SAID TO BE GAINING.

Chicago, Sept. 22.—Europe no long-er is the haunt of the toper, accord-ing to Dr. Max Henius, of Chicago, who has returned from the first international congress of brewing at Brus-sels. "Signs of a powerful temperance movement in Europe were manifested by the attendance of 600 delegates to the convention." Dr. Henius said. Denmark has taken the lead. There the government does not tax beverages, containing less than two and one-half per cent, alcohol, while it does tax, and heavily, too, all other drinks. The brewers, both here and abroad will back temperance. There is no doubt that drunkenness is the world's greatest curse. On the other hand, however, they do not want prohibition secause beer drunk in moderate quan tities, they believe, is not harmful."
