

TORONTO AT ANCHOR

FOR NINE HOURS ON SUNDAY BELOW ALEXANDRIA BAY.

Steering Gear Broke on Down Trip—It Was Nine O'Clock Last Evening When She Reached Kingston—Her Passengers Transferred.

Sunday was an unlucky day for the steamer Toronto, which was unfortunately disabled by a cable broken by the steering gear and left to drift in R. & O. traffic east and west. The Toronto, which was two hours late in reaching Kingston on Sunday morning, owing to storm and fog, had proceeded only a short distance from Alexandria Bay, on her down trip, when the steering gear parted, and the big steamer was unable to proceed further. A small boat was dispatched to the bay with a telegram to Prescott, calling upon the steamer Rapids Queen to proceed by at once and take the Toronto's passengers, which the Queen did, arriving shortly after noon. Meantime, the Toronto had anchored, the work of repairing the steering gear was proceeded with. After being at anchor for nine hours, the Toronto was ready for commission again, and left Alexandria Bay, about seven o'clock, for Kingston, arriving here at nine o'clock and leaving for Charlotte shortly after ten o'clock, five hours late.

AT THE GRAND.

"Miss Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" To-night.

In the full cast of twenty-six characters which interpret the great international success, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," to be seen at the Grand to-night, almost every role is definitely representative of an old and unique type. Even "Cuby," the "fit horse," whom Mrs. Wiggs rescues when his "lights are out," and who is one of the comical personages of the play itself, comes into this category. For the old man which plays the part was definitely found after a long search, and is one of the sorriest and most broken-down specimens of horse flesh that ever showed his ribs. There is also a wonderful group of boys and girls in the piece who add a happy juvenile charm to the various scenes throughout the three acts.

"Il Trovatore" in English.

The Alborn name has reached a high position in the operatic annals of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Chicago and a few other cities where their companies have appeared for long runs of from five to twenty weeks during the past ten years; but they have never before sent a company on tour. This company, which numbers one hundred persons, is assembled specially for the first general tour of America of an Alborn-English grand opera company, all of its members selected from the six companies of similar size which were located in as many cities last season. The organization embraces a double cast of alternating artists, including Edith Helena and Paula Brande, sopranos, Domenico Russo and Paul Blyden, tenors, Louise La Barone and Hattie Belle Ladd, contraltos, Harry Luckstone and William Schuster, baritones, George Shields, basso, Frank Woolley, buffo, Elizabeth Harris, mezzo-soprano, John Fritchard, tenor, Carlo Nicotici, conductor, Frank Ramsey, stage director, and others, with a powerful chorus and a large grand opera orchestra, and carries elaborate productions for eight operas. This company will present Verdi's beautiful "Il Trovatore" at the Grand on Tuesday, Sept. 27th.

HELD UP AT THE CAPE.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Not Allowed to Enter.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Ellis, father and mother of Arthur E. Ellis, architect, of this city, are not permitted to enter the United States immigration laws. On Saturday morning they left here for New York, en route to their home in England, after spending the summer in Kingston, but were not allowed to land at the Cape. The busy young fellow at that port, who has allowed ex-convicts and people on the prohibited list to enter the States, refused to allow Mr. and Mrs. Ellis to set foot on Yankee soil. It seems that they came to Canada by way of Montreal. They wished to visit New York relatives before returning, and started for that place. Not having entered at New York, and received a clean bill of health, they were debarred, and will have to return by way of Montreal. It appears rather funny that people like Mr. and Mrs. Ellis should be debarred from entering the United States. They were so candid in telling the youthful Cape inspector about their movements after leaving England, that they scarcely realized they were giving evidence that would incriminate them. The less told to an inspector, who is looking for information, the better. Mr. and Mrs. Ellis had to return to Kingston on the steamer America, on Saturday afternoon.

Coming to Kingston.

The Utica, N.Y., Observer, has the following: S. A. Salisbury was tendered a farewell reception by the Park Baptist church choir, of which he has been a member his voice adding much to the efficiency of that excellent organization. He was presented with a handsome watch fob as a memento of his residence in Utica. William Fairweather made the presentation speech, the recipient responding feelingly. The choir rendered several selections under the direction of its leader, William Answyl. Mr. Salisbury will take up his residence in Kingston. He will take a position on the Whig.

THE SPORT REVIEW

MARTY WALSH AGAIN SHOUTS FOR QUEEN'S.

"Jack" Williams Still Remains Under Cover in Ottawa—Premier McBride Disgusted P. D. Ross Over Minty Cup Matters.

May Wax, the Kingston pacer, owner W. H. Carson, has made a great record during the past three years. In that time she has won twenty-one firsts, seven seconds and four thirds. During two seasons she had accidents, and was drawn from three races, and winning a heat in each. Now she is home resting, having strained a muscle at Canton, N.Y. Had May Wax come through clear of accidents, she would have added a number more victories to her list. Kingston is proud of the fast little mare that Mr. Carson has brought to the front.

May Wax won the races at the following places (in order): Kingston, three seasons—Kingston, Gananoque, St. Hyacinthe, Plazville, Arrior, Alexandria, Gananoque, Brockville, Woodstock, Greenfield, Nashua, St. Lynn, Concord, Napawag, Pembroke, Ogdensburgh, Whitehall, Point, Courtland, Gouverneur, Brockville, Nashua. She won seconds at Cape Vincent, Ottawa, Kingston, Montreal (2), Gananoque and Watkinson, and thirds at Kingston, Montreal, Rochester (train stopped race), and Ogdensburgh.

Wilson Cross, for several years past cashier at the G.T.R. freight office, at Brockville, has left for Ottawa to enter upon the duties of freight agent at that place, a promotion recently extended to him.

The roundhouse, which is being erected by the Grand Trunk at Belleville is the second largest on the system, having stalls for forty-two locomotives. It is of concrete, and a quarter of a mile in circumference.

In Paris, Wednesday, Rev. J. D. Richardson, united in marriage two of Drummond township's well-known and popular young people, Miss Minnie Truslove, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Truslove, and Norman H. Tedlock.

On Sept. 14th, a quiet event transpired at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilson, Moscow, when Rev. J. B. Stetson united in matrimony, Miss Minnie Helena Wilson and Frank Switzer, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Switzer, Altona Road.

Mr. Sully Ellis, Clayton, N.Y., aged eighty-seven years, and four months, died on Wednesday. She was a fine entertainer, having a remarkable memory, and her description of some of the early happenings in this country before the advent of the railroad, and telegraph were of great interest.

"Fred" Clarke refused to be deposed as manager of the club. He says he will redeem himself by winning another pennant for Pittsburgh next year.

"When I meet that fellow Langford," declares Mistah Johnson, "he will see so many boxing gloves he will think there are ten men in the ring."

Ottawa Citizen: Football has changed in the least. "Marty" Walsh is out with his annual prediction that Queen's will win the Intercollegiate pennant.

Toronto Globe: The Vancouver Lacrosse Club is reported to be on the way east, "to play for the amateur championship of Canada," but no one in the east knows how, when or where that will be decided.

It is said the reason P. D. Ross has resigned as a Minty cup trustee, was that high-handed tactics and constant quibbling by those associated with the cup in British Columbia, of whom Premier McBride was one, disgusted Mr. Ross, who tendered his resignation to McBride as a result.

Ottawa Free Press: It is now stated from good authority that there is not one chance in a million of "Jack" Williams appearing this year. While those are excessive odds the persistency with which "Jack" remains under cover makes it look as if he is determined to stay off the field this fall.

It is said that President Comiskey has offered Fielder Jones a salary of $20,000 and ten per cent. of the club's profits, equivalent to $35,000, all told, to again manage the Chicago White Sox. He won the championship for them in 1906. Hugh Duffy is the present manager.

Daniel Thomas, "of Tuskah Villa, Doctawill, Giamorgan, formerly of Sunny Bank, Pontypool, colliery, proprietor," who died recently in Wales, at the age of eighty-two, was formerly an hotel-keeper, and before that he was a champion pugilist. Some years ago he made a stir by publicly burning the four corners of the ring.

London Sportsman: R. E. Walker, of the Polytechnic H. and Olympic 100 metres champion, and A.A.A. 100 yards champion, has decided to join the ranks of the professional runners, and, yesterday, came out with a challenge to run "Jack" Donohoe, the Australian sprinter, 100 yards on level terms for the championship of the world and £180 a side, the race to take place in South Africa in December.

AT ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.

Rev. G. R. Beemish, Belleville, Preached at Harvest Services.

The harvest thanksgiving services held at St. Paul's church, yesterday, were a great success. There were splendid congregations. At eight o'clock, in the morning, there was a very large number of communicants. Rev. W. F. Fitzgerald being celebrant. In his morning discourse, Rev. G. R. Beemish, of Belleville, alluded to the service as one that was not called for in the common prayer book of Canada, but nevertheless it was kept as a day of thanksgiving for the blessings received during the year. He said that there was not a man or woman in the congregation that did not have something to be thankful for and this day was set apart as a special day of thanksgiving. At the evening service the church was crowded to the doors. Rev. Mr. Beemish again preached forcibly and earnestly on "thanksgiving."

The choir rendered the musical parts of the service in an excellent manner, Miss Callaghan presiding at the organ. The church was very nicely decorated with cut flowers and species of grain.

ALPINE CLUB MEMBER.

Dr. Fred C. Bell Prominent in Winnipeg Section.

Dr. F. C. Bell, the new superintendent of the Winnipeg General Hospital, received his education in arts at Queen's University, Kingston, of which his grandfather was registrar for many years. Dr. Bell is an ardent amateur and one of the most energetic of the Winnipeg section of the Alpine Club, which he joined as an active member in 1907. He attended the camp in Paradise Valley and has only missed one camp since, that on Rogers' Pass. In 1909 he was one of the expert members chosen to represent the club at the expedition over the high ice field of the Waputek range, accompanying the Alpinists from the British association, who were guests of the club, at the meet by Lake O'Hara.

In the season just past he was one of the expert members at the camp, and again joined the company of guests on a similar but even more difficult expedition in the Waputek region. Dr. Bell has had altogether some five or six summers of good Alpine work, beginning to the work in the years when he was a student at Queen's.

NERVY CASE OF THEFT.

But Goods Were Recovered by the Police.

A nervy case of theft was pulled off, on Saturday afternoon, but good work on the part of the police was the means of securing the goods stolen.

During the afternoon a well-known man around the city, left a bag of money at the Kennedy house, on Ontario street, it being his intention to call for it later. When he came to secure the bag, a few hours later, however, he was very much surprised to find that it had been taken off.

Constable Arnel got busy on the case and succeeded in finding the goods in a shop, on Ontario street, where the thief had left them. It is understood that the guilty party left the city on a vessel.
