By the decisive score of 24 points to 57 Varsity III, rugby team defeated Kingston Collegiate Institute at Varsity campus, in Toronto, on Saturday morning. The score is not, however, a good indication of the playing, for Varsity had to fight for supremacy at every stage. But the blue-and-white wing line was what decided the game for the Kingston team couldn't cope with it although their tackling was splendid. Up till half-time Varsity appeared in danger, and even the score was against them—3 to 2. The second half, however, was all Varsity. In the they gained three touchdowns in the third quarter in quick succession, and Kingston didn't even gain a rouse. For the Collegiate Institute, McCammon, Reid, Birbeck and McNeil did the best work. The score by quarters was:

RUGBY ON SATURDAY

THREE KINGSTON TEAMS BEATEN BY VARSITY.

Queen's Seniors Victims to the Tune of 25 to 9—The Cadets May Defeat Varsity II on Round—Little Hope for Collegiate.

The three rugby teams that went from Kingston to Toronto were trimmed by the Varsity teams, Queen's, Royal Military College and Kingston Collegiate all went down to defeat. The Varsity victory over Queen's gives the Toronto university the Intercollegiate senior championship for the third year in succession. Royal Military College are eight points behind the Varsity II team, and may win out on the round, the final game taking place here next Saturday. Collegiate are eighteen points behind Varsity III, and it is very doubtful if they can overcome this lead, as the Toronto college juniors are quite a strong team.

Varsity, 25; Queen's, 9.

Queen's went down to defeat before Varsity by 25 to 9 at Rowdale, on Saturday afternoon. The Presbyterians were outplayed in first and third quarters, but made a good finish. Varsity showed better coaching and played with better snap; they were sure in catching balls, and there were 5,000 people in attendance, the game resembling a Canadian final contest. On the result of this game the intercollegiate senior championship depended. Music was furnished by the Grenadier band, and the Varsity Rooters' Club made things very lively.

Varsity, 25; Queen's, 9.

It was Varsity's game all the way through, Queen's never having a look-in. The first quarter ended 8 to 0 in Varsity's favor, the score being made up of two rouses and a try by Kennedy, which was converted. #### Varsity II, 16; R.M.C., 8.

An enthusiastic crowd at Toronto Varsity athletic field, on Saturday morning, saw Varsity II rugby team defeat the Royal Military College in one of the hardest-fought games ever played in Toronto. R.M.C. put up one of the swiftest attacks that Toronto football enthusiasts have seen in some time. The R.M.C. backs were splendid, and time and time again they drove the ball back into Varsity territory in spite of all their opponents' endeavors. In the first quarter, Smith got away with some fine runs for R.M.C., and Stewart also did effective work. Robertson's kicking was a feature of the game all through. Goldie also was in tip-top form, and scored a nice touch-down in the second quarter. Varsity's back division were strong, and Jeff Taylor did some fast playing and tackled splendidly. The outside wings also helped Varsity greatly in getting the lead. At half-time R.M.C. were five points ahead, and Varsity were bit nervous, but they rallied in the third quarter and outlasted the soldiers. Play was about even in the fourth quarter, when Duff Woods made a great run and scored a touch-down, which decided the game beyond a doubt.
