Flagmaking in France.
Chicago News.
That unclean bandages and wound dressings from German hospitals are being used in the manufacture of flags for the French "patriotic" is the substance of information contained in a report of the commission on industrial hygiene, which has aroused a storm of indignation.
"Several romancers," comments the Paris Matin, "have prophesied this truly civilized and scientific mode of international war, in which the enemy is exterminated by means of the pest germs of typhus and cholera propagated in dyes and camps. At France and Germany, however, are at peace, the microbes mobilization seems to be premature and must be stopped."
"It is generally recognized that used hospital dressings are burned everywhere if the rules are observed, and the blame for the dangerous traffic is laid at the door of greedy janitors and charwomen, who pack the infected rags in bales and sell them to second-hand dealers. The French customs officers say they are unable to combats the rags bought by dealers at the frontier. The stuff is perfectly disinfected, but not before it has been sorted by women and children—

A NIGHT POLICEMAN

APPOINTED BY THE GANANOQUE TOWN COUNCIL.

Winnipeg Man Gets the Position—Wedding in St. John's Church—Sneak Thieves at Work in the West Woods.

Gananoque, Aug. 4.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. John's church, at nine o'clock, yesterday morning, when Miss Elizabeth Corboy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Corboy, Stone street, and William Wing, Sydenham street, were joined in matrimony. The nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Kehoe. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Quennie Corboy, and the groom by John Parish, Columbus, Ohio, a former resident. After the ceremony the customary good cheer was provided at the home of the bride's parents. The bride was attired in an all-over lace creation with white hat, trimmed with white lace and feathers. Many handsome presents attired to the bride's popularity. Mr. and Mrs. Wing left by launch later in the day to spend their honeymoon among the islands in this vicinity.

The funeral of the late Miss Polly Wilson, who died in Kingston, took place from the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson, First street, to Willow Bank cemetery, to-day.

The dead, calm yesterday afternoon prevented the third of the series of "dingy" races. The ladies, however, were not prevented from serving their five o'clock tea for the club members and their guests, while a visiting band discoursed sweet music.

The combination excursion of the New Island Wanderer and America, yesterday afternoon, for complete tour of the islands, being a novelty, attracted a fairly good crowd.

Constable Champagne, of Brockville, was in town Tuesday evening and took charge of the prisoner, Mrs. Ryan, who, under her maiden name of Hattie Ryan, had rented a house in Brockville, from E. R. Hardendorf, Perth street, and failed to return it. Chief Burke telephoned Chief Ryan the particulars and she was nabbed here Tuesday noon with the bicycle in her possession.

The Remington Typewriter company's hand, touring the country in the interests of that firm, are spending the week at Gananoque Inn, where they are giving concerts every evening, and also today.

A special session of the town council was held at the new town hall last evening for the purpose of considering the applications for the position of night policeman. There were seven applications considered. The appointment was awarded to Charles Sweet, late of Winnipeg, at a salary of $50 per annum.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wootton and sons, John and George, Schenectady, N.Y., are guests of Mrs. Wootton's sister, Mrs. William Pratt, King street. Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson and son, Ottawa, are guests of Mrs. Wilson's sister, Mrs. A. D. Howe, Oak street. John Landou, Montreal, is spending his vacation here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Landou, King street. Mr. and Mrs. Madeline Peck, spending the past week with the latter's sister, Mrs. J. A. Bullock, Church street, have left for a visit to Goderich.

Sneak thieves are reported to be pilvng their nefarious work in the West ward. During the past week chickens have been stolen, as well as other property.

The Water Power company were compelled to shut off the water at 3.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon until Friday morning, there being insufficient water for the needs of the local manufacturers.

And Freddy Grinned.
Pearson's
"I don't have no opinion of these new-fangled women's notions," said Mr. Hyde when his wife, timidly, expressed her desire to join the Women's Self Improvement Society.

"But we learn so much there," ventured Mrs. Hyde.
"Don't believe it!" snapped Mr. Hyde. "Women don't know much, that's a fact, but let 'em stick to their domestic duties and learn them. That's my opinion. Let 'em follow St. Paul's injunction—stay at home and ask their husbands if they want to know anything."
"But, John—"

"I've settled it, and that's enough, Jane."
"But, John, that's what women have been doing all this time, and perhaps that's the reason they don't know much."
"And then Mr. Hyde threw his boot at the cat and boxed Freddy's ears for grinning."

Mackenzie's Big Plans.
Winnipeg Press Press.
The Canadian Northern railway wants to have the building and operating of the Hudson Bay railway. It also wants the dominion and Ontario governments to co-operate in furnishing it with sufficient assistance to enable it to bridge a five-hundred-mile gap between its eastern and western systems. Now, according to a Montreal despatch, William Mackenzie coyly admits that he has expectations of securing the Intercolonial railway, at present the property of the people of Canada. There's nothing small about the Canadian Northern appetite—nothing short of all Canada apparently will satisfy it.

Where the Grind Occurs.
Canadian Co-Operator.
With two trade on the one hand and co-operative societies on the other, it is impossible to bleed the people of Britain by the artificial manipulation of the price of the necessities of life. With a successful co-operative society in every trading community in Canada, the mercantile associations would be compelled to spend their organizing power in effecting economies in the cost of distribution in order to meet co-operative competition instead of attempting to rob the consumer.

It is for this reason such strenuous opposition is being offered by those to co-operative legislation.
