BREAK AT CORNWALL CANAL.

Vessels Delayed on Their Way to Kingston.

Owing to a break in the Cornwall canal, Friday, vessels on their way to Kingston were delayed. According to the report received in marine circles here, the trouble was caused by a portion of the canal bank being washed away. Early last evening, a report was received, which stated that the water in the canal had been lowered, and that the necessary repairs had been completed, and that it was expected that vessels could be put through the locks during the night.

M.T. Co's elevator: Steamer Canadian, from Fort William, discharged into store, 75,000 bushels of wheat, cleared for Fort William; steamer Simla, from Fort William, lightered 5,900 bushels of wheat, cleared for Montreal; steamer Gordon, from Fort William, grain laden, expected during the day, and steamers Rosemount and Mapleton, grain laden, are also expected to arrive during the day.

Owing to the break in the Cornwall canal, the steamer Alexandria was unable to make her trip up on Friday night. She may be up to-night. Last night a telegram was received stating that the vessel was tied up, and that she would be a day late reaching this port.

The steamship Navajo cleared for Oswego, and will load coal for Amherst Island.

The barge St. Louis, which was held up by the severe storm, was able to clear for Oswego, last night.

The steamer Arabian passed, on Friday night.

The schooner Mary Ann Lydon cleared for Charlotte, with felled-pine.

At Swift's wharf: Steamer Britannia, up; last night; steamer Aletha, down, from bay ports, to-day.

Died at Nanaimo.
 The death occurred, on October 13th, of Mrs. John F. Pfeiler, aged sixty-one years. Deceased was formerly of Addington county, better known as Jennie Asselstine, and later as Mrs. Hodge. She taught school to her father and after her first marriage, and was well known especially in the northern part of the county, where she had charge of the junior department of the Janworth public school for a number of years. After the death of her first husband she went west on a visit about three years ago, and about two and a half years ago was married, and settled in Nanaimo. N. A. Asselstine, Wilton, is a brother.

A Very Great Problem.
 The Toronto Globe, the Montreal Herald and the Kingston Whig call upon the government to redeem the pledge of senate reform given by the liberal convention in 1893. The government has been frequently reminded of this pledge by candid friends. The matter has been more than discussed in parliament, but both parties have failed at it. The difficulties are not so much partisan constitutional. There is little doubt that the maritime provinces will press for equality of representation in the senate as an offset to their decreasing membership in the House of Commons. The opposition is not more willing to raise such a question than the government has been.

Next Year's Holidays.
 The year 1911 will be peculiar because it will open on a Sunday and will close on a Sunday. It will also have its chief holidays either before or after a Sunday. New Year's day will, of course, be celebrated on the Monday. Dominion day will fall on a Saturday, giving the benefit of the Sabbath as an additional holiday, and as Christmas will be celebrated on a Monday, there also the workers will get an extra day's holiday. So that with Labor day and Thanksgiving day also falling on a Monday, it looks like a good year for the railways with their weekend excursions.

NICKLE BREAD BILL

MISTAKE TO REFUSE PUBLIC A CERTAIN RIGHT.

That of Purchasing the Bread They Wish to Buy in the Shape They Desire—Many Families do Not Want Large Loaves.

Toronto World.
 W. F. Nickle, M.L.A., announces that he will make a further effort to settle the bread question. He will have the entire sympathy of the World in his endeavor. We believe that the bill, or rather the amendments of Mr. McNaught's bill, which Mr. Nickle carried, was the result of an honest effort to straighten out the difficulties that have arisen. The act as it stands only gave occasion for worse difficulties, as we have all along pointed out though some are reluctant to admit it.

What is needed in the first place is to settle whether bread is to be sold by a standard of price or by a standard of weight. The act passed by Mr. Nickle attempted to reconcile both and this obviously cannot be done. If the weight is to be fixed the price must vary. The McNaught Act allowed for both conditions and established the standard weight of bread at twenty-four and forty-eight ounces. Any variation had to be indicated by a label giving the weight of the loaf, and the standard loaf was, of course, also indicated by label.

The chief difficulty arose over the better quality of bread which bakers in Toronto sell at a higher price, and which a large proportion of the customers prefer. The mistake of the Nickle bill was to refuse to the public the right to buy the bread they wished to buy in the shape they desired. Many families do not care to buy large loaves which grow stale before they can be used and so cause waste, and others like to have small fresh loaves at every meal. Mr. Nickle's bill practically made it illegal to buy or sell such a loaf. He must consider the requirements of city house-holders as well as of the rural population when he drafts a new measure.

We believe the standard should be fixed at one pound. All loaves should be marked according to weight. It bread is worth four cents a pound, twenty ounces will be a five-cent loaf, and a twenty-four ounce

ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY

HAS COMPLETED SEVENTY YEARS OF EXISTENCE.

Annual Meeting Held Last Evening—Rev. Prof. Dall Will Preach St. Andrew's Sermon—A Concert Likely to be Held on St. Andrew's Night.

St. Andrew's Society held its annual meeting last evening, in the council chamber. This society is now seventy years old, having been organized here in 1840, with Hsu John Hamilton as its first president. It has continued to exist for creditable and patriotic purposes ever since, while the two other national societies, St. George's and St. Patrick's, have long since passed into a state of non-existence. Scotchmen are thrifty, and during the past year, the secretary-treasurer reported that there were only a dozen calls made upon the society for help, and in one case, a grant was required.

It was decided to attend divine worship in St. Andrew's church, on Sunday evening, November 27th, when Rev. Prof. J. Dall, M.A., the latest Scottish addition to Queen's University theological staff, will preach to the Scottish societies.

The question of holding a banquet or a concert on St. Andrew's night was left to the executive. It is probable that a concert will be decided upon.

The secretary was instructed to forward to the family of the late Major W. Bruce Carruthers a letter expressing the sorrow of the society over his death. The late Major Carruthers was a vice-president of St. Andrew's Society, of which his father was one of the earliest members and a former president.

These officers were elected: President, David Murray; first vice-president, J. Mel. Mowat; second vice-president, George B. McKay; secretary-treasurer, James Stewart; committee, D. Scott, W. G. Craig, Lieut. Col. Maasie; auditor, G. W. Maxwell; chaplain, Rev. Prof. Dall; pipers, Messrs. Fraser, McDonald and Clark.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Y. M.C.A., will hold a tea and sale of work in the Y.M.C.A. building, Thursday, November 3rd, from 3 to 6 p.m. special Thanksgiving service.

HORSE THIEF WHO WAS SENTENCED AT OTTAWA.

It is stated that Kristen Olson, alias L. M. Larson, given seven years, at Ottawa, on Wednesday, for horse stealing, was well-known to the farmers of the Kingston district, being a terror to many of the farmers between here and Smith's Falls.

The prisoner pleaded guilty to stealing a horse, cutter, mule, ox robe and 120 robes from Dr. L. G. Smith, at Lennoxville, and the theft of a single set of harness and one mule ox robe from James Byers, of the same place. Although only in this country twelve years, the prisoner has spent over eleven years in prison. He received five years for cattle stealing, and was sentenced in Kingston, in 1905, to seven years.

It is stated that at the expiration of his present term, that other charges will be laid against him.

Death of Hugh Killorin.
 It is with regret we have to relate the death of Hugh Killorin, son of James Killorin, who died in St. Benedict's hospital, at Grand Rapids, Minn. He had been suffering for three weeks from typhoid fever. They had hopes of his recovery until peritonitis set in, and he passed away within a few hours. The announcement of his sudden and unexpected death came as a great shock to his friends. His remains were brought to Napanee on Wednesday by his two brothers, John and Ambrose, who were with him during his illness.

Hard on the Wires.
 The storm of the past few days caused a great deal of trouble with the wires over the line of the Kingston and Pembroke railway. Yesterday, the wires were out of order for quite a time. The telephone wires throughout the district also suffered a great deal.

Campbell Bros. for Hats.
 In the up-to-date hat store styles. Rev. Dr. Bidwell preaches in Garden-Ennis, on Monday night, at a special Thanksgiving service.

When this Label is on a Package of Sodas, you know the goods are right.
