PRICES STILL FIRM ON A LONG TRAMP VESSEL IN ACCIDENT

MEAT IS STILL AT A HIGH FIGURE.

Baron Has Dropped Half Cent a Pound This Week—Lower Prices at Oswego, N.Y., But Not Likely for Kingston—Hard on the Dealers.

According to the reports in the Oswego, N.Y., papers, the price of meat there has taken a good drop, and as a result, housewives are now smiling. "Not much change here, and not likely to be," This was the statement given to the Whig, by a local butcher, last night, when asked about the prices. "Of course the price has lowered a trifle since the high prices were on, some time ago, but the drop altogether has not been much to speak of."

"Bacon took a drop of half a cent this week," he added, "and this led me to get in a stock." You can't tell how the price is going to go, so when there is a drop it is better for you to take advantage of it."

The dealer said that the market at present did not show any signs of a drop in price. So Kingston housekeepers, who have been under the impression that meat would soon get cheaper had better not depend on it.

The price of meat made so many jumps in the past six months or so, that it is a well-known fact that several butchers were compelled to go out of business. Dealers were hard hit, all over the country, and Kingston did not escape. Two or three small dealers in this city were compelled to close up shop, on this account. They were forced to pay such a high price for their stock, that it was impossible for them to make it a paying business.

In the summer months, there is quite a falling off in the amount of meat consumed, and this, together with the fact that prices have been so high, was disastrous to dealers.

In Kingston there are many families who cut down expenses by having meat on the bill-of-fare, but once or twice a week and with some, perhaps once a week, was the limit. Vegetables and fruits have taken the place of meat.

It will be good news to the local housekeepers, when a drop in the prices is announced.

ANTILLERYMAN IS FOOTING IT TO KINGSTON.

Richard Garrat, an Englishman, Making a Trip Here From Sarnia—He is Quite a Globe Trotter—Wants to Enlist Here.

With Kingston as his point of destination Richard Wells Garrat, an English artilleryman is on a tramp of about 350 miles. It was expected that he would reach Kingston the end of this week. He is coming here for the purpose of enlisting in the artillery.

Garrat is a globe trotter of some note, and that is the reason for his footing it to Kingston. He was in Sarnia on Sunday last and left there in the evening on his long tramp. He reached London on Monday morning, spent the day there, and was a guest at Wolsley Barracks over night. On Tuesday he started out on his tramp again and it is expected that he would stop at Toronto and several other places along the line.

Garrat recently walked to Port Huron, Mich., from a point three hundred miles beyond Duluth.

IN BASEBALL CIRCLES.

The Railroaders Disappointed the Grocers' Team.

The Grocers were a very much disappointed bunch of ball players when after going out to the cricket field and waiting for three-quarters of an hour, yesterday afternoon, the opposing team failed to show up. When they went out to the field they did not know whether they would play the Live Coals or Railroaders. They were scheduled to meet the Live Coals but the executive had decided that it was best to finish out the game of the evening before with the Railroaders. After waiting there until after six o'clock they came to the conclusion that the other team did not want a game very badly so they betook themselves to their suppers.

Mercantile Baseball Standing.

Things are becoming fixed up quite a lot in the Mercantile League just now, so much so in fact that if they are not straightened out very soon, the last game may not take place on Labor Day. Some of the other games will have to be laid aside. Group "A" is played off with Wormwits as the winners, with four games won and two lost. Praters and Retailers are the same with three won and three lost. Posties were shut out at the last moment with two won and four lost. The mail-handlers looked best in the beginning of the season but, like many another team, went down on the "bum" during the latter part. Retailers started out in a half-hearted sort of manner but finished up well.

In group "B" the teams are very nearly even. Railroaders have a lead of one game over the other teams, with three won, one lost and one to play. Live Coals two won, three lost and one to play; Grocers two won, two lost and two to play; Richardsons two won, three lost and one to play.

Grocers look good for the first place in this group, if they can manage to defeat the Coal-Eaters and the Railroaders in their next games they have the group cinched. On the other hand if the Railroaders win one game out of the next two they will be tied with the Provision men. It would be pretty hard to predict who will be the winner in this group yet. If the boys only hold to the form they have shown so far they should make it interesting for each other.

Saturday Baseball Over.

Those who have been in the habit of journeying to the cricket field on a Saturday afternoon, to see the Cobbs, Wagners, and Lajoies perform, will have to take a vacation until next season. There will be no more baseball on the cricket field this year unless a practice game is pulled off. The game have certainly enjoyed the class of ball that has been played all season, and great credit is due to the well-balanced organization of the City League. With such capable officers as have had control of the affairs this year it is no wonder that things have gone so smoothly. At the head of this league are men who know baseball through and through, who realize what this sport means to the people, and who do their best to give it to the people the way they like to have it. It is hoped by everyone interested in baseball that next season will be even better than the last one has been.

May Get It By Default.

It looks as though Grocers would get the game scheduled for last evening, by default. The Live Coals were scheduled to meet the Grocers unless they were notified to the contrary. They were not notified to that effect, and as their men did not show up they will have to lose the game. If the default holds good the Live Coals are out of it entirely. "Jack" Stansbury's nine have certainly made things lively for the other teams, while they were in the running, and it seems too bad that they will have to lose the game without playing for it. No doubt the "hot" ones will think this a raw deal, but they should have had their men on the field ready to play at the time appointed, and then they would have had a chance to add one more scalp to their belt.

DR. AYKROYD'S PAPER

At the Dental Convention Caused Discussion.

An Ottawa special to the Whig says:—"At the Eastern Ontario Dental Association convention here, the chief event of Thursday's programme, was an address on "Some causes, deterioration of present day teeth," by Dr. S. H. Aykroyd, of Kingston. Dr. Aykroyd, who is an acknowledged authority in his line, threw some new light on several questions concerning caries and its prevention. His paper was the cause of considerable discussion among the attending dentists."

United States Commissioner James S. Whipple, of the Forest, Fish and Game commission, has decided that squatters on Adirondack state lands must go. Instructions have been issued to employees of the department to tear down the camps and eject their occupants, whether rich or poor, as soon as the fire season is over.

A CLEVER CRIMINAL.

W. L. Middleton, Who Served Here in Penitentiary.

W. Lancelot Middleton, the bigamist and crook, who served seven years in penitentiary, here, and who, it is thought, has been landed by the Toronto police, in the person of John Hagley, a forger, is one of the cleverest of criminals. The writer knows something about Middleton, for he had several talks with him after his release from penitentiary, as he remained in Kingston several days after leaving the prison. Middleton claimed that he had been harshly treated. In penitentiary he developed a strong liking for W. P. Archibald, then of the Salvation Army, and now chief of government parole officer. After leaving Kingston, in the spring of 1904, he went to Montreal and thence proceeded to New York, where he was for some time a reporter on the New York American. Then he got into an embroilment with scraps, and the New York police hunted for him in vain. Ever since, his whereabouts have been a mystery. Now, the Toronto police authorities think they have him. It should not be very difficult to identify him. Pictures published in the Toronto papers look much like him.

PORTSMOUTH GARDEN PARTY.

A Fine Affair Was Held by Methodist Church.

The ladies of the Methodist church, at Portsmouth, held a garden party, on Friday evening, on the grounds of R. M. Graham, adjoining the church, and the affair was a most pleasant one. There was a very good attendance, and music was provided by the Killies' band. Ice cream and other refreshments were dispensed by the ladies, and a good sum will be realized. The ladies are deserving of credit for the way in which all the arrangements were carried out, and for the success of the event. The grounds were well illuminated and it was an ideal spot for such a gathering.

Miss Rowell succeeded in winning the prize offered for guessing the correct weight of a cake. The cake weighed nine pounds, nine ounces.

Band in Macdonald Park.

By kind permission of Lord Alton, Burfall and officers, the band of the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery will play in Macdonald Park, this evening, from 8 to 10 o'clock. The programme will be:—"March," "The Midshipman," "Laurelwood," "Overture," "Barber's Finta," "Intermezzo," "Tristram's March," "Tollie," Selection of popular songs. "The Sexton's Plum," "Williams, Mexican dance," "Bosia," "Meadow," Selection, "Bohemian Girl," "Balls," "Morcan," "Hearts and Flowers," "Columbia," "Sketch," "By the Swanne River," "Myddleton," "O Canada," "God Save the King," "Alfred Light, R.E.M.S. bandmaster.

Compare the Cost.

As a matter of economy Clark's Pork and Beans have a great advantage over butcher's meat. Further they make a most agreeable change and are just as nourishing and are welcomed at the table by everyone. Wm. Clark, Mr. Montreal.

"There isn't much choice between the woman who makes cutting remarks and the one who looks dangerous," says the Portsmouth philosopher.
