to place your money where it will be safe and in an investment that is going to have a steady, rapid, natural increase in value.

Keeping cash secreted about the house or in a bank, where it earns little or no interest, is not putting your "talents" to the best possible use.

Safety and proper earning capacity for your savings means investing them in Kingston realty. Then you can sleep soundly in the knowledge that your money is not only secure, but that it is placed to the best possible advantage.

Have us show you around some day. We have attractive "bids" in all parts of the city.

Y.M.C.A. LADIES' AUXILIARY.

Will Hold a Tea and Sale on October 27th.

The September meeting of the Y.M.C.A. Auxiliary was held in the building, Friday afternoon, there being a fair attendance of ladies. The chair was occupied by Mrs. Oliver Chow, president. The devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. W. G. Anderson, after which the president spoke a few words of welcome to Mrs. McCallum, whose advice and wise counsels have been missing for so long from the meetings.

It was decided to hold a sale and tea at the Y.M.C.A. building on Thursday, October 27th. The ladies expect to have a fine lot of homemade articles for sale both in the line of good things eatable, and also useful, and dainty things to wear, etc. A good cup of tea, which these ladies will know how to brew, and a friendly chat will not be the least interesting feature of the good time, which is to be looked forward to with pleasure. It is hoped the ladies of the city will be as kindly in their patronage this time as they have been in past years.

THERE WILL BE TROUBLE

For Yankee Vessels Not Reporting to Consul.

United States Consul F. S. Johnson is after owners of American vessels who do not register their papers with him when they come into port. The consular law distinctly states that American vessels landing here must report to the consul, but they have not been doing this. There is a vessel now in port whose captain has been notified that he must obey the law or he will be reported to the district attorney at Watertown, N.Y., and his boat will be put out of commission for the rest of the year.

LETTER OF NOMINATION

To be Transmitted to Archbishop Gauthier.

A cable despatch from Rome says: "The pope has ordered a consistorial congregation to transmit to Mgr. Gauthier, Kingston, his letter of nomination as Archbishop of Ottawa. Archbishop Gauthier was appointed archbishop of Ottawa on Sept. 6th."

It is Not Confirmed.

Special to the Whig, Sept. 17.—"We have no official word yet," said an official, at the office of the apostolic delegate, here, when asked this morning if there was any definite announcement yet to confirm the rumored appointment of Archbishop Gauthier, Kingston, to succeed the late archbishop of Ottawa as head of the Ottawa diocese. Your representative told him that there was no word there yet. He acknowledged that the first formal notice would be sent there but said that, at present, Mgr. Sbarretti, the apostolic delegate, was away. Asked if he would return to Canada he replied that "he could not say whether he would return or when."

WAS HEAVILY FINED

For Securing Liquor for Member "Prohibited List."

Never secure liquor for a member of the "prohibited list." It does not pay—that is if you get into the police court over it. On Saturday, Magistrate Farrell imposed a fine of $25 and costs upon Napoleon Newell, for supplying liquor to Daniel Newell, who has been on the list for some little time.

"I am guilty of securing the liquor," remarked Newell, "but I was under the influence of liquor myself and did not think of what I was doing. I know that it is a very serious offence. If I had been sober I would not have got the liquor for him."

The magistrate did not take the plea of drunkenness as an excuse, however, and imposed a fine of $25 and costs or one month in jail. Time may be given to pay the fine.

Daniel Byron, who was charged with being under the influence of liquor, when a member of the list, was remanded for sentence until called upon.

HUSBAND AND WIFE.

Bodies of Both Came Over on Cape Boat.

The boat from Cape Vincent, on Friday afternoon, had on board two dead bodies, that of a husband and wife, the late D. C. Markey, of Syracuse, and his wife, Mary M. Markey, daughter of the late Thomas McGarry, Belleville. The remains were being taken to Belleville, for interment. Mrs. Markey died suddenly on Thursday, in Syracuse, N.Y., of heart failure. Mr. Markey died some few months ago, so the remains were brought over, to be interred beside those of his wife.
