WHISTLED TOO MUCH

And Was Shot and Killed For Act.

Winnipeg, Oct. 27.—A despatch from Fort William, Ont., reports the murder of Thomas Waugh, a Scotchman, by Joseph Grogono, an Italian, at a G.T.P. railway laborers' house, at O'Brien's, a small place on Sturgeon Lake, north of Fort William, on Tuesday night, Grogono, it is said shot Waugh, because the latter failed to respond when asked to cease whistling and has not been recovered as yet. Officials have left Fort William, for the scene of the murder to hold an inquest.

After thirty-eight years' service, Rev. Robert Ashton has resigned the principality of the Mohawk Indian Institute, Bensford, to seek a well-earned rest. The institute, which is maintained by the New England company for the education of Indian boys and girls, has attained high efficiency under Mr. Ashton's charge. He will be succeeded by his son, Capt. Nelles Ashton, formerly of the institute staff, but now in the west.

HOW OLD PEOPLE

May Prolong Their Lives. At an advanced age waste is more rapid than repair. The organs act more slowly and less effectively than in youth. The circulation is poor—the blood thin and watery—the appetite poor and digestion weak.

We want to say to every aged person in this vicinity that Vinol, one delicious cod liver and iron tonic (without oil) will prolong life. It creates an appetite, aids digestion and makes good blood. In this natural manner Vinol retards waste and replaces weakness with strength, giving new life to the worn system.

If people in this vicinity only realized how Vinol invigorates old people we would not be able to supply the demand. Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. Mac-hood's Drug Store, Kingston.

HAD NARROW ESCAPE FOUND IN ROOM WITH GAS TURNED ON.

Daniel McLean, Pittsburgh Farmer, Came Near Being Suffocated—Found in Nick of Time—Saved by Doctor—It Was Purely Accidental.

Daniel McLean, an elderly man, a retired farmer, of Pittsburgh township, who has for some time boarded at the Ottawa hotel, came within an ace of being suffocated with gas, early Thursday morning. He was found just in the nick of time, by some of the people at the hotel, and quick work on the part of Dr. Morrison, who was summoned, saved his life.

The affair was purely accidental. It is usual for Mr. McLean to have the gas in his room turned low at night, and during the night, when he had occasion to get out of bed, he turned out the light, and in some manner happened to turn it on again by mistake. Some of the people in the hotel could smell escaping gas, early this morning, and they made an investigation, with the result that McLean was found unconscious in his room, Dr. Morrison was summoned, immediately, and had to work over him for quite a long time, before he came around all right.

Mr. McLean was quite a sick man, for the rest of the day, but out of danger. His escape was a very narrow one, as it is believed that if he had been left in his room a little longer he would have been found dead. Mr. McLean is well-known in the township, and also has a great many friends in the city, and all of them were very sorry to hear of his mishap.

A strange part of the affair was the way in which a little dog, owned by James Norris, the proprietor, acted. Before it was found that gas was escaping, the little dog went around the hotel as if all was not right, getting from one room to another, and then going to its master. Just shortly after this the discovery was made.

HAD ROUGH VOYAGE.

Boats in Harbor Well Shaken To-day.

Owing to the rough weather, the teams America did not arrive from Cape Vincent until 2.15 o'clock this afternoon. The captain reported a very heavy sea, and this was verified by the number of sick passengers. Freight was put on board as speedily as possible for the return trip. All the vessels around the harbor were given a good shaking up. Several vessels which intended clearing, had to stay in port. The steamer Deepwater was at anchor a few miles up the lake, all night, there being such a heavy gale.

The barge St. Louis cleared for Oswego, early this morning, but got into the gale, a short distance out, and had to stay at anchor. The yawl boat broke away, and at last accounts was over near Point Frederick, badly smashed up.

Steamer's Sensational Trip. The course of the steamer Wolfe Islander across the angry harbor, this afternoon, was watched by many people, who feared for the little ferry boat, but the islander's craft came safely into port on the city side, after one sensational stunt. The waves were rolling high, and the wind was of the hurricane type. A small yawl, which had broken away from its moorings, drifted down the harbor to the bridge.

Yachts in Trouble.

The yachts Temeraire, owned by the late Major Bruce Carruthers, the Isis, owned by Hansard Hora, and the Chiriya, owned by Dalton Bros., while moored in the yacht club slip broke away from the wharf sometime early this morning. The Temeraire was fastened by three lines and managed to break two of the bow-line holding fast. She was anchored. The Isis broke her lines, bumped into the Chiriya, and pounded a hole in her hull from constant wearing against the other boat. The Chiriya was not damaged to any extent. None of the boats got away from the slip.

Will Retire From Stage—Was Born With Growth of Hair on Face—Happy Bridegroom an Indiana Farmer.

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 27.—The "Bearded Lady," Harriet H. Bailey, a circus, became a bride this morning. In private life she is the widely-known performer Miss Grace Gilbert, of Kalamazoo county, Michigan, but with her marriage she became Mrs. Giles A. Calvin. Calvin is a farmer, fifty-three years old, nineteen older than his wife.

The "Bearded Lady" announced retirement from the circus life following her marriage. She said she was born with a growth of hair on her face and that she had exhibited herself as a freak for sixteen years.

"I am now going back to my husband's farm," she said, "and will never appear in a show again. I will try to make a good wife."

MRS. DELINE SUFFOCATED. Second Post-Mortem Results in New Evidence.

Peterboro, Ont., Oct. 27.—As a result of a second post-mortem, conducted at Hazelock, by experts, on the body of Mrs. Hugh Deline, which was exhumed, new evidence of such a character was obtained, that the crown prosecutor at the present assizes, E. Meredith, of London, had the trial of Hugh Deline, accused of the murder of his wife, transferred to the next assizes.

"The latest developments throw an entirely new light on the case," said Mr. Meredith.

It is understood that the examination of the statements of the neighbors who had related that Mrs. Deline had complained to them that her husband had been guilty of unnatural conduct toward her. Further, it was revealed that death was due to suffocation, not to shock, as heretofore held.

The post-mortem was conducted by Dr. Bruce Smith, inspector of prisons; Dr. W. T. Connell, professor of pathology, Queen's University, and Dr. E. Ryan, superintendent of Lockwood asylum, Kingston, the examination taking place in the presence of Inspector Reburn, of the provincial police department, who has had charge of the case.

COFFEE WAS IT.

People Slowly Learn the Facts. "All my life I have been such a slave to coffee that the very aroma of it was enough to set my nervous quivering. I kept gradually losing my health but I used to say 'nonsense, it don't hurt me.'"

"Slowly I was forced to admit the truth and the final result was that my whole nervous force was shattered. My heart became weak and uncertain in its action and that frightened me. Finally a physician told me, about a year ago, that I must stop drinking coffee or I could never expect to be well again."

"I was in despair, for the very thought of the medicines I had tried so many times, nauseated me. I thought of Postum but could hardly bring myself to give up the coffee."

"Finally I concluded that I owed it to myself to give Postum a trial. So I got a package and carefully followed the directions, and what a delicious nourishing, rich drink it was! Do you know I found it very easy to shift from coffee to Postum and not mind the change at all!"

"Almost immediately after I made the change I found myself better, and as the days went by I kept on improving. My nerves grew sound and steady. I slept well and felt strong and well-balanced all the time."

"Now I am completely cured, with the old nervousness and weakness all gone. In every way I am well once more."

It pays to give up the drink that acts on some like a poison, for health is the greatest fortune one can have. Read the little book, "The Road to Health" in paper. There's a Real Son."
