TEMPS SORRY

Over Archbishop Gauthier's Appointment.

IT IS THE DEFENDER

OF THE FRENCH LANGUAGE SO

IT SAYS.

The Temps, personally, has the profoundest respect for the Archbishop—It blames Mgr. Sbarretti for the appointment.

Special to the Whig.—The following is a translation of an editorial published in Friday's issue of Le Temps, a local French-Canadian paper, and presumably the mouthpiece of the French-Canadian in this vicinity, on the appointment of Archbishop Gauthier to the diocese of Ottawa.

"Rev. Father Gauthier, archbishop of Kingston, yesterday became the new head of the diocese of Ottawa.

"We regret this. We regret it more over considering the immense majority of Catholics in this part of the country who are of French-Canadian origin and who speak no other language.

"They had reason, it seems to us, to expect that one from amongst themselves would have been named as the successor of the late Mgr. Duhamel, and the recommendation of the latter, supported by the bishops and archbishops from this part of the ecclesiastical province of Quebec, would have been received by the committee in charge of the appointment of bishops all the consideration that it seemed to merit.

"This has not been so, however, and in expressing our regret we feel bound also to express our great surprise. There is no doubt that Mgr. Sbarretti is alone responsible. We must bear in mind that the prelate was absolutely opposed to the development of the French language, not only in Ontario, but in the western provinces, and that he in no way referred to our mentality. The events would seem to justify this conclusion as they justified the beliefs expressed at the time of his departure for Rome.

"For the new archbishop, personally, we have the profoundest respect. There is no doubt that he is a man of great heart, a heritage that we received as a legacy from our ancestors, a heritage won by them at the price of the greatest sacrifices. This is what we ask ourselves on the present occasion, with all the energy we are capable of summoning, when all are warmly questioning against our fidelity and adherence to the holy mother church.

"Do your duty" is a good maxim.

Lost Lives in Maine Waters.

Portland, Maine, Sept. 24.—Sixty-one persons, all but seven of them residents of Maine, lost their lives by drowning in the waters of this state during the summer just closed. Of this number nineteen perished in June, twenty-four in July and eighteen in August. Most of the drownings were due to canoe, boat or bathing accidents, but there were several of unusual circumstances.

Every Dollar of the Family Income Owes You One Hundred Cents in Value

"You work hard for your money," said a business philosopher. "Make it work hard for you."

Make it return to you a full hundred cents worth in value at least when you spend it.

Read the store advertisements carefully and regularly. Among the many steady advertisers someone is sure to be offering the very articles you need.

And when they are advertised you may be sure they are all right.

For a merchant must stand behind his advertised goods. He stakes his reputation on the statements he makes.

And so this "store news" in the Whig can be depended upon. If you follow it you will arrive at the places where the goods you need can be found, and, in nine cases out of ten at the most reasonable prices.

And so you will get most value for your dollars if you are a constant advt. reader.

EXPULSIONS ILLEGAL.

Appeals Made as Result of Decision.

Kiev, Russia, Sept. 24.—A great number of appeals made by Jews, whose expulsion has been ordered by the imperial government are pending following the favorable outcome of a test case instituted by some of the Jews who have long resided in Yekaterinoslav province. In this instance the senate decided that the orders of expulsion were illegal and that the petitioners should be reinstated in their homes. Appeals have now been made in other provinces.

In the week ending September 21st, there were thirty-nine summary expulsions from this city, while 100 other Jews were given notice that they must return within the restricted district set apart by law for them during a stated period. On the same day, there were also expulsions from the suburbs, Solomenka and Demefiska.

SUIT FOR LIBEL.

Montreal Street Railway Enters Action Against Star.

Montreal, Sept. 24.—The Montreal street railway entered an action for libel against the Montreal Star, in the superior court, claiming $100,000 as damages suffered by it on account of statements by the newspaper at various times. The street railway alleges that for some months the paper has conducted a systematic campaign against it by printing unfair headings, distorting facts, and giving incorrect reports of accidents or legal proceedings in which the company was involved.

LAY DEAD ON FLOOR

BUT HUSBAND SLEPT SOUNDLY ALL NIGHT.

Inquest Into Havelock Case Opened by Coroner—Delaine Lived in Miserable Hovel.

Havelock, Ont., Sept. 24.—The jury enquiring into the death of Mrs. Hugh Delaine concluded the woman came to her death by foul play, and added that the evidence pointed strongly towards her husband, Hugh Delaine, having committed the foul play.

According to the police, Delaine and his wife were married against the wishes of their parents. Delaine is one of a family of fifteen children; ten of these are living. The house in which they lived is isolated through miles of wood and rocks. There is no furniture, and the cradle of the infant is a red wooden affair and home-made. The woman herself seldom wore shoes. The police say she had none, and her calloused feet show that she went about barefooted. She had scarcely clothes enough to cover herself. The clothes Delaine wore on the night of the murder, together with the stomach of the dead woman, have been sent to Toronto for analysis.

Mrs. Margaret Newall, in her evidence, told a detailed story of her visit to the Delaine home on the night of the murder. Although Mrs. Newall, together with Mr. and Mrs. Little and Delaine were in the house, nobody touched the dead body of the woman that lay in the back shed until daylight next morning, although she had been dead then some hours. Mrs. Newall, questioned about her visit to Mrs. Delaine's place and the conversation with the dead woman, said: "Mrs. Delaine told me she and her husband were cousins and that she didn't want to have any family. She had had three in three years, two of whom are living."

On the night of the murder Delaine slept soundly in his own house while the dead wife lay in a pitiable and filthy condition in the kitchen a few feet away. He did not awake until after five o'clock next morning.

Hugh Delaine, the husband of the dead woman was brought from Peterboro jail, and sat throughout the hearing apparently unmoved. He is twenty and two months respectively.

The twenty-fourth annual convention of the Lennox and Addington Sabbath School Association will be held in Napawan, on October 4th. R. Meek is to be a speaker.

The story of a Canadian representative to be appointed at Washington is authoritatively denied.

Rev. Dr. Richard Davidson, Toronto University College, has been appointed to succeed Prof. Macfadyen at Knox College.

TO TRY DISEASE ON MAN.

Wants Convict Pardoned if He'll Drink Tubercular Milk.

Muncie, Ind., Sept. 24.—Dr. W. E. Coover, State of Indiana, has asked Governor Marshall to take into consideration the liberation of a life convict on condition that he submit to a test to prove whether tuberculosis can be transmitted from a cow to a human being.

The matter was brought up here and the plan advanced when the State veterinarian and Dr. Boor were engaged in the inspection of a large herd of dairy cattle, four of which, all valuable, it was found necessary to kill because of tuberculosis.

CAN SIT DOWN IN NEW FASHION GOWN.

And Authorities Say That Two Chemists Must Be Worn—"Bolster Slip" Gown is Coming.

Chicago, Sept. 24.—"The fashionably dressed woman hereafter must wear two chemises—one underneath and one on top. This is the latest dictum of those who make clothes for women," said Miss Mullen, of New York and Paris, authority on fashion, who is preparing to lay the matter before the banquet of the dressmakers' convention next Friday night.

The thing is really an outside chemise and has been invented to help out the top end of a corset and just as new, which is known in the dress-making shop as the "bolster slip" gown.

One of the star demonstrators at the convention this year is Mrs. Middleton, who has spent sixteen years studying how fashions are created in Paris.

"The outside chemise fasten on the left shoulder," she said. "They are a part of the dress, not a cloak or wrap of any sort. They will be worn next year."

"Bolster slip" gown, which is coming along soon, says the modiste is the definite outcome of the hobble skirt. Among real dressmakers, it seems, the hobble skirt never was taken seriously in itself, but "created a tendency," and the "bolster slip" is the result.

To make a "bolster slip" gown use material with Oriental colors and follow the general lines of a stove pipe. One should never sit down in a "bolster slip" gown. There would be a noise like something rumping and it would have to be sewed again.

The "outside chemise" is to be hung over the "bolster slip" gown.

Only a Feeler.

Hamilton, Ont., Sept. 24.—Representatives of the Farmers and Fowlers Canadian company regard the story about the United Produce company forming a million dollar merger of packing interests in Ontario as being a feeler to ascertain how the packing companies in Montreal would regard such a move. They say their firms have not been approached as yet.

Early Trial for Crippen.

London, Sept. 24.—The trial of Dr. Hawley Harvey Crippen, for the murder of his wife, Belle Florence, the actress, and of Ethel Clare Le Neve, who is charged with being an accessory after the fact, has been set for the October session of the Central criminal court.

ORE FOR THOUSAND YEARS.

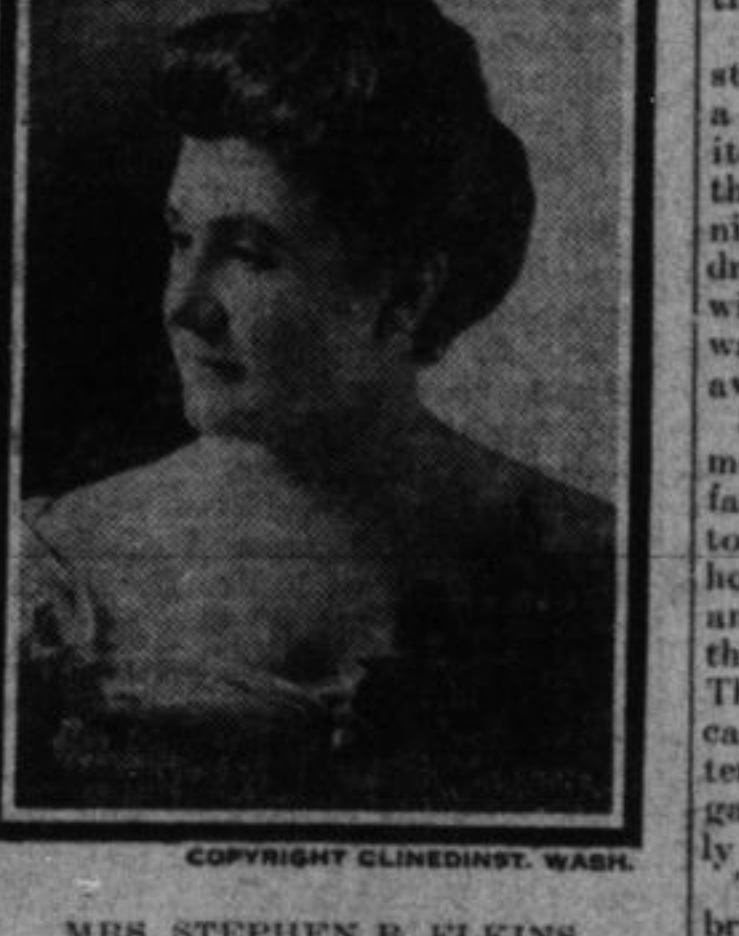

Nova Scotia Steel Co. Has Big Supply.

Halifax, N.S., Sept. 24.—A party of directors of the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal company and officials of the company, arrived at New Glasgow last night after visiting the Wabana mines and Sydney blast plant, which is being worked by the company.

"These are hundreds of millions of tons of ore there," said President Harris, "all that we could possibly take out in a thousand years. The directors, several of whom have never visited our main source of supply before, were, to put it mildly, extremely well pleased with what they saw and learned."

Mr. Harris said that the company was going ahead with its policy of spending money at Wabana. Large hoisting engines were being installed and the other equipment was being increased, including that on the construction work. There were at present 1,200 men engaged in the Wabana operating plant. When the enlargement of the facilities was completed, there would be a call for a larger force of miners.

"We could give employment to 300 more, and we could put that number to work to-morrow."

GREAT WRECK

Rock Island Train Ran Through Bridge.

INTO WILD TORRENT

WHICH WAS CREATED BY A TREMENDOUS RAIN.

The Bridge Was Broken Up and Carried Away—Engine, Tender and Baggage Car Disappeared in Water Filled Ravine—Many Were Drowned.

Clayton, Kan., Sept. 24.—Sixteen killed and probably others killed, and their bodies washed away, and eleven injured, is the result of a terrible wreck which occurred on the Rock Island railroad, two miles east of this place, early yesterday morning, when a fast train on the Rock Island railway ran through an open bridge into twenty feet of raging water. Nine of the dead have been identified.

The stream which wrought the destruction is at ordinary times simply a dry arroyo with no water, but with its bed thirty feet below the level of the railway bridge. Early Thursday night a tremendous rain fell and the dry bed was soon filled to the brim with a wild torrent. The bridge itself was quickly broken up and carried away.

Shortly after one o'clock, yesterday morning, while the storm raged, the fast passenger train from Kansas City to Denver, traveling at forty miles an hour, rushed headlong into the gap, and the forward end of the train took the plunge into the water-filled ravine. The locomotive, tender and baggage car disappeared entirely under the water, and the engineer, fireman, baggage man and conductor were instantly killed.

The smoker, which stopped on the brink of the stream, was telescoped by the chair car, and many passengers were killed outright. Others were thrown into the stream and were drowned. With the exception of the last Pullman, the entire train left the track and the cars and coaches were piled in a big heap or rolled into the ditch alongside the rails.

The little stream lost its water as rapidly as it had found it, and, yesterday afternoon, the ravine was practically dry again.

WEST WANTS RECIPROCITY.

Canadian Club President of New York Speaks.

New York, Sept. 24.—Dr. Neil Macpherson, president of the Canadian Club of New York, and a member of the United States National Committee to Commemorate the 100th Anniversary of Peace Among the English Speaking Peoples, has returned to New York with a party of residents of this city, who have made a trip through Western Canada, going as far as British Columbia. Of the feeling in the west Dr. Macpherson said:

"We found that the west is thoroughly imbued with the spirit of progress and good fellowship. Peoples there are confident in themselves and their future. Many Americans are going across the border, settling down, making money and breathing contentment. The west is keen for reciprocity. They have vast quantities of natural products to market and they are going to have more. They look to this country for a big market. In the east, where the manufacturing interests predominate, the desire for closer trade relations is not so keen, but every body seems to be looking forward to a compromise which will be acceptable to all."

BREAKS INTO PRISON.

Solitude Will be Transferred to Federal Pen.

Chicago, Sept. 24.—Isaac R. Warrs, "Brother in hearts," as he styled himself, was, yesterday, sentenced by Judge Landis to serve fourteen months in the federal prison at Leavenworth for using the United States mails to defraud. Warrs confessed that he had used the mails in carrying on the business of his marriage bureau.

His circulars depicting the sadness of lonely old age were read in court. One of his books, sent to prospective customers, was entitled, "The Way To Win a Woman's Heart." It contains the following passage:

"You do not know what it is to live alone, unloved, for, unknown when old age overtakes you. Solitude fills one with horrible agony. Solitude at home by the fireside at night is so profound, so sad."

THE PROTECTIONISTS' DRE.D.

They Fear Growth of Canada's Nationhood.

London, Sept. 24.—The Chronicle says the protectionists are in dread of Canada's nationhood, especially as regards treaty-making, and claims that this bias is perceptible in the language of such a careful speaker as Austen Chamberlain. The Chronicle points out the fallacy of expecting Canadians, whatever feeling there may be in Canada in favor of inter-imperial preference, to sacrifice one iota of this power for it.

No Hospital for Oddfellows.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 24.—The proposal to establish a national tuberculosis hospital, which was brought before the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Oddfellows, has been voted down.

PONIED UP HIS FARE.

Never Travelled to Toronto "On His Face."

Ottawa, Sept. 24.—Hon. G. P. Graham has written the following letter to a local paper:

"In a recent issue of your paper you published what purports to have taken place from Ottawa to Toronto. It is stated that while thus journeying, the minister of railways discovered that he had mislaid his pass and that he endeavored to have the conductor carry him free of cost on the assurance that he was the minister of railways. Such an incident never took place on that line or on any other. Only on one occasion did I find myself minus my transportation, and with a conductor who did not know me, and then I paid the full fare without intimating that I was minister of railways."

Strike Goes On.

Montreal, Sept. 24.—The strike of the union plumbers, in this city, has now been in force a week. There are, at present, no indications of either side giving way. Some of the smaller employers met the demands of the men for increased wages and shorter hours, but so far 300 of the 400 men who originally went on strike are still idle. The masters threaten to bring in men from the United States and Great Britain.

All Were Drowned.

New Orleans, La., Sept. 24.—Five people in an automobile, early this morning, plunged into the canal. All of the party were drowned.

WORLD GOING MAD

THE ENGLISH RACE DECADENT AND VERY BAD.

More Insane Persons in the World Than Sane in Near Future, Says Lunacy Expert.

London, Sept. 24.—According to Dr. Forbes Winslow, who acquired international celebrity by his sedulous insistence on his theory that "Jack the Ripper" was a homicidal maniac, the world is going mad, and the rate of progress to that consummation is shockingly rapid. In a book of reminiscences published this week this expert in criminal lunacy says:

"By a simple arithmetical calculation it can be shown the exact year when there will be more insane persons in the world than sane. We in England are gradually approaching with the decadence of our youth, now proximity to a nation of madmen."

"By comparing the lunacy statistics of 1800 with those of 1900, four decades having intervened, my reflections are sad indeed. A terrible but real cause is in store, and an insane world looks forward to me with certainty in the not far distant future."

"In 1800, out of a population of 22,223,299, there were 63,177 registered lunatics in England and Wales, there being one lunatic in every 418 of the population, whereas in 1900, out of a population of 35,756,618, the number of registered lunatics was 128,787, making on an average one lunatic in every 278 of population. So that in lunacy there is an enormous increase in lunacy in fact. Surely a dreadful future for nations still unborn to have to cope with."

"These are the facts, and, sad, and to reflect upon. They must be accepted. They cannot in any way be challenged. Dr. Winslow's phraseology, is sometimes unhappy, as when he writes for instance:

"I have breathed the atmosphere of lunacy for over sixty years, and the conclusions I arrive at are pessimistic in the extreme."

Did Heroic Work.

New York, Sept. 24.—One man is thought to have perished, four men were seriously injured, three of whom probably will die, and four others were badly hurt in a fire early to-day, which virtually destroyed the Boylston garage, at No. 142 East 41st street. Three deeds of heroism, by firemen, policemen and citizens, marked the progress of the flames. For more than five minutes a man driven from his apartment by the flames, with his clothing ablaze and tongues of flame below and above him, clung to a window sill while firemen worked valiantly to rescue him. When they finally got a ladder to the window, and were carrying the man down, the ladder broke, precipitating all to the street.

Favor a Union.

London, Sept. 24.—With a view to strengthening the seamen's position, in the event of an international strike against the Shipping Federation, a conference of delegates, representing 166,000 men and thirteen trades unions, covering the dock and transport workers of Great Britain, has pronounced unanimously in favor of an international union. Representatives of French and American dock workers are in attendance.

The penalty for each conviction is $1,000 fine for the importer, and deportation of the workmen.
