One of his best stories concerns a small race meeting which is held aninally in one of the Midland towns. A number of jockeys and horses had lined up for the start of a steeplechase, but a delay occurred owing to a tall, raw-boned beast obstinately refusing to yield to the importunities of the starter. The patience of that gentleman was pretty well exhausted. Bring up that horse," he shouted "bring him up; or you'll jolly well get into trouble if you don't!" The ider of the stupid animal, a local grocer's carman, yelled back, "I can't Ontario Wheel Company Gets $47,elp it. This here's been a cab horse and he won't move till the door shuts; and there ain't no door." > A Name For Canada. Every person who lives in a largo ty seems to have in his make-up a ittle of that spirit of meanness which likes to impress upon the people from smaller towns that they are very provincial. Canadians have long been accustomed to the tone of superiority which their American cousins assume. When men come from the large cities on the other side of the line, they like to show Torontonians that they are about six months behind the times. Occasionally Canadians are given an opportunity to laugh in their sleeves, for if provincialism means narrowness, then there are many dwellers in the big cities who may be described

During the tourist season, a Torontonian got into conversation with a man from Washington, D.C. They exchanged opinions about a number of things, and the tourist expressed himself as delighted with the sleepy northern country. It was a cool day, and the chilly breeze called to mind something which he thought worth

PASSED IN HISTORY OF COOKES CHURCH.

Strong Appeal for Sunday School

Cooke's church has passed another fourth anniversary, of the opening of the church, and approxitate services were beld, to mark the event. The pastor, Rev. Dr. MacTavish was present, the sermon in the morning being preached by Rev. Dr. Elfresh, of Chicago, and in the evening by Rev. T. W. Neal, of Sydenham street Methodist church. The congregation was very large at both the services. The choir rendered a programme of special music, Mrs. J. Evans, was the

The speaker wished his hearers to think about what they could do in their leisure time, the time they had at their disposal, away from business, to use as they saw fit. A story was told of a man, who started in as a common laborer, on the railroad, and who, in a remarkably short space of time, was general manager of the and the secret of his success was in the fact that he had used his leisure time, to advantage. And there were a good many similar stories which could be told.

Dr. Gordon (Ralph Connor) in discussing the question, had stated, that the Sunday school was looked upon as the last defence. Christianity was not being taught in the home, as i should be, and the opportunity of today, was in the Sunday school.

"If we are to have a Christian na tion," declared the speaker, it all depends upon these schools, for it is the last line of defence. There is a call to day for men who will be leaders- burke men who will work in the Sunday school, and mould the minds of the children, so that we can build up a strong Christian nation."
