CUPID IS VERY BUSY

MARRIED THREE COUPLE IN TWENTY-FOUR HOURS.

Kingston Minister Had a Very Busy Time—The Parties United Were all From Outside City—Kingston an Attraction for Wedding Parties.

Little Cupid's dart has been very busy in this district the past few weeks and as a result some of the clergymen have been working overtime in tying knots. Not only has there been many local marriages, but a large number of outsiders have come to Kingston to get married so this goes to show that the old historic city of Kingston has some attractions—even though we have no paved streets as yet.

Rev. T. E. Bourke, pastor of Brock street church, has been called upon to perform six marriages this week, and three of these occurred between Thursday noon and Friday noon. These marriages were solemnized by Rev. Mr. Bourke.

On Thursday afternoon, at the parsonage, occurred the marriage of Miss Eva Hill and James Kelly, both of Clayton, N.Y. At the parsonage, on Thursday evening, the marriage took place of Miss Maud Ella Madden, of Newburgh, and Le Roy Jacob Wartman, of Sydenham. Friday morning another happy ceremony was performed, when Miss Florence Nettie Ramsey and James Leggett, both of Syracuse, were united.

TWAS A GRAND SUCCESS.

True Blues' Picnic Held at Picton on Thursday.

The picnic held at the Orphans' Home, Picton, on Thursday, under the auspices of the True Blues, was a grand success. The delegates who went up from Kingston, after attending the convention, report having had a splendid time. Although it rained heavily in Kingston almost all day Picton escaped and there was no rain until the delegates were about to return to Kingston. The True Blues evidently had the weather man with them all right.

It is estimated that there were four thousand people on the grounds. The Kingston contingent left here via the steamer Brockville at nine o'clock and left on the return trip about eight o'clock.

A fine programme had been prepared for the occasion, including vaudeville sketches by Toronto artists, and a fine programme of music was also rendered by the Oddfellows' band, of Belleville. Meals were served on the grounds by the members of the Woman's Auxiliary. Special attention had been paid to the lighting of the grounds for the evening, and they presented a very pretty appearance. All day long boats were run between Picton and the home and this made it convenient for all who desired to attend.

This afternoon the delegates to the convention here were taken in charge by George D. Kelly, the recording secretary, who secured them passes to go through the penitentiary and they were well looked after by him. The delegates will return home to-night.

THE VARS TRAGEDY

THE PATIENT PERSISTED SHOOTING WAS ACCIDENTAL.

And Some People Think His Statements May be True—An Inquest is Now Being Held.

Vars, Ont., Aug. 19.—The inquest was the chief interest, this morning, of the aftermath of yesterday's tragedy, in which Dr. Empey lost his life, through a shot fired by Albert Blondin. It was discovered, yesterday, that only one barrel of the shot gun had been fired. Blondin still sticks to his story that the shooting was accidental and exhibits a bruise on his abdomen where he says the gun kicked him. There is a feeling in the village that his story may be correct, this being given color by the entire absence of any motive for murder.

Crown Attorney Maxwell, of L'Orignal, arrived, this morning, and took charge of the adjourned inquest, it being resumed on the arrival of the morning train. Larry Groszowski was the first witness examined. Beyond showing the old man's fondness for firearms and his great care of the weapons, he possessed, his evidence brought out nothing new. He was followed by Rev. J. Cormack, who told of taking the dying doctor's ante-mortem statement, and by the sister of the deceased, who related the incidents leading up to the sending of her brother to the Blondin home. The inquiry is proceeding this afternoon.

THE BISHOP OF LONDON.

On His Way to Aylmer to See Brother.

RIGHT REV. A. FOLEY WINNINGTON-INGRAM.

Montreal, Aug. 19.—Right Rev. A. Foley Winnington-Ingram, Bishop of London, arrived, last night, on the Empress of Britain special, leaving for Toronto almost immediately. He said he was going to visit his brother, who has been living near Aylmer, Ont. Later he goes to Halifax to take part in the Anglican church celebration.

Alluding to the horde of immigrants now pouring into Canada, the bishop said a grave responsibility rested on the shoulders of the religious people of Canada, as so many were leaving for places where church opportunities were few.

WERE BADLY HURT.

Scoop Was Made of the Engine's Tender.

Bridgeburg, Ont., Aug. 19.—A serious accident occurred in the New York Central yards, at Black Rock, last night. The M.C.R. transfer, from Bridgeburg, in charge of Conductor Putney and Engineer Foskes, had delivered a train of cars to the N.Y.C. R.R., when a N.Y.C. train ran into them, making a scrap pile of the tender. Conductor Putney was seriously, if not fatally, injured and Fireman Thomas, of the M. C. engine, was badly hurt, and were both taken to the emergency hospital, in Buffalo. Fireman Thomas' home is in St. Thomas, while Conductor Putney lives with his parents, here.

Assistant Chief Elmer Home.

Assistant Chief John Elmer, of the Kingston fire department, returned on Thursday evening from Watertown, N.Y., where he attended the state firemen's convention. The chief attended every convention there for the past twenty years, and he says that the one held this week has all former ones beaten. Every private house and public building, as well as all public buildings were hung with lanterns, and the electric light display was magnificent. Water-tower people spared neither pains nor expense to make the visitors' stay pleasant. One reason, the chief said, for the success of the celebration was the fact that over all and at the head of every committee was a Kingston man, Mayor Hugo. This worthy gentleman worked day and night while the convention was in progress to keep everything running right.

All They Could Afford.

Benefits of Sleep in the Open Air—Feed Your Lungs.

Technical World.
Edwin Markham, famous poet, advocates and practices outdoor sleeping. He said:

"It seems that people are just beginning to discover that they have lungs and that their lungs have to be fed as well as their stomachs."

No one who has thoroughly enjoyed his bed in the open, after night, and summer and winter, ever willingly relinquishes it, and is generally eager to get back to it. And here are some of the reasons:

The sweet feeling of naturalness and bodily well-being, which comes from freedom from insomnia, for which outdoor sleeping is an absolute specific.

The wonderfully recuperative and vitalizing processes of which one quickly reaps the benefit, even though at first hardly run down in physique.

The consciousness of escape from conditions that hamper if they do not actually threaten human life.

Immunity from colds and the diseases they engender.

Of Little Consequence.

A woman at Franklin, Pa., has been arrested for washing dishes on Sunday.

A soldier in the army tried to hang himself the other day and now he has been sent to jail for conduct tending to destroy discipline.

An Ohio man has invented a frying pan that has a partition in it so that two different things can be fried in it at the same time.

A laborer on the Gatun dam at Panama fell into the water near a twenty-inch drain pipe the other day, and was washed through 300 feet of tunnel.

The pastor of the First Congregational church at Sioux City, Ia., has joined the bartenders' union.

A Chicago woman, who is a lawyer, has just received a fee of $22,000.

The good to give a stranger a meal or a night's lodging; 'tis better to be hospitable to his good meaning and thought and give courage to a companion. We must be as courteous to a man as we are to a picture, which we are willing to give the advantage of a good light.

TO BE A TEST CASE

CHARGED WITH SHOWING MOVING PICTURES.

Of the Johnson-Jeffries Fight—The Manager of the Olympic Theatre in Quebec has Been Arrested.

Quebec, Aug. 19.—L. Heures, the manager of the Olympic theatre, has been arrested by order of the attorney-general for giving an exhibition of moving pictures representing the Jeffries-Johnson prize fight.

The preliminary investigation will take place in the police court next Tuesday. The exhibition will not be interrupted, but will continue until tomorrow night. It is a test case.

The police magistrate will decide if the provincial authorities have the power, or not, to stop the exhibition of these pictures in the province of Quebec.

Special to the Whig.

A G.T.R. train crew, this morning, found an Italian, named O. Eshiair, lying, apparently dead, beside the tracks at Rock Lake, on the Parry Sound division. He was placed on board the train and recovered consciousness before he reached Ottawa, but is unable to tell how he came by the severe injuries to his head. It is thought that the man was wounded by fellow-workers on a ballasting gang. His condition is serious.

The authorities of Wright county are making a big fight against "blind pigs," and Andre Lachapelle, Montreal, a merchant, was, to-day, fined $250, by Judge Goyette, of Hull, for illegally selling liquor. Several other prosecutions are pending.

Competitive examinations for cadets for the naval college will be held by the civil service commission in various parts of Canada in October. The college, at Halifax, will open near the end of the year, with thirty cadets, and fifteen will be added yearly.
