Charlie" Davoy was standing in the hotel lobby, who should come up to him but a man dressed in white ducks, yachting cap and the full regalia of a yacht owner. "Shiver me timbers," says Charlie, "that can't be Judge Joe." "It is, it is," replied the judge, "didn't you get my letter?" Charlie said he did not, and he then learned that the judge had run down from Dr. Taylor's place, ten miles up the river, just to take Charlie, his wife and the two children for a run up and back. "And I have got the speediest boat about here," said the judge.

"It is fast enough—to get us back here in time to catch the boat for Flower, July 30—Mrs. Evelyn Cameron has returned from visiting her brother at Parkton; Howard McGowan is home from Benbow; Mrs. J. Reid and little daughter, of Wakefield, Que., were guests of Mrs. Appleton. They were here for a few days, quite a crowd of Benbow people are camping on Round Lake; William Roche, of Wilbur, is on a beautiful craft about thirty-six feet long; The judge took the wheel and his mechanic was at the engine. "Well," said Charlie, talking about his morning's reminiscence, "we must have gone about thirty miles an hour."

All day the Devoys, as guests of mayor, the Taylors, had a most delightful time, but when it got to be about five o'clock, the judge suggested that it would be a good time to start for Alexandria Bay. The judge pook-pooked at him so early. Twenty minutes to six, he said, was time enough. "But the boat starts promptly at six," demurred Charlie. The judge finally after sent to catch a steamboat, the five and, as the river was choppy the Devoys, Dr. Taylor, Judge Aspinall and the mechanic were all enveloped in oilskins.

Barrieffield Budget. Barrieffield, July 30.—The recent storm that passed over Barrieffield destroyed a large tree on the premises of Major Wood. Miss Edna Staddon, Napawan, is visiting Miss H. K. Allen. Miss B. Allen, Toronto, was home for the civic holiday. Mrs. Hutton has returned home from Lowell, Mass., where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Hamblet. Mr. Pugh and the Mrs. Pugh have returned from Quebec, after visiting friends. A Nelson has returned to Boston after visiting his mother-in-law, Mrs. R. Dowler. Albert Strader, Toronto, and Mrs. Charles Strader and little daughter, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Shuler. Mrs. Frances McKee and children, Toronto, are the guests of her mother, Mrs. W. Medley. Noreen Grange, of Peterboro, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. R. Gray. M. Turner and L. Smith have been visiting in Portmouth. Mrs. Purdy, New York, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Byrnes.

Uncle Sam's Weakness. A false report has been circulated by the United States authorities that a stampede of Canadian immigrants had been started. As there is no foundation for the report, Uncle Sam's subjects will begin to lose faith in his declarations. It is a poor policy to rely on falsehood. And it is not according to the tradition of the cherry tree.

Saturday Labor News, Watertown, N.Y., in its last issue, has pictured as "The Col. Cunningham, Robert Cook, Ald. T. J. Rigney and J. S. McPhee, head of Kingston. Ald. Rigney is described as likely to be Kingston's next mayor. All day the Devoys, as guests of mayor, the Taylors, had a most delightful time, but when it got to be about five o'clock, the judge suggested that it would be a good time to start for Alexandria Bay. The judge pook-pooked at him so early. Twenty minutes to six, he said, was time enough. "But the boat starts promptly at six," demurred Charlie. A well-known Chicago hair specialist invites the Inter-Ocean reporter to come to his office and see, under a microscope, how the germ that causes dandruff thrives in vaseline. The specialist said that all hair preparations containing grease, simply furnish food for the germs and help to propagate them. The only way to cure dandruff is to destroy the germs, and the only hair preparation that will do that is Newbro's Herpicide. Destroy the cause, you remove the effect. Without dandruff no falling hair, no baldness. Ask for Herpicide. It is the only destroyer of the dandruff germ.
