$3.50 Recipe Cures Weak Men --- Free

Send Name and Address Today— You Can Have It Free and Be Strong and Vigorous.

I have in my possession a prescription for nervous debility, lack of vitality, weakness, falling memory and lame back, brought on by excessive smoking, and the loss of the 70s of youth, that has cured so many men and women who are right in their own houses—without any additional help or medicine—that I think every man who wishes to regain his manly power and vitality, quickly and quietly, should have a copy. So, he is returned to send a copy of the prescription free of charge. It is a plain, ordinary medical receipt to any man who will write me for it.

These prescriptions come from a physician who has made a special study of men and I am convinced it is the most-acting combination for the cure of deficient assimilation and nervous failure, or put together.

I think I owe it to my fellow men to send them a copy in confidence so that they may know that I have in my possession a prescription for nervous debility, lack of vitality, weakness, falling memory and lame back, brought on by excessive smoking, and the loss of the 70s of youth, that has cured so many men and women who are right in their own houses—without any additional help or medicine—that I think every man who wishes to regain his manly power and vitality, quickly and quietly, should have a copy. MEDICAL INSPECTION OF SCHOOL CHILDREN

Urged by Prof. Sinclair Laird, of Queen's Faculty of Education—Address to the Teachers' Institute.

The Kingston Teachers' Institute was, this morning, addressed by Prof. Sinclair Laird, of the faculty of education, of Queen's university, who spoke on the important subject of "Medical Inspection of School Children; Its Educational Aspects." Prof. Laird said that this question is one that needs to be ventilated. He pointed out that the two reasons for introducing school doctors are humanitarian considerations and the fact that medical supervision follows logically on the state assumption of school control. Children must attend school, so the state is responsible for their physical welfare and protection from injury during school life. This responsibility includes the surroundings and the influence of school life on mental and physical health.

The movement for medical inspection has had its evolution. All agree that school buildings should be hygienic and properly fitted. Further, some unit scholars are exempted from work, e.g., weak-minded, or those with weak hearts are kept from gymnastics. Greater differentiation of normal and abnormal is required to progress and retardation. Four investigations into causes of such inefficiency: five, special schools or classes for defectives; six, backwardness is found to be due to remediable defects.

Communities are now anxious to find out these preventable or remediable defects and find a cure. All sane-minded people agree that medical inspection and supervision is an excellent thing for schools, and the excellent thing for schools, and the excellent thing for schools, and the excellent thing for schools.

ROAD RACE CIRCLES LIGHTING IS POOR OUTLOOK BRIGHTER

KERR, OF QUEEN'S, IS IN THE LIMELIGHT.

The Critics Do Not Think he Can Beat Ex-Cadet Watts' Five-Mile Record—Gunner Bihodeau Still Under Suspension.

Road race critics think that the statement which was made to the effect that Kerr, the Queen's runner, can go five miles in twenty-eight minutes, needs to be taken with a pinch of salt. When one stops to consider this is making exceptionally good time. It has the record established by Watts broken by two minutes and twenty-five seconds. Some say that even if Kerr can run the distance in the time stated he could not do it over this course because of the King street hill. When starting from the building at the corner of Princess and Barrie streets there is a slight incline to the turning point at Frontenac street. After turning there the runner has a slight decline all the way down Barrie street, all the way down Barrie to King and down King to Collingwood street. Here a hill is encountered but, after gaining the top, the road is level to the Bath Road and down to the building. If Kerr can do the five miles in the time stated with good roads he should be able to accomplish the distance here in the same time. He is a busy man and runs at a good pace all the time. Authorities say he can do a great deal better than on Thanksgiving Day. He was not in training then as the race does not come off until the 19th. He will have ample time to get in shape. The sporting fraternity are anxiously awaiting to see him smash all records on the day named. Adams, the speedy Y.M.C.A. runner, will have to look to his laurels else he will have them wrested from him. He says he was not running his hardest on Monday.

Suspended for Two Years.

G. Bihodeau, the R.C.E.A. runner, says the C.A.A.U. had no right to suspend him for running against Longboat the time he ran here. Longboat received his first professional money for running here. Till he came here he had not received one cent for his services. When Bihodeau was asked to run against him he consented. Longboat was an amateur when he entered the race and was still an amateur when he left the ring as he had not touched one cent of the gate receipts. As soon as the race was over Bihodeau was asked to run against a professional and he will have gone against a card from the secretary of the C.A.A.U. saying that he was suspended for a period of two years. He said if he had known that Longboat would not have gone against him. When he entered for the five mile city championship on Monday he was told that he would have to run under protest as he had been suspended by the union. He consented to run under those conditions.

Benefit for Nurses' Home.

A benefit for the Nurses' Home of the general hospital will be given at the Bijou on Monday and Tuesday. Special pictures of a high-class nature have been asked for, and a good programme may be depended on. Frank Klein, the new baritone, will be heard in illustrated songs. The house will be in charge for the two days of the ladies of the Alumni Association, who will act as door-keepers, ticket sellers and ushers. A large number of tickets have already been disposed, and large crowds are assured. All those who are able to do so should see the show in the afternoon, in order to avoid the evening crowds. The object of the benefit is a most worthy one, and Kingetonians should patronize it freely, remembering that while they are amusing themselves they are helping on a great work. The price will remain the same—five cents.

Court of Revision.

The court of revision made these changes in the Catorquid ward assessment: Hebrew congregation, $300 off; land of tenant (church exempt); Dr. Corrigan estate, $200 off; National Drug Co., business tax off; A. V. Matthews, $100 off; T. McLaughlin, dog tax off; Ann J. Rankin, $350 off; M. Sullivan, $200 off.

In the four wards, from which appeals have been heard, the board has not reduced the assessment by more than $5,000, which speaks well for the good work of Assessor Gordon.

Templars Open Season.

The Hope of Kingston lodge, No. 379, of I.O.G.T., held a public session on Thursday. The programme for the evening was: Pianoforte selection, Mrs. Jones; song, Mr. Jones; duet, Messrs. Norman and Morgan. The remainder of the time was spent in games. Next week, Mr. Norman, G.S.J.W., will give a reception to members and friends.

Y.M.C.A. Song Service.

The song service which is being held at the Y.M.C.A. on Sunday evenings after church, has become quite a popular thing amongst the young men of the city. To-morrow, Prof. Manning will sing for those present. This is a rare treat for the young fellows, and there will no doubt be a very large turnout to spend a profitable half hour. The service is at 8:30. All strangers welcome.

Rebuilding May Begin at Once, and Business Resumed in a Couple of Months — Insurance Settlement Awaited.

Gananoque, Nov. 5.—The excitement caused about town on Thursday by the serious loss to the town by fire of one of its principal industries, and the element of uncertainty regarding the future, has gradually subsided, and, although the loss is estimated by some as low as $50,000, by others it reaches $175,000, possibly by taking the average of the two, a fair approximate may be arrived at. The outlook at present is not so bad as it appeared on Thursday, and, although the appraisers for the adjustment of the losses sustained by the fifteen or twenty insurance companies against whom the company holds policies, are expected to-morrow, to arrive at a fair adjustment, it may not be satisfactorily arranged until a later date.

The walls of the main building are in fair shape, and can be used again, with a small amount of repairing, and the lower flat in which was expected to contain the principal machinery of the plant, is not seriously injured, as the fire entered from the kiln, through the roof of the main building, working downward instead of up. And the item which has tended to relieve the tension of the employees of the company is that it has been decided that if the appraisers finish their work to-day, the men will be put to work, Monday morning, clearing up the debris ready for rebuilding at once. By some it is considered that the work can be rushed to completion by the end of the year and that the company will be ready for business early in 1911.

Mrs. Barron, a well-known resident of King street, had the misfortune to fall through an open trap door into the cellar and sustained quite serious injury.

The financial statement of Grace Methodist church for the quarter ending October 31st, is a most encouraging one. There is a balance on hand of $305.26.

Probate of the last will and testament of John O'Hearty, late of this town has been granted to Michael and William Lappan, of Lansdowne, executors named in the will.

Lieut. C. E. Long, R.C.A., and Master Gunner Stroud, of Kingston, have been inspecting the guns and equipment of No. 1 Field Battery, this week, finding everything in first-class order.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dorey, River street, opened up their home for a social dance for a goodly number of their young friends last evening. The evening was a very successful one. "Curry," was committed to Brockville jail for thirty days in default of a fine of $25 and costs, registered against him for furnishing liquor to a young man on the "Indian list."

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Stafford, Hamilton, former residents of the town, spent a few days here this week in attendance at the funeral of Mrs. Stafford's father, the late Joseph Steeny. Miss Eleanor Kane, spending a short time in Brockville, has returned home.
