A DECIDED SUCCESS

THE TEA AND SALE HELD ON WEDNESDAY.

At Home of Mrs. Peter Devlin by Ladies' Auxiliary of Hotel Dieu—Funds Secured for New X-Ray—The Ladies in Charge.

The tea and sale, in aid of the X-Ray fund, of the Hotel Dieu hospital, at Mrs. Peter Devlin's, 44 William street, on Wednesday afternoon, was a decided success, despite the inclement weather, which one soon forgot when inside the bright home, where blazing grate fires and numerous meek low candle and gas lights made all seem like fairyland.

The hostess, Mrs. Peter Devlin, and Mrs. Joseph Swift, president of the Ladies' Auxiliary, received at the entrance of the drawing room.

The tea-table was very beautifully arranged, smilax was festooned from the chandelier to the four corners of the polished table, with pretty loopings of yellow satin ribbons. The centre piece was white satin, hand-painted sprays of yellow wild roses. A cut glass bowl, of yellow chrysantheums and asparagus vine, artistically arranged, made a perfect centre floral design.

Mrs. F. J. Quinn, Mrs. Edwin Beaupre, Mrs. Edward Ryan and Mrs. M. A. Metcalf poured tea and coffee. Those assisting in the tea room were Miss J. Brown, Miss Irene Swift, Miss Tom Gallagher, Miss Kathleen Ferguson, Miss Marjorie Metcalf, Miss Kathleen Ryan, Miss Eleanor Quinn, Miss M. E. Shaw, Miss May Bolger.

At the home-made table, Mrs. McGrath, Miss Annie McGrath, Miss O'Shilly, Mrs. Duffy, Mrs. Lovitt, Mrs. Myers and Miss Marie Lovitt, most enthusiastic workers, were found making profitable returns from the sale of their tempting dainties.

The doll table was one of the places of interest. Miss Hunt and Miss Francis Devlin and the noble little workers, Miss Marnie Malen and Miss Marjorie Devlin, did a good business. Miss Lalonde, of Potsdam, N.Y., won a doll on No. 12.

The fancy work table, with Mrs. McCormack, Mrs. Moran and Mrs. Scoworth assisted by Misses Tootsie and Irene McCormack, made good returns.

Miss A. Kane, Miss May Tierney and Miss Agnes Martin were indefatigable in their efforts to secure a bumper house for the Orpheum theatre for tomorrow, Friday, November 25th, afternoon and evening. The Orpheum has been given over to the Ladies' Auxiliary for the above date for the benefit of their X-ray fund.

The handkerchief table was looked after by Miss Ita Martin. This brave little maiden did wonderfully well.

The musicals was a grand success. Those who kindly helped in the good work were Miss Irene Swift, Miss May Tierney, Miss Agnes Martin, Miss Frances Devlin, Mr. Hurley, Mr. Cross, Miss Irene Harris and Miss Phyllis Devlin.

Thomas Roman kindly assisted the ladies in all their efforts to make their venture a success, which it certainly was.

GOING TO LETHBRIDGE.

A Gift for the Retiring House Officer.

Frank J. Hamilton, the retiring house officer of the Y.M.C.A., was waited on by a number of persons, on Wednesday night, at the building, and presented with a purse of gold, a gift from the directors and members of the institution. The presentation was made by Roy Ward, on behalf of the members, who spoke on the good work and faithful service which Mr. Hamilton had rendered the boys, directors, association, and everyone, and regretted very much that Mr. Hamilton had found it necessary to leave the Limestone City.

Mr. Hamilton had an inkling of what was going to take place, but was taken off his guard. He responded in a very neat speech, thanking those interested for their gift, saying that while he was leaving the city, it was not through any fault of the institution or anyone connected with it, but because he had received a better offer where he was going.

Mr. Hamilton was deeply touched by their appreciation of his work and said he would long remember the Kingston Y.M.C.A.

He leaves either Saturday or Monday for his new field of labor at Lethbridge.

WENT ON THE LIST.

And This Gave Him a Chance in Police Court.

Because of the fact that he promised to go on the "prohibited list," a young man, who was up in police court, to-day, for being drunk, was given a chance. His case was adjourned for a week, but if his name is enrolled on Inspector Wright's list by that time, he will not have to come before the court again. The magistrate looked up the records, and he found that the accused had been before the court about two years ago, and informed him that he had been drinking too much. He would give him a chance to go on the list, and thus save a fine. He promised that he would put himself on the list, but he did not appear to take to the proposition very well.

LOOKING FOR AN AGENT

Who is Capable of Doing Children's Aid Work.

The officers of the local branch of the Children's Aid Society are on the lookout for a suitable agent to take up aggressive work in the county. It requires a very live man for the position, a man of the type of a Y.M.C.A. secretary. It is hoped that before the end of the year the right man will be found. The local executive has secured a grant of $150 from the Frontenac county council, and is going to ask the city council for $250, which it should get, in view of the great work it is doing for the city and district.

J. J. Keino has promised the society a government grant of $250 towards the salary of an agent, and what additional money is required will be collected from those interested in the saving of children.

Thought Place Was Affire.

Some manure, used for banking around the cellar windows of M. Nolan's grocery store, on Princess street, began to smolder this morning, and people thought it was on fire. A call was sent to the firemen and they came around and investigated. They dug the banking out and threw it into the road.

No institution in the city offers a kinder welcome to Queen's students than does St. Andrew's church, Wednesday evening the young ladies of the "auld kirk" were at home to three hundred undergraduates of Queen's university. It was a splendid event. The church hall was a galaxy of daintily-gowned women and well-groomed men, who indulged themselves extensively in three delightful hours. An excellent programme was provided to which Miss Ardelle Elder, Mr. Eva and Arthur Craig were generous contributors. Refreshments of a peculiarly pleasing character were served by a number of charming young ladies of the church guild. Prof. W. Grant, of Queen's, acted ably in the capacity of chairman.
