ROUGH WEATHER AND FOG

Causing Great Deal of Delay to the

Rough weather on Lake Ontario and fog on the upper lakes is delaying the vessels these days. A number of grain boats are on the way from Fort William to Kingston but they have lost considerable time as a result of these circumstances. The steamer Wassaga is expected to arrive at the M. T. Co.'s elevator to-night with a cargo of grain from Fort William.

Coal schooners running to Kingston have been tied up at Oswego all week as a result of the rough weather.

The deceased was the fourth son of the late George Sheridan, and was born at Brockville. In religion he was an Anglican. He was a member of the Prescott lodge of Oddfellows. When leaving Brockville he took over the management of the Mansion hotel, as a result of the rough weather. The weather has not at all favored the work on the steamer Phoenix, Borchester, loaded with damaged grain, which is being unloaded at Richardson's elevator.
