NOT YET RELEASED

JACOB GUBLITSKY, SMUGGLER, HAS INFLUENTIAL FRIENDS.

He is Debarred From Returning to the United States, According to a Washington Order, But He May Go Back all the Same.

Jacob Gublitsky, the Detroit fur smuggler, has not yet been released from the penitentiary, although the Canadian justice department has practically decided to parole him. The department first desired to know if the United States authorities would allow Gublitsky to return to his home across the line, but the United States consul has been notified that he can return only on a condition that it is proven he is a citizen of the United States. In that case, he could be deported. As Gublitsky never took out naturalization papers, he is technically not a citizen of that country.

The position of Gublitsky is rather peculiar. A year ago, the secretary of state at Washington instructed ex-consul Van Sant to inquire into this case, and do what he could to secure the release of the prisoner. Quite a lot of correspondence passed between the consul and the department of justice at Ottawa, but the latter did not seem disposed to let the smuggler or his son go. Now, when the Canadian authorities are willing to secure the release of Gublitsky, the immigration authorities at Washington reply that the prisoner cannot return to his home unless he can prove that he is a citizen of the United States. Gublitsky has had influential friends working for his release, one being the secretary of state for New York, and it is expected that it will be arranged that he will be allowed to return to his family when he is released from the penitentiary here.

TRADES AND LABOR COUNCIL.

The Labor Men Will Parade to Church.

The regular meeting of the Kingston Trades and Labor Council was held on Thursday evening. The president, George Lewis, occupied the chair. There was very little business on hand, and an early adjournment was made.

It was decided that the labor men should parade to Brock Street Methodist church, for the morning service, on the first Sunday in September. This action was taken on a recent invitation sent to the labor men, to attend divine service. The sermon will be preached by Rev. T. E. Bourke. The committees having in charge the big labor day celebration, reported progress, and over-thing points to a great celebration. The printing committee reported that the tickets and posters had been distributed, and that the programmes would be out next week.

Grace spent two weeks in jail for being a frequenter of the streets, and cannot come back to Canada. If she does she will be liable to arrest. Her companion has still two more weeks to serve in jail.

It is understood that the matter brought out quite a discussion, at the convention, here, this week, when some of the members made the request that dancing be allowed, but according to what has been stated, nothing official dealing with the matter having been given out, it appears that the request was turned down, and that the rule against dancing will continue to hold good.

It is terrible the amount of filth which accumulates in this slip and, as a result makes it very disagreeable for the people who are working in that neighborhood.

He Was Nearly Drowned.

Two strangers moored their gasoline yacht at Richardson's slip, the other evening, and, while preparing to land, one of them was nearly drowned. He had stepped off the boat, and after making her fast, was about to step on board again for the purpose of getting something on the boat, when he fell into the water. When he came up, he reached for the mooring line, and, with the help of his fellow-traveller, managed to get out of his uncomfortable position. Afterward it was found that the boat had drifted some distance away from the wharf without the knowledge of the man on land.

At Lake Ontario Park.

Despite the heavy rain, last night, there were a fair audience at the performance in the pavilion at Lake Ontario Park. The programme was entirely changed. Campbell and Fletcher, the trapeze artists, gave a good presentation of their comedy success, "Over the Garden Wall," created much amusement. There are now eight entries for the Labor day Marathon.

Mercantile Baseball Executive.

A meeting of the Mercantile baseball executive has been called for this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Standard office. Several matters of importance are to be considered.

All Kinds of Sports.

The Belmont cricketers, of Philadelphia, will play four games in Toronto, this is rumored, that the American Baseball League will invade Pittsburgh. "Ad" Wolgast and "Pal" Moore will meet in Philadelphia on August 24th. Eddie Duran, Toronto, will challenge Arnet for the world's championship. Pittsburgh is only six games behind Chicago Cubs in the National Baseball League.

"Rube" Waddell is to get a $500 bonus should Newark win out in the Eastern Baseball League. There will be one hundred days' racing at Jacksonville, Florida, this fall. The Ontario-Quebec cricket match will be played at Montreal next week. Acting-Mayor Mitchell, of New York, daily denied that he had done anything to stop the Lang-Kaufman fight at the Fairmont A.C., other than to formally notify the police commissioner that the law must be observed.

The sculling match for the championship of the world between Richard Arnet, New Zealand, and Ernest Harry, London, was won by Arnet, the champion, by two lengths. The race was rowed upon the Zambesi river in Rhodesia. New York Telegram: If "Rube" Waddell can forget that he is not a river, ponds, and an ocean well stocked with fish within a half hour's journey of Newark, he will be the right man in the right place. If he can pitch as well in his future attempts as he has already done, there will be no complaint against him. Spade should fill Mueller's shoes, and McGinlay and Lee in line condition the prospects for Newark's winning the pennant are much brighter than they were before the trades were made.

The United States rugby flying tackle has been entirely eliminated by a new rule, which provides that a player must have one foot at least on the ground when tackling an opponent. The new legislation governing the forward pass, which a number of experts were inclined to abolish altogether, will materially alter the play and aspect of the game. This year's rules provide that a player is only qualified to receive a forward pass who is at least one yard back of his own line of scrimmage or occupies the position on the end of the said line. No man may make a forward pass or kick the ball unless he is five yards back of the line of scrimmage.

MARK TWAIN'S DOUBLE.

Calls on General Grant at Pine Plains.

At Pine Camp, N.Y., near Watertown, N.Y., Gen. Grant had a strange caller, Monday afternoon. He was Maj. James H. Durham, Cape Vincent, and he is the exact duplicate of the late Mark Twain. People around the camp marvelled at the wonderful resemblance. In a white flannel suit, Maj. Durham could have passed anywhere as the great humorist. The major was asked if he had ever been mistaken for Mr. Clemens. "Often," said the old soldier, "and the resemblance led up to a very great friendship between Mark Twain and myself. "I will tell you how it started. A newspaper man some years ago noticed the startling likeness between myself and Mr. Clemens and wrote a story about it which was published in the New York Herald. A short time after I received this letter: "Maj. Durham, Dear sir, I once said long ago, if I ever find a man that looks like me, I am going to shoot him on the spot. I am going to shoot you—Mark Twain." "I answered him immediately with the following communication. "Mark Twain, Dear sir, if I look like you I want to be shot.—James Durham." "That was the starting of our friendship, and it lasted until the unfortunate death of the humorist, a few months ago."

Kingston Fishing Good.

The fishing in Kingston harbor is pretty good is evidenced from the fact that besides the big maskinonge caught the other day off Macdonald Park, a couple of young men caught a three-and-a-half and a two-and-a-half pound black bass out from the foot of O'Kelly street.

MOVEMENT OF GRAIN.

Has Been Quite Slack, But Rush is Expected.

The grain traffic has been quite slack, the past few weeks, but it is expected that there will be quite a rush of grain from Port William in the course of a very short time.

"During June and July, it is always quite slack in the grain carrying business," remarked one of the shippers, to-day, "but it has been fairly good this year." We have been able to keep all the vessels going all right. In a short time, now, the grain will be coming down with quite a rush. The steamship Navajo arrived, light, from Port Hope.

The schooner Cornelia cleared for Sodus, with a cargo of feldspar. The schooner Kewath is at Howe Island, loading stone, for Cobourg. The schooner Freeman, cleared from Howe Island, with stone for Cobourg. The schooner Mary Ann Lydon is at Richardson's elevator, loading feldspar for Charlotte.

The steamer America had four hundred passengers on her trip to Ogdessa, N.Y., to-day. The schooner Port Colborne arrived from Fort William, and is unloading grain at the Forwarders' Limited company's elevator.

The steamship John Randall, the steamer Sowards and the schooner Merrill, held up by the wind storm, were able to clear across the lake, to-day. Swift's Steamers Toronto and North King, down and up, to-day; steamer City of Montreal, up, last night; steamer Britannic, up, this afternoon.

M. T. Co.: Tug Emerson, from Montreal, three light barges; tug Bronson cleared, light, for Lachine; tug Hall, due, to-night, from Montreal, with two light barges.

THOUGHT THEY WERE STOLEN.

Owners Were Surprised to Get Back Wheels.

Two citizens were given a little surprise party by the police, on Thursday, when they got back their wheels, which they believed had been stolen, and which they never expected to see again.

The wheels had been left on the street and were taken in charge of the police. They stayed in the police station for some time without being claimed. It appears that the two wheels were not even required for the story in the Whig, about the wheels having been recovered, not the owners on the trail, and now they have their wheels once more in their possession.

AT THE Y.M.C.A.

Preparations for the Fall and Winter Work.

The appointment of a physical instructor, at the Y.M.C.A., has been received with much interest, by the members of the association, as preparations can now be made for the fall and winter work. In the summer months, it is very quiet around the association's building, but in the winter it is one of the busiest places in the city.

All the classes have to be arranged, and it will take some time to get everything settled. Basketball promises to be a popular game this year with the Y.M.C.A. boys.

OLD COLLEGIATE BUILDING CAN NOT BE SECURED.

For the Use of Board of Education—School of Mining Engineers Will Not Give it up—City Solicitor Thinks Governors are Within Their Rights in Retaining It.

The chances are that the city will not get the old Collegiate building for school purposes. The board of education applied to the city council for the building which could be fitted for school purposes at a cost of $7,000, and thus relieve the present congestion. No application has as yet been made to the governors of the School of Mining for the building, which they hold under agreement from the city, but one is to be made by the city finance committee this week. It is pretty well known, however, that the governors will not give up the building. More than that one of them states that the old Collegiate will not be transferred to the board of education.

It is understood that the city solicitor holds the opinion that the governors of the School of Mining are quite within their rights in using the building as they are doing. The city granted it to the school for purposes of mining and agriculture, but it is not specified that it must be used immediately for those purposes. Just at present the School of Mining does not need the old Collegiate property but it may require it badly ten years from now, or even five years hence. The governors are holding the property with an eye to the future. The school is expanding and the day will come when it will require more buildings than can be erected on the university grounds. It is hoped that within a couple of years a department of agriculture will be established here, with assistance from the Ontario government, which last year made a grant for a cold storage plant at the dairy school.

It looks as if the board of education would have to ask the city council for two new public schools, and drop the idea of getting the old Collegiate building for remodeling. The school population is steadily increasing and more school room must be secured at once.

KILLED BY TAXICAB.

Father of Dr. Guttman Died in Brussels.

Word has been received in the city that Prof. Guttman, father of Dr. G. F. Guttman, professor of chemistry at Queen's University, was run over and killed, by a taxicab, in Brussels. Dr. Guttman's father was a great authority on explosives, and was engaged in work of this kind at the big exhibition. Dr. Guttman has been over in England for some time.

Stone Cutters' Strike.

If the present strike of the stone cutters continues, building operations in the fall will be very much affected. The board of trade president might be asked to appoint a board of arbitration.
