sweetens the home

Is Your Home "Surgically Clean"?

THE greatest guarantee against illness-against disease-is cleanliness. Let Asepto help you keep your home clean-"surrically clear."

For Asepto sterilizes everything it washes. Everything touched by water in which Asepto has been dissolved -and only a little Asepto at that—is left absolutely antiseptic, sweet and clean.

rdinarily the application of isinfectants requires consider-ble work. When Asepto is used, it enables one to carry on a complete course of sterilization ALL THE TIME without any additional work—both cleans the home and KEEPS it clean. Yet Asepto is more than merely an antiseptic—more than a germicide; it is also a soap powder—as good as the best soap on the market.

It is the fact that both its soap toward the same identical end that makes it so effective. The soap qualities of Asepto loosen and remove the accumulated uncleanliness—the germicidal qualities sterilize the cleansed surfaces.

Do not get the idea, however, that Asepto is of value only as a disinfectant. It is for far more than that. Try it in your washing—on anything. The way it cleanses will amaze you.

With Asepto, you don't have to rub or boil clothes—you just put them to soak in water in which Asepto has been dissolved, leave them there for a couple of hours and then rinse them and hang out to dry.

Or for washing dishes and greasy cooking utensils—use Asepto. A single package of Asepto will make into two gallons of the best soft soap you ever used. And it will cost you only five cents, too. Tell your grocer to include a package of Asepto with your order—all good grocers sell it at

For example, let us take the OVEN.

The oven bottom of all sizes is 20 inches deep. This is the actual depth of the oven floor, the part of the oven that is of the most value to you. We do not include an inch or two in the bottom of the oven door.

Measure the oven bottom of other rangesespecially those with swing doors-and see if the ovens come up to this specification

"Peerless Peninsular" is a big, honestly built range-full size-with all the new conveniences of the most expensive steel ranges-and with the durability of cast-iron which is superior to steel in lasting qualities.

"HARMONY", "CONSTANT" and "ADANAC" have the same quality, workmanship and construction as the "Peerless", the difference is only in the outer appearance.

Let us show you all four styles-or write for illustrated booklet. 111

Danish Cream for Germany. A condition has arisen on the frontier between Germany and Denmark similar to that which exists along the St. Lawrence between Canada and the United States. In the last revision of the United States tariff, owing apparently to a clerical error, the American made into butter in that country. In hides, hair on, $3. Germany, owing to a similar slip, the tariff on cream was applished altogether, and as a consequence of this great quantities of Danish cream are going into Germany. Swedish cream is also finding a market in the same country. This will probably have the effect of reducing somewhat Danish and Swedish exports of butter to Great Britain.

Cows and Roughage.

"The farm can best produce roughage, and the dairy cow can best use said Dr. J. B. Lindsay, of Massachusetts, Experimental Station, in a recent address. "There are four principal roughage foods hay, corn, clover and alfalfa. I sometimes think that we pamper our animals too much by feeding them grain rather than roughage. We should educate our cows to consume large amounts of roughage. But for all that we must feed a certain amount of grain. I believe in buying high-grade by-products and mixing feed at home. Many of our proprietary mixed feed a characteristic of the country's hope is leanin' on the homes that have some meanin';

"As a rule, one cannot afford to feet more than five pounds of grain day. A good combination would pound and a half of cottonseed meal. a pound and a half of wheat mir ngs, together with a bushel and half of silage, and all the hay that would be eaten clean."

On Dairying.

If you can buy the cow that the other man doesn't want to sell, you are generally pretty safe. Never put fresh milk into a warm vessel. If it had been in the sun should be filled with cold water at least half an hour before milking time. The chemist cannot find that a silo dds anything to the nutritive elements in a cornstalk, but it does add palatability, and this counts for No one can afford to keep a fat dairy cow. If a cow gets fat while in nilk she uses too much of her feed for other purposes than making milk of week. As to who are considered forsume has not yet learned the first lesson of good dairy managemen I do my milking in a room just off the cow stable. It is only large enough to hold one cow and the milker, and is as dark as I can make it, except for one small window high up, which is screened. The flies make for this window, and I am thus able to milk in comparative comfort.

Notes of Interest.

Hoard's Dairyman expresses the on that the sire counts for more han the dam in the milk producing quality of the calves. In support of this statement it quotes a case where a Guernsey cow could not be induced to give more than 225 pounds of but-ter in a year, but when mated with a sire with a milking ancestry behind him his cow produced a calf which in time gave 408 pounds of butter in a year. A number of other cases of a imilar kind could, the Dairyman says
