MUST PAY OR MOVE

NON-RESIDENT PUPILS SAFE FOR PRESENT.

Board of Education Will Wait to See if County Council Will Make Grant—Collegiate Institute Overcrowding Discussed.

Non-resident pupils in the Collegiate Institute will not be molested at present, but action by the board of education regarding them depends upon what the county council may do at its November session in the way of making a grant for their tuition.

Last evening, the question of the overcrowded Collegiate Institute of its position as a non-approved school by the Ontario educational department and of effecting a remedy was before the board of education, and a lengthy discussion ensued.

The question of engaging another teacher for the Collegiate Institute was referred to the management committee for report at the board's regular meeting in October.

The college will continue in its present overcrowded condition, for the present, and if the educational department does not like it, in the words of Father Vaughan, it will have to "lump it."

In attendance at the board meeting were: Dr. A. Richardson, chairman, F. R. Anglin, Edward Bennett, P. E. Chown, James Craig, J. R. Donaldson, J. G. Elliott, James Henderson, Thomas Lambert, S. J. Kilpatrick, W. H. Macne, Robert Meek, A. W. McLean, W. J. Renton, S. Roughton, Robert Wallace.

The college question was introduced by the presentation of this report from the management committee: "The question presented. At the meeting of the board, held on July 14th, a communication from the deputy minister of education, dealing with the overcrowded condition of the Collegiate Institute, and dated June 20th, was read and referred to your committee for consideration. The letter contained the following paragraphs:

"Owing to the congestion of the attendance and the inadequate accommodation, the Kingston school is now a non-approved school and must remain a non-approved school unless the board supplies the present defects. The inspector reports that an addition to the present building, including three or more class rooms, is necessary in order that the assembly room, now used as a class room, may be restored to its proper use, and accommodation may be provided for at least two more classes under at least two more teachers."

"All the other large schools of the province have measured up or are measuring up to the requirements for approved schools in the matter of satisfactory accommodation, and no exception can be made in the case of the Kingston Collegiate Institute."

During the summer vacation the Collegiate Institute staff was re-organized and increased by one teacher, it being the opinion of the committee at that time that the attendance during the September term might be less than it was in the January and Easter terms, and that the addition of one teacher, therefore, might be sufficient to meet the demands of the department. On the re-opening of school, however, it was found that the attendance was fully up to the average. There are 400 on the roll now, which is about the average for the last five years. Under these circumstances, the department's demand for "three or more" additional class rooms and another teacher still stands to be dealt with by the board.

The non-resident feature of the overcrowding was pointed out by the committee, and Principal Sliter was requested to make a report showing the number of county pupils in each form. He reported as follows:

Form	Residents	Non-residents	Total
I.	94	13	107
II.	74	14	88
III.	71	1	72
IV.	11	1	12
V.	228	67	295

The fees paid by non-residents are $25 per year for the first two forms and $30 for the next three, and they amount to about $1,600 a year. As the removal of the county pupils from the school would leave insufficient accommodation for residents for the present the question to be decided is, what is to be done in connection with the non-resident feature of the matter? Retaining the non-residents would mean the erection of an annex at a cost of $20,000 and the appointment of another teacher; their exclusion would mean sufficient room for the children of citizens for the present at least.

A BIG DAY AT FAIR

TOWNSHIP EXHIBITION A GREAT SUCCESS.

Exhibits in the Crystal Palace Are All of a Fine Order—Three Races and a Baseball Match Provided—Good Sport.

The first day of the Kingston Township fair, at the fair grounds, was a big success. In speaking of it as a success, that means from every standpoint. In the first place, the weather was ideal, though perhaps a trifle chilly late in the afternoon, the exhibits well up to the standard, and a fine programme of sports, which included horse races, and a baseball match. The baseball match was the pride of Kingston, having lost but one game in four years, a remarkable record for a baseball team, and the Wolfe Island team, which has also a wide reputation in baseball circles. The Kingstonians succeeded in adding another victory to their long list, defeating the islanders, by a score of 10 to 4.

The horse races provided a fine programme of sport, and were much enjoyed. There was a good attendance for the first day, and the directors had every reason to feel pleased at the result. Dr. G. W. Bell acted as starter, and he carried out the different events in fine style, there being no tiresome waits, as is customary at such events. His staff of judges and timekeepers only carried out their duties.

The Crystal Palace contained the exhibits, and they presented a fine display. The showing in the fruit and vegetable line was particularly good. As usual, the ladies excelled in their display of fancy work. The penitentiary had a fine exhibit of vegetables, keeping up the record this institution has held for many years. Home-made preserves were noticed, and they look O.K. too. The poultry show, although not a very large one, was first-class in quality.

Marshall's hardware had a fine display, and one which attracted the eye. The firm had a small house as the central figure in their display, and attracted attention to paints and hardware necessary for building. M. Clow & Son placed on exhibition carriages, harness and sewing machines. John McKay showed a fine line of furs, including fancy goods and muffs. J. B. Hunt & Co., hardware dealers, had a good display making a feature of stoves. D. J. Hay, implement dealer, had samples of his stock, and several other dealers were yesterday arranging exhibits. Samples of school children's writing, were placed on exhibition in the main building. Taken altogether, the various exhibits are a fine lot.

At the Races.

There were three races, township green trot, named race, and running race, and they provided some fine sport. In the green race, Nettie C. Wilkes, owned by W. Cordukes, and driven by "Bob" Smith, came first. Nettie C. won the three heats, but in the third she was set back to second place for running. Monty Carlo, owned by G. Shopper, being given a first.

Maud, owned by Wesley Harper, secured the named race, in three straight heats, and second money went to "Bob" Smith, with Bonnie Bess. The running race, as usual, was a special feature, and was put on the calendar as an "extra," by the management, a fact which was very much appreciated by the lovers of the races. Calvin, owned by W. J. Blacklock, won first money.

The horses in the different events were all from the township. The following is the summary: Nettie C. Wilkes; W. Cordukes 1 1 2 1. Monty Carlo, G. Shopper 4 3 1 4. Pretty Nellie, F. Trudell 2 2 3 2. Princess, P. Ward 3 4 4 3. Quaker Valley, W. Burns 5 5 5 5. Teddy B., Milton Royce 6 6 7 6. Time—1:22, 1:20, 1:30, 1:20.

Named Race.

Maud, Wesley Harper 1 1 1. Bonnie Bess, Robert Smith 2 2 2. Time—1:18, 1:18, 1:19.

Running Race.

Calvin, W. J. Blacklock, Glenburnie 1 1. Gipsy Boy, Patrick Kelly, Glenburnie 2 2. Nigger, Patrick Kelly, Glenburnie 3 3. Crooked Kate, R. E. Harpell, Cataragus 4 4. Time—1:02, 1:01.

Lewis Trudell, of Westbrook, won the prize for the fastest driving team. There were six entries in this event, and Mr. Trudell's team were much admired. Albert Stover, Elginburg, got second, and J. Smith, Westbrook, third.

The officials were: Starter, Dr. G. W. Bell; judges, Thomas Nicholson, Edward Burnside, timekeeper, A. E. Weller and J. Purdy.

An automobile from Montreal gave some fast trials of speed around the ring, with some local automobile men in the car, and made good time. Just the one car was shown.

Baseball Match.

The Junior Victorians won from Wolfe Island at baseball, by a score of ten to four, and had the game well in hand all through. A big crowd watched the game. The rough diamond prevented fast ball, but nevertheless, it was a very good game. George Sullivan was the umpire. Dunlop, of the Victorians, knocked out a dandy three-bagger, which was a special feature of the game. Muckle was in the box for the Victorians, and Pyke was on the slab for the islanders. The teams lined up as follows: Wolfe Island—Pyke, p.; D. Davis, s.; P. Doyle, 2b.; Cosgrove, r.f.; B. Cummings, l.f.; W. Cummings, c.f.; W. Davis, 3b.; H. Carr, s.; J. Berry, lb.; Junior Victorians—Slesman, c.; Muckle, p.; Walsh, lb.; Dunlop, 2b.; Beck, l.f.; Brown, s.; Boetridge, r.f.; Robinson, c.f.; Comper, 3b. The Symden band was present during the afternoon, and from the grand stand discoursed a fine programme of music.

Keeps the scalp cool in summer and free from unpleasant odors. Will make any woman's hair bewitchingly charming in one week. Grows hair and makes it soft, brilliant and luxuriant. And here's more proof: "Some fourteen years ago I had typhoid fever. It lasted my hair to nearly all fall out. I have since used and tried several hair tonics and renews, but nothing ever made my hair grow in until I tried a bottle of Parisian Sage. The use of Parisian Sage cooled and cleansed the scalp, removed all the dandruff, and let my hair silky and glossy in appearance, besides making the new hair grow in. To-day I have an abundance of hair, hardly any gray hairs and no dandruff. Is it any wonder that I praise Parisian Sage?"—Mrs. Ann E. Moody, 1904 Bainbridge St., Manchester, Va., April 2, '09.
