Rents Are High Own Your Home

Why are there so many lots sold in Kingston? Why is there so much building going on here?

It is because families of limited means see a chance to get away from paying high rents.

A real estate man expressed the idea the other day when he said that Kingston people are becoming educated out of the folly of paying for a home in rent every eight or ten years and then having nothing to show for it.

If you are paying $25, $20, $15, or even $12 a month rent, why not stop it and pay that money into a house?

We can sell you either a home or a building lot at a reasonable figure and attractive terms.

TWO BROTHERS ARRESTED. One Rented a Bicycle and Did Not Return It.

It does not pay to rent a bicycle and then not return it. That is what a couple of boys belonging to the township of Loughboro are convinced of.

About the first of September, Ernest Woods rented a wheel from C. A. Jones, Princess street, to take a trip out in the country. Mrs. Jones rented the wheel, in the absence of Mr. Jones, for two dollars. She was rather dubious about renting the wheel to a stranger, but he assured her that he had rented wheels from Mr. Jones at different times, and upon that assertion he got the wheel. Mrs. Jones says she never saw the wheel afterward. Woods was brought in here to the jail and appeared before Magistrate G. H. Hunter and J. W. Bradshaw at the court house, Tuesday. He pleaded "not guilty." In his evidence, he said that he had never owned a wheel and could not ride one. He claimed that he had not been inside the store of Mr. Jones for three years and thought that his brother might be the guilty party, but Mrs. Jones identified him as the one to whom she had rented the wheel. The prisoner said that he and his brother looked very much alike, and that they were often taken for twins. Upon this evidence, he was remanded until his brother could be looked up. Constable Smith went out, Wednesday morning, and brought him in to the jail. Mrs. Jones will identify the guilty one at the jail, and he will be brought up before Magistrate Hunter, Thursday afternoon.

ABERNETHY'S

GIVEN SIX MONTHS

DOMESTIC WHO WAS FOUND GUILTY OF THEFT.

Mary Johnston Was Sentenced by the Magistrate on Wednesday Morning—She Stole Goods From a Home Where She Was Employed.

Six months in the county jail. This was the sentence Magistrate Farrell meted out, at the police court, on Wednesday morning, to Mary Johnston, the domestic, who pleaded guilty, a week ago, to theft of goods from the home of Capt. William Robertson, 44 Frontenac street, where she was employed.

The accused is a middle-aged woman somewhat hard of hearing, and she did not quite understand what had happened in regard to her case, while in the court room, and after she was taken out of the room, she had to inquire from one of the constables as to what sentence she had received. When told that she would have to spend six months in jail, it did not appear to worry her very much.

The theft occurred a few months ago, and the case was worked out by Constable James Craig, who located part of the stolen goods in the woman's possession. For the most part, the goods taken consisted of wearing apparel. She denied at first having taken anything out of the house, but as Constable Craig unearthed one article after another, she finally wilted, and said that she had committed theft.

The drunk who was gathered in on Tuesday afternoon, found drunk, lying in a wheelbarrow, in an hotel yard, was given a chance, as he had never appeared before the court before.

BOARD OF TRADE MEETING. Discussed Aldermanic Term, But no Action Taken.

There was a well-attended meeting of the board of trade, held on Tuesday evening. The president, C. A. Macpherson, occupied the chair. The matter of having the aldermen elected for one year, instead of three, discussed by the council of the board, and sent on to the members, was discussed at some length, but no final action was taken, the matter being simply left in abeyance.

A member of the board, speaking to the Whig, to-day, stated that the matter would likely be dropped by the board, for a time, at least.

While there are a number who favor the one year term, for aldermen, there are also a large number who believe that the three year term is a good policy. They point out that the three year term gives a man time to inquire into things, and to introduce new legislation. The matter has been discussed on several occasions, but there does not appear to be any chance of a change being made.

Was Very Entertaining. A very delightful lecture was given at the Royal Military College, on Tuesday night, by Rev. Jocelyn Perkins, on "Westminster Abbey and the Coronation."

The pictures of King Edward and the other royalties, were perfect, his late majesty being most kindly when he stood just before the coronation, being presented by the Archbishop of Canterbury, for the "recognition," by his people.

Canon Perkins was one of the clergy who conducted parties over the abbey at the time of the Pan-Anglo-Saxon Congress two years ago, and there were several people in the audience, last night who had met the lecturer then. His lecture is a happy beginning for a series which Col. Crowe has instituted for the education of the cadets on broader lines than is possible in the regular college routine.

A Most Important Event. Excellence in picture is very closely associated with the King Edward theatre. Great events and gatherings are features of its programme. Probably the most important event in Canada for a quarter of a century was the Eucharistic Congress of the Roman Catholic church at Montreal last month. No sooner had it concluded than the King Edward management began negotiations for pictures of what took place, and arrangements have been completed for them to be shown on Thursday, Friday and Saturday next, 13th, 14th and 15th. The prominent feature will be the reception of the children by the papal legate, the pontifical mass in the open air, the arrival of Cardinal Vanell, and the blessed sacrament procession. Those who have seen these films say they are at once the most interesting and beautiful that have been shown in any theatre this year, and the subject is one that is a special appeal in itself.
