THE BRITTON, OF GANANOQUE, SPRANK ALEAK.

But Reached Sackets Harbor-Now at Gananoque-The Local Option Campaign is Waxing Warm. Gananoque, Oct. 17.-The o

ner Brittan, owned by Reeve C. Britton, of this town, command by Capt. Ferrington, of Napance, met with a thrilling experience the lat-ter part of the week. After leaving hwego with a cargo of some tons she sprang aleak, requiring a continuous manning of her pumps, but successfully put into Sackett's Harbor. On Saturday afternoon Mr. I ritton got a relief party together, and with the government tug Beaver, went to Sackett's Harbor, he and his son going by way of Watertown. They found the schooner in condition to be removed and the tug brought her in-to port about three o'clock yesterday sternoon. She pulled into Ganano-ne river to unload, after which ne-essary repairs will be made.

The campaign for local option is waxing warm. In their four evening's canvass during the past week sixty per cent. of the requisite names for the petition have been obtained and encouraged by them the work will be pushed during this week, when the ranks of the canvassers will be aug-mented by a number of lady canassers. The merchants have so far ought shy of committing themselves, affluenced by the idea that they night injure their business.

Saturday saw the practical navigation here, when the nce rates ran out, and it is, thereore, probable that no further shortage of water will be experienced this season by the manufacturers as now "Ransomed," a story of the war, in the Ridean chain of lakes can be which a five-year-old boy ransoms his father from the hands of the enemy.
