Wellman and Crew Were Picked Up

KEPT UP 70 HOURS

WHEN AIRSHIP SEEN IT WAS IN DISTRESS.

Steamship Trent Came to the Rescue—Tribble Began When Gas Was Found Escaping From the Big Bag—Had to Throw Gasoline Overboard.

New York, Oct. 19.—Walter Wellman, and his five companions, who, last Saturday morning, sailed from Atlantic City in the dirigible balloon America in an attempt to fly to Europe along the northern steamship route, were picked up at sea, at dawn, yesterday morning, by the Royal Mail Packet company's steamship Trent, Capt. C. E. Down, bound for New York, via the Bermuda, at a point about 375 miles east of Norfolk, Va., and about 250 miles north-west of Bermuda.

The America, after a record flight for dirigibles of about seventy hours, was sighted close to the water in distress and was abandoned by Wellman and his crew, all of whom sought safety aboard the Trent with the help of the dirigible's lifboat.

The message announcing the rescue of the aeronauts reached the United Wireless station here, yesterday forenoon, and was addressed to Sanderson & Son, and signed by Capt. Down of the Trent. The message said:

"At 5 a.m., to-day, sighted Wellman's airship America in distress. Signalled by Morse Code that she required assistance and help. After three hours maneuvering and fresh wind blowing, Wellman, with his entire crew and cat, were hoisted safely on board. All are well. The America was abandoned in latitude 35.13 north, longitude, 68.18 west." (Signed) C. E. Down, master."

Shortly after this message arrived here, a message from the Marconi company, in New York, which was addressed to the Marconi people and signed "Jack" Irwin, the wireless operator, which showed that Irwin was anxious about his wireless apparatus as the rest had been about the cat.

"Rescued by Trent. All well. Instruments saved. Arrange to meet ship, to-morrow and take instruments over. Wireless played important part in rescue. (Signed) Irwin."

On the heels of the first fragmentary news came a wireless message from the Trent, explaining that the serious troubles of the airship crew began when Wellman and the crew noticed that so much gas was escaping.

At 5 a.m., to-day, sighted Wellman's airship America in distress. Signalled by Morse Code that she required assistance and help. After three hours maneuvering and fresh wind blowing, Wellman, with his entire crew and cat, were hoisted safely on board. All are well. The America was abandoned in latitude 35.13 north, longitude, 68.18 west." (Signed) C. E. Down, master."

LOST PIECE OF LIP.

Scar Obtained in "Scrap" to Identify Man.

Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 19.—An estate of $6,000 belongs to E. M. Griffin, of San Francisco, formerly of the United States army, if he can prove to the satisfaction of the court that he is the only surviving heir of John James Richard Griffin, of Ketchikan, Alaska, and Port Simpson, British Columbia. He has proved to the courts that he was a brother of the deceased, though he had not seen him for many years, and the last letter received from him was long ago, when his brother was in Colorado. Curiously enough this letter told him his brother had been in a scrap and had had a "chip of his lip" bitten away. BANDITS SURRENDERED.

Spent Four Days and Nights Without Food.

Douglas, Ariz., Oct. 19.—Pursued by rural and special officers, three Mexican bandits who raided the Lucky Tiger mine last Thursday, and escaped with $10,000 worth of high grade silver ore, have surrendered.

For four days the robbers had gone without food or rest to escape the close pursuit and were glad to give up.

The robbers, with a pack train of twelve burros, appeared at the mine, loaded their burros with twenty-five sacks of ore, valued at $100 each and drove away before the men at the mine realized what was happening. The ore was recovered.

GIRL'S ODD STORY

A TORONTO GIRL IN NEW YORK CITY.

Was in Restaurant With Girl Friends When First Saw Her Husband—Was Wounded, Married and Deserted in Twenty-four Hours.

New York, Oct. 19.—The strange story of the twenty-four hour romance of Miss Marion Trebilcock, daughter of a wealthy merchant of Toronto, and until recently one of the probationary nurses in Mt. Sinai hospital, was told by Miss Anna Jackson, a professional graduate nurse, who is a friend of the bride deserted a few hours after she was wed.

Miss Trebilcock, according to Miss Jackson, wed on a dare. Then, when she found that her husband had left her, taking $15—all the money she had—and a gold ring, she went to her father for funds and returned home.

"The marriage," Miss Jackson said, "grew out of a chance meeting at a Fifth avenue restaurant."

A week ago yesterday, Miss Trebilcock, Miss Jeannette Smith, who lives with me, and I went to see a vaudeville performance. There a young man who sat near us constantly ogled us. We paid no attention to him, however, and did not see him as we left the theatre."

He appeared at the restaurant where the young woman dined that evening.

"None of us paid any attention to him," said Miss Jackson, "and I was greatly surprised when Miss Trebilcock arose abruptly, walked over to his table and sat down. I tried to persuade her to leave him, but she refused."

"Finally she came back and asked us if we wanted to meet her friend. I think that was the first time she ever saw him. Therefore we declined."

Later the young woman yielded and later that evening they took supper with the stranger. They returned to Miss Jackson's home in a taxi-cab, according to Miss Jackson, but the young man detained her.

"I am in love with Miss Trebilcock," Miss Jackson says, "and would want her to marry me."

Miss Jackson says she protested, telling him that they had known each other only a few hours.

"That's all right," the stranger said. "It's a case of love at first sight and she must marry me."

Early the next morning they were married at Holoken.

"Mr. Armstrong" told his bride that he had to go south on important business, but she finally persuaded him to agree to accompany her to Toronto and be introduced to her family.

"Meet me at 12.30 at the Grand Central station," he told her.

Miss Trebilcock was on hand at the appointed time, but her husband wasn't. She waited three hours, and when he failed to appear, decided that she had been deserted. She told her story to Miss Jackson, and after receiving funds from her father, started for home.

Dr. Casanoff, formerly health officer of Toronto, died at Belleville, yesterday, aged eighty years.

FOUND DEAD IN BED.

GILBERT M. HITCHCOCK.

HE KISSED MRS. CRIPPEN.

Bruce Miller, Chicago, Was Intimate With Her.

London, Oct. 19.—The Dr. Crippen murder case was opened in the chief court of the Old Bailey yesterday. To the charge, Crippen answered: "Not guilty, my lord." The crown counsel, in outlining the case, stated that Crippen's wife, a music hall artist, was found of dress, but for three years previous to last January, Crippen had not cohabited with her. During that time he was carrying on an intrigue with a girl in his employment, Ethel Levee. Desire for closer relations with the latter and to tide over business difficulties, were stated as Crippen's objects for putting his wife out of the way. The crown counsel contended that the mutilated remains found in Crippen's cellar were those of his wife.

Crippen's landlord stated that the doctor had lived in his house five years. Dr. Burroughs testified that Crippen was exceedingly kind-hearted towards his wife and solicitous for her comfort. Mrs. Martinetti told of the dinner party, and of seeing on Mrs. Crippen's body what looked to be an operation scar. Miss Hoken also told of this case.

Bruce Miller, of Chicago, said that he had met Belle Elmore in England in 1899. He last saw her in 1904. He had visited Mrs. Crippen during her husband's absence in America many times. He was fond of her and gave her presents. He denied that there were any improper relations between them, though he admitted that he had kissed Mrs. Crippen. He wrote her up till last January. She did not resent his attentions.

PHILADELPHIA WINS AGAIN.

Defeated Chicago Cubs on Tuesday by 9 to 3.

Philadelphia, Oct. 19.—The second of the world's baseball series, played here yesterday afternoon, was won by the Athletics, who put it over the Chicago Cubs to the tune of 9 to 3. Chicago scored one in the first inning, but the Athletics led thereafter, forcing to the front in the third by scoring two. It was in the seventh inning that the game was decided, Philadelphia getting five hits, a base on balls, and profiting by an error of Shekarski in miffing a fly. Chicago, as in the first game, on Monday, finished strong, scoring in the ninth inning. Brown was on the mound for Chicago, and got a awful hammering. He was replaced after the fatal seventh, by Ritchie. Coombs pitched for Philadelphia. He was hit for nine safeties, but the great fielding of the Athletics kept him out of trouble. Collins, the Athletics' second baseman, drove in two runs by a two-bagger.

WISH REPORT

Upon All The Schools Of This Province

REASON OF DEFECTS

IN BI-LINGUAL SCHOOLS DUE TO INCOMPETENCY.

On the Part of Teachers and Inefficient Inspection—French-Canadian Association Would Welcome the Appointment of a Royal Commission.

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—"The association, being of the opinion that his lordship is not open to conviction, will not enter with him into the controversy so dramatically introduced by him, but will reserve its energy and best efforts for the more practical and patriotic task of assisting the government of Ontario to ascertain the true situation in our schools, and in an earnest and constant effort to provide the children of this province with the very best possible education."

The above statement was made at noon by Hon. N. A. Belcourt, president, on behalf of the French-Canadian Association of Ontario, in reference to the Bishop Fallon controversy. The association executive, at a meeting held last night, decided "that the association would welcome the appointment by the government of Ontario of a royal commission to investigate and report upon all the schools of the province."

Interviewed, Mr. Belcourt said he believed such an investigation would demonstrate that the bi-lingual schools are not inferior to other schools, that their establishment and maintenance in many parts of the province would facilitate the efficient teaching of the English language; that bi-lingual schools are an absolute necessity; that if defects are found to exist in bi-lingual schools they will also be found to exist in the public schools, and that such defects are principally due to incompetent teachers or inefficient inspection.

Mr. Belcourt added: "The report of such a commission, we think, would afford the best answer possible to the ill-considered, hasty, and unjustified strictures of the bishop of London who, on this occasion, has once more been the victim of strong prejudice against the French-Canadian people, which those who know him best assure he has always entertained and frequently expressed in his usual episcopal style."

MAD DOG! MAD DOG!!

Canada Has Passed Through With Scare.

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—Since the fall of 1908, when, according to Dr. J. G. Rutherford, dominion veterinarian, "a little dog trotted over the Suspension bridge, at Queenstown, from the American side, bit a Canadian dog and other animals, and then went back unwept, unwhored and unscathed" Canada has passed through one of the worst scares from rabies it ever has known. The disease is now happily under control, but during the time it held sway in the dominion its effects reached over the province of Ontario and went as far west as Alberta. Inquiry at the biological laboratory, at the experimental farm, has revealed the welcome fact that the disease has about run its course, no case having been seen in the last three months. During the year 1909, and until the end of September, of this year, more than 125 animals have been sent in for observation, of which over half showed positive symptoms of rabies. Some were horses, others cows and calves, but 60 per cent of the animals sent in were dogs, which would comprise about eighty-five per cent.

TWENTY YEARS' SENTENCE.

Joseph Lavigne to Receive Two Whippings Also.

Parry Sound, Oct. 19.—Joseph Lavigne, alias Joseph Albert Roy, twice previously convicted, imprisoned and lashed, for offences against little girls, was again convicted of outraging a little girl thirteen years, named Edna Wright. The jury took a merciful view of the case, and brought in a verdict for the lesser offence, but Justice Clute, who evidently recognized that the accused was a moral degenerate, inflicted a sentence of twenty years in the penitentiary and twenty lashes.

C. P. R. Makes Jump.

Montreal, Oct. 19.—C. P. R. sold Tuesday at 199 1/2 and at 201 in London which is the highest since 1906. While there is a rumor that the C.P.R. will get an entrance into New York through the Vanderbilt roads, the chief reason for the rise is the promise of Shaugnessy that the dividend will be raised two per cent next year.

LOST IN HURRICANE.

Many Bodies Were Washed Out to Sea.

Havana, Oct. 19.—The exact loss of life in the second fatal hurricane, which swept Cuba, centering its most terrific velocity on this city, may never be known, for rescue squads report that bodies have been swept to sea by the tidal waves. Hundreds of lives were lost, it is believed.

More than nine blocks of this city were under water. Large buildings in the path of the storm were crumpled up like paper. The loss throughout the island will likely go far into the millions.

Premier Nodarse said that he had received private advice that parts of the island had been completely devastated. News from the interior is meagre, as practically all the wires are down. Thirty persons were reported dead at Consolation, Del Sar, where the town was almost destroyed.

MONKS IN SPAIN ARE STORING UP ARMS.

Madrid, Oct. 19.—It is estimated that five thousand members of the Portuguese religious orders, expelled from their own country, have taken refuge in Spain where they are now being distributed among the convents and monasteries in various parts of the country. It is believed that this will render very difficult the expulsion from Spanish territory of those not of Spanish origin.

The accounts of attacks upon religious in Portugal have greatly alarmed the Spanish orders in the various provinces, and it is reported that they are strengthening the convents and monasteries with iron doors and shutters and are laying in stores of arms and ammunition.

A parade of republicans was held this afternoon in celebration of the republic of Portugal. The procession passed through the principal streets of the city. Perfect order was maintained.

NOT DISHEARTENED.

Will Try Again to Make Europe by Airship.

Atlantic City, N.J., Oct. 19.—The failure of the Wellman party to make good on their proposed trip to Europe by airship, has, by no means, disheartened the promoters of the enterprise. Plans are being made, to-day, for a renewal of the attempt. Wellman, Vanniman and the other members, despite their narrow escape, are eager for another try, whereby they may take advantage of the mistakes of the initial expedition. They will have all the money they need to construct a new airship.

Slavery Charged.

Toronto, Oct. 19.—City Engineer Rust is going to make immediate investigation into the conditions, approaching slavery, declared by Controller Foster to exist at the filtration works. The controller said he saw men carrying sixty pound bags of cement across three or four hundred feet of deep side, from where it was unloaded to where it was being mixed. The men, he said, were so fagged out when they reached the end of the array that he did not wonder they did not want to stay on the job. He had suggested laying a line of single planks on the side, but the controller said: "The men are perfect slaves, and Controller Foster; they are like horses."

Buying Up-to-Date Goods

No woman likes to feel that she is buying old, shopworn, out-of-date goods.

The bright advertising merchant goes at it in another way.

He doesn't wait for people to dig through the stock to find his goods, but he uses space in the newspapers to tell all the people about his goods.

Advertising makes it easy for them to know about his wares, brings him immediate buyers and he sells his stock over and over again.

It doesn't get a chance to get stale—out-of-date.

Therefore, if you want to feel that the goods you are buying are right in style, quality and price, you should patronize the merchants who advertise.

Such a merchant depends upon people coming to his store and searching through the stock to find out what they want.
