THIEVES MADE A HAUL.

And Made Off With Portion of Case's Contents.

There was a grand opportunity for sneak thieves to get in their work, and they took advantage of it. As a result, a local boot and shoe wholesale is mourning the loss of eight pairs of shoes. And it was only by chance that the loss was not heavier, as the thieves had every opportunity to make off with a case of shoes.

It appears that last night, the Midland Shoe company delivered a case of shoes to the yard of the Windsor hotel, to be put on board a stage in the morning. By some mishap the case was allowed to remain out in the yard, and some time during the night some person or persons got busy. They took possession of the case, and putting it over a nearby fence into a nearby yard, they commenced to examine the box and to pick out what they wanted. The box was found to contain many boxes of shoes, and from the yard in which the box was used, it was evident that they made a thorough inspection. Eight pairs of shoes were selected, and the remainder were left in the box.

On Friday morning, the people living in the house were surprised to find the box in the yard, and notified the police. Constable Arniel was given the case, and he found that the case was the property of the Midland Shoe company. Investigation by the company revealed the loss. The packing case, with the goods remaining, is now at the police station.

A SERIOUS CHARGE AN "ECHO MEETING"

ALLEGED MICHAEL DEVINE USED A KNIFE

In an Attack He Made Upon Capt. James Oliver on Thursday Evening—Given Preliminary Hearing Before Magistrate and Committed for Trial.

On the complaint of Captain James Oliver, of the schooner Major Ferry, who claimed that he had used a knife on him, Michael Devine, a well-known young man around the city, was arrested early, on Thursday evening, by Constable Mullinger and Downey. His case was given a preliminary hearing, before Magistrate Farrell, in police court, Friday morning, and the accused was committed for trial. The charge against him was that of "seditious and insulting, causing bodily harm." J. McE. Mowat appeared on behalf of Capt. Oliver, but Devine had no lawyer.

Capt. Oliver suffered a bad gash over his right eye, which required one stitch, and his left hand was badly gashed, five stitches being required to close up the wounds. The row occurred near the corner of Brock and Ontario street, early last night. Capt. Oliver was able to go to his office, to have his injuries dressed.

"I do not remember much about the affair," said Devine, when the charge was read, in police court. "I was drunk at the time."

The court room was crowded with spectators, as the news of the affair spread rapidly last night.

The accused said that he would like to have a lawyer to defend him, but the two legal men he asked for, could not be secured so the magistrate said that he would go on with the preliminary hearing and that the accused could secure counsel afterwards. The magistrate pointed out that the alleged offence, was a very serious one.

With a large bandage over his right eye, and several around his left hand, Capt. Oliver went to the box, and told his story. He said he knew Devine. He had last seen him, about 6:30 o'clock, Thursday night, at the corner of Brock and Ontario street. He was talking to Devine, when a lady passed. Devine made some complimentary remarks about the lady, and he (Oliver) told him that it was not right for him to say such things about a person, if he could not prove it. He then had a tussle with Devine, after which the latter asked him to go down to the ferry wharf, and fight it out. On the way down, they had another tussle, and they both fell. Witness, after he got up, started to walk up Brock street, when William Pogue, who was close at hand, called out to him, "Look out." Witness looked around, and as he did so, Devine made a strike at him. The blow he believed, was aimed at his head, but placed off and struck his hand, which he had raised to stop the blow. He came near getting the blow in the eye. Blood then came from his wounds, and this was all that occurred, where he reported the case, and with Constable Arniel, went to Dr. Myk's office, where he had his wounds dressed.

When asked, Capt. Oliver several questions, and denied that he had used a knife. "I hit him with my fist," he said.

Capt. Oliver said that previous to the affair, he had been on friendly terms with the prisoner. Oliver told the court that he had $121 on his person, at the time.

Constable Arniel told the court about Oliver coming to the police station, and about his going over to the doctor's office with him.

Constable Mullinger, who made the arrest, was about to be called, but the magistrate said that he had taken sufficient evidence, and he committed him for trial. He pointed out that the case was a most serious one.

Devine walked out Ontario street after the affair, but was soon rounded up by Constable Downey and Mullinger. He had taken refuge in a hotel.

AN "ECHO MEETING"

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS HELD GATHERING

In First Baptist Church—More Conferences to be Held During the Winter—Special Meetings on the 13th and 14th.

A very interesting "Echo Meeting" of the provincial Sunday school association's annual meeting was held in the First Baptist church, last evening. There was a good attendance of Sunday school workers. Alderman F. F. Harrison, who had the honor to be elected president of the provincial Sunday School association, presided. The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. Dowling, and the reading of scripture by D. G. Laidlaw. After speaking briefly of the great interest and helpfulness of the annual meeting at Oshawa, held last week, the chairman called on a number of the delegates who were in attendance to give brief reports of various departments of the work, as presented at the Oshawa meeting.

Mrs. T. F. Harrison gave an interesting report on the "Cradle Roll" and the beginners' department. The "Cradle Roll" is the only infant class in the Sunday school. Miss M. Bell brought a report of interesting points on work in the "Primary Departments." "These Children Like to Hear," "Be Careful of Your Example," Frank Anglin was interested in the "Junior Grade." Here some interesting statistics were brought out. "The world over there is an average of 200 Sunday schools organized every week." "Three million men are connected with the Sunday school work."

Miss Norris dealt with the "Intermediate Department." "The Sunday school should be made the best boys' institution in the world."

Mr. Sproule dealt interestingly with the "Home Department." "It blesses the home, it helps the main school."

Mrs. Sproule brought some of the very choice things from some of the leading addresses, "India, Japan, China, the countries of the eastern world, are alive to the importance of Sunday school work." "Personal work is what counts in the last analysis." "Faithful effort is never a failure."

A large number of questions on Sunday school work were handed in, and were replied to by the president, as given by Dr. MacLachlan, Mr. Greenlee, Dr. E. J. Lake, Mr. Corbett, Mr. McEwen, D. G. Laidlaw, Rev. D. Laing and others; before closing the audience, by a unanimous vote, decided to have four such gatherings during the winter season, as the benefits of these discussions were appreciated by everyone present. It has also been arranged to bring Dr. McElfresh, teacher training secretary, of Chicago, and Rev. E. W. Halpeny, field secretary, for Ontario, here on the 13th and 14th.

THE TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

Valuable Addresses Given at Annual Convention.

The annual convention of the Teachers' Institute, opened, in Central school, on Friday morning, the president, Miss Lovick, being in the chair. The first paper read was one by Prof. J. F. Macdonald, of Queen's University, on "The Teaching of Literature." Dr. A. W. Richardson, chairman of the Kingston Board of Education, gave the teachers a talk on "Some Ideas About Our Educational System." The next twenty minutes of the session was devoted to music, the contributors being Misses Gannan, Crowley, Bureau and Anderson. "Some Common Objects for Nature Study Work" was the subject of a paper by Prof. S. B. McCready, Gaelic.

At this afternoon's session, Inspector F. R. Stuart, spoke on "Geography"; the committee on art gave a report, and Prof. S. B. McCready gave an illustrated talk at Queen's University on "School Gardening."

This evening, Prof. J. L. Morrison is to lecture on "Political Humors of the Eighteenth Century." Tomorrow morning, Prof. Sinclair Laird, of the Faculty of Education at Queen's, is to speak to the teachers on "Medical Inspection of School Children and Its Educational Aspects."

Y.M.C.A. AUXILIARY EVENT.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y.M.C.A. held its sale and tea at the building, Thursday afternoon, and a very successful time, socially and financially, was the result. The rooms and hall were tastefully decorated with red, white and blue bunting, and everything looked bright and pleasant to those who came in out of the cold, raw atmosphere. The same table was loaded with all sorts of dainty eatables, and was presided over by Mrs. R. H. Toye and Mrs. George Cliff, who were ably assisted by Mrs. Reid, Mrs. Baiden, Mrs. Seals, Mrs. William Gill, Mrs. Boyes and Miss Spankie. The work table had a beautiful assortment of fancy work, and was under the supervision of Mrs. Bogart and Mrs. Warwick, assisted by Mrs. Sutherland, Mrs. George Nicol, Mrs. A. Lyons, Mrs. S. Bailey, Mrs. John Wright and Mrs. F. Clark. Mrs. F. F. Harrison superintended the tea table. Mrs. W. T. Minnes and Mrs. R. J. McKelvey poured tea. Their assistants were Mrs. Hobart Dyde, Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. E. P. Jenkins and Mrs. D. G. Laidlaw. The ladies are a little disappointed at the proceeds, which amounted to $67, as they wish to see the directors as much as possible in their project of excavating to make room for the junior department, yet they are very grateful to those who responded so willingly to their call for aid.

The Boy Scouts went on a trip out into the country to-day. They left the building during the forenoon and prepared their own dinner out there. Signalling, scouting and shooting were some of the sports which they went through with.

Rubbers, mackinaw socks, etc., less than elsewhere, just arrived. Dutton's Shoe Store, 209 Princess street. "Fresh Marshmallows," Gibson's.

CELEBRATED HIS ARRIVAL.

But Magistrate Good Enough to Give Him Chance.

A middle-aged man, hailing from Nova Scotia, with a name which recalls to mind two great Canadian statesmen, arrived in the city, on Thursday, to take a position. He celebrated his arrival too freely, that is, he indulged too freely in strong drink, and the police had to take him to the cells. In police court, to-day, when the magistrate asked him how it all happened, he could not say. He guessed he had taken too much. The magistrate told him that it was a very bad way for him to celebrate his arrival in Kingston, however, as he had never been before the court before, he would give him a chance.

WORKED AT THE FIRE.

Kingstonians Could Not Keep Away From Gannaque.

It is wonderful, the power a fire has over some people. There were a couple of young Kingstonians who heard the call for help, at Gannaque, yesterday, and, although they were busy at their bench at a local factory at the time, they dropped their tools, boarded the train for Gannaque, and it is stated that they worked like Trojans until the fire was extinguished. When a fire breaks out, there are some people who simply can't keep away from the scene. These two men came under this class. The suggestion has been made, that they be given a place on the local fire department.
