ABERNETHY'S

TO ADDRESS Y.M.C.A. CLASSES.

Boy Scouts to Have Street Parade Tomorrow.

Dr. John Brown, New York, of the physical department of the International Y.M.C.A., arrived in town, yesterday, in connection with the physical work here, but owing to the fact that Mr. Bowron had not arrived from Hamilton, he did not do anything yesterday except look over the building. To-day at four o'clock, he will speak to the junior leaders' corps, and at seven o'clock he will have a conference with the physical committee, while at 7.30 he will speak to the seniors. All seniors are especially requested to be there, as the meeting will not be long. Dr. Brown is full of vitality, an enthusiastic speaker, and has some very interesting things to say to the boys.

The Boy Scouts are requested to appear in uniform at the Y.M.C.A. tomorrow afternoon, when they will march down town and give their yell and do a series of stunts which they have been practicing for some time past under Scoutmaster Law. The Scouts are about seventy strong now, and make a very imposing spectacle when they are marching or giving their yell.
