EEKS LAW TO CHECK OPERA-

After Use of Surgeon's Knife, Claims Many Such Operations are Entirely Unnecessary.

Denver, Col., Nov. 22.—A bill will be introduced in the next legislature providing that any surgeon who shall perform an operation for appendicitis and, thereafter, be unable to prove that the appendix was in a diseased condition shall be guilty of malpractice and punishable under the penal code.

Our motto is:

NOT HOW CHEAP, BUT HOW GOOD. able under the penal code.
The bill is being fathered by Philip Schuck, jr., and a number of medical practitioners through the state, who hold to the theory that the appendix has a function to per-form in the human body, and that operations for its removal are due in many cases only to the surgeons love of his science and desire for a large Schuch, father of the bill whose mother and wife died following operations which he feels to have been unnecessary, says in regard to the bill: "This is a civilized age, and the time has come when the criminal use of the knife by surgeons must be stopped. I have in my possession a list of cases in all parts Acts of Vaudeville. of Colorado where competent medical authorities have pronounced

"I personally have heard surgeons declare they only performed an admitted at all times for 5c. operation in order to get the fee, sophistically arguing the while that the patient was made more satisfied through the fact of the operation.

Because They Do Not Get Rank They Want. Ottawa, Nov. 22.—The feature of the drawing room given by Earl and Countess Grey in the Senate Chamber, Saturday night, was the refusal of the consuls-general of foreign countries to attend.

The senior consul-general in Can-ada is Colonel J. G. Foster, repre-senting the United States. In Ottawa besides him are representatives of Japan, China, and Belgium. In Montreal there reside the consuls of Germany, France, Holland. Argentine Republic and others. It is said the consuls are offended in that I have received instructions to Sell all of the Household Furniture, etc., all of the Household Furniture, etc., consisting of Fine Upright Piano, Parlor Setts, Side and Centre Tables, Pictures, Lace and other Curtains, Tapestry and other Curtains, Tapestry and other Carpets, Sewing Machine, Chairs, Writing Desks, Rockers, Clocks, Bedroom Setts, Mirrors, Mattresses, Feather Beds, Bedding, Toilet Setts, Dining Table, Dining Chairs, Coal and Wood Stoves, Hat Rack, Crockery and Glassware, Coal oil Stove, Kitchen Sundies.

The House will be offered for Sale at 12 o'clock noon, if not sold before that date. There will be a reserve bid on the property.
