DESERONTO YOUNG MAN DEAD.

The Late M. C. Matthews, Foreman of News Company. Deseronto, Aug. 8.—At his home, corner of Thomas and First streets, on Saturday morning, death came to one of Deseronto's best known and highly respected young men, in the person of Milton C. Matthews, aged twenty-three years, after a short illness of one week. He was foreman of the printing department of the Deseronto News company. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. A. J. Harvey, of Campbellford, at the family residence on Monday afternoon, when a large number of friends paid their last tribute of respect. The funeral offerings were rare and beautiful. Deceased is survived by his young widow, to whom he was married two years ago by the same clergyman who officiated at his funeral; and by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Matthews, three sisters and one brother, of Petrolia. Mr. Matthews came to Deseronto five years ago from Chatham. He served his apprenticeship in the office of the Kempville Advance under Mr. Sealey, one of the most aggressive publishers in Eastern Ontario. He was a member of the Canadian Order of Foresters. The pallbearers were members of the local lodge, viz., Messrs. James Fairbairn, Edward Cole, Walter W. Cook, N. D. Carter, Edward Provins and William Stoddart.

DEATH AT PLINTON

Of an Aged Frenchman—Passed Away While at Supper. Plinton, Aug. 8.—On July 23rd another pioneer settler passed quietly away, in the person of Peter Faveran, a very old lady, now remains of over fifty years. He was born in France. His parents settled in Lower Canada. When he was a young man he came here and made it his permanent home until called away. One sister, a very old lady, now remains of a large family. Mr. Faveran was twice married. He had three sons by his first wife. Two reside here and one in London, Man. A widow and a son and daughter are left in a comfortable home. When a lad at Belleville, the deceased saw one of the first steamboats come up the Bay of Quinte. The funeral was largely attended. Interment took place at the Roman Catholic cemetery. Mr. Faveran had been a great worker and leaves his family in very comfortable circumstances, but he died without a will. Death was almost instantaneous. He sat down to his supper, but never rose. A great change has taken place in the little village of Plinton. Alexander Laundry has bought the Marshall Bradshaw place, and Amos Deane, the old Campbell place, so there will be quite a move. Cutting marsh hay seems to be the order of the day. Some of the marshes are not worth cutting, as the weather all through the season has been so dry. Blackberries and raspberries were almost a failure. G. L. Jerome and little daughter have returned from Kingston, where Mr. Jerome went to consult a specialist. A change of teachers has taken place in the Plinton school. The Misses Holt have been engaged to teach it. One taught here before. Cassius Stone, successfully passed the entrance examination at Napanee.

Track Walker Loses Legs.

Waterloo, N. Y., Aug. 9.—Ten cars in a circus train, on route from Clayton to Adams, passed over the legs of nineteen-year-old Charles Cork, living near Edison, resulting in the young man's death at the City Hospital. Facts in possession of railroad representatives lead them to believe Cork was asleep near the track, with his legs over the rails. Cork's brothers, however, claim that the young man met death in the performance of his duty as a track walker, accounting for his being almost early by saying that it was customary for him to get up before the train and do his work before the heat of the day came.
