The Lady Hopes to Reach the Century Mark-The Trip She Made Was Fraught With Many Dangre

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 26.-Mrs. atharine Belknap, sole survivor of the Watts waggon train party, which crossed the plains from lowa to Oregon in 1848, and oldest pioneer woman in the North-West, celebrated the ninetieth anniversary of her birthday at the home of her grandson, Walter Belknap, 2323 East Providence avenue, Spokane, a few days ago. She is in good health and expects to reach the century mark. She has not experienced a day's sickness in eighty-three

Mrs. Belknap is a native of Ohio born on August 15th, 1820. When nineteen years of age, she married learge Belkuap and moved to Van Buren county, lows, than a territory, where she and her husband joined the Watts party. The train, which was aposed of forty waggons, started for Oregon, in which territory the gov-ecoment then offered a half section of land to every settler. The Belknap settled 100 miles south of Oregon City, living there thirty years.

The trip across the plains was fraught with danger and troops of soldiers were assigned to guard the emigrants from attack by hostile Indians. Mrs. Belknap says the scores of shots were exchanged daily, but few were injured. When the party reached the Oregon border the party divided, twenty of the waggons crossing the Cascade mountains and there again Cascade mountains and there again divided, ten waggons going through to a point 100 miles south of Oregon

Mr. and Mrs. Belknap moved to Washington territory in 1879, and settled in the Palouse country, forty miles south of Spokane, which then had a population of 250 and one general store and a cross-roads post office, the mail being brought in by pony OIIR PROGRAM:

that Spokane would ever have more 5,000 population," said Mrs. Belknap, "and not even the most eniastic 'booster' dreamed there would one day be a city of 123,000. But it has all come about in thirty-
