McKay's Special Persian Lamb Coat

Made from Extra Crown Head Persians, 26 Inches long, made to special measure, the skins on to day's market are worth this price.

VOU may select your skins, 2 any en 1 your wish, and linings Brocades or Skinners'

OUR REPUTATION for Quality, Fit ond Workmanship guarantees YOU satisfaction in every way.

$130

is an eye opener. We can accept orders for only a limited number.

Come and examine. No

149-157 BROCK ST.

Kingston, Ontario

And

White All-Wool Blankets.

Grey All-Wool Blankets.

Union Blankets.

Comforters in Batting, Wool 6 $6, $7.50. and Eiderdown filled.

All fresh new stock.

R. McFAUL. CARPET WAREHOUSE.

...................

-----By All Means

Invest Your Money at Home

No city in the land offers fitable realty investments than Kingston. It is growing steadily, and will continue to grow all through your life-

When you put your money into real estate you want to buy property with which you you can watch the trend of values yourself and judge for ourself if at any time it is dvisable to sell. Property in Kingston will ever be lower than it is now. that will be especially strong another spring. Now is the ime to pick up bargains. We have to-day a choice list o select from.

McCANN,

IROCK, COR, KING STREET. Phone 326 or 631.

obligations to buy.

NOW READY_CATALOG D.

JOHN McKAY

THE FUR HOUSE

MORE DURABLE OR MORE

values in Parlor Fancy Chairs, $5,

DESKS for House or Office, Ou $6.50 styles is unequalled. Buffetts, Sideboards, Hall Racks, Book Cases, Macey or Globe, Wer-nicke styles; Fancy Tables, Parlor and Music Cabinets, etc., all make good presents RUGS, CURTAINS, CARPETS LINOLEUM, OILCLOTH, etc.

T. F. Harrison Co.

ams and Jelli Pineapple Chineks. Victoria Plums. Dawson Plums.

o41-5 Princess Street. Coast caled Oysters. Prompt Delivery.

ook's Cotton Root Co

THURSDAY MORNING.

two cases on the docket.

for advice and directions as to wheth- occurred from the time he left Harter the memoranda constituted a valid ington until he was in the hospital. and legal declaration of trust for the After the evidence of the witness establishment of a home for the poor had been concluded the court adjournal of St. George's cathedral, and if so, to whom said fund should be assigned, or whether fund is not bound by any said trust but is part of the resiadministered accordingly.

synod, in trust, for the poor of St.

King for the synod. The other case was that of James endeavor. Robertson vs. Annie McOuet and Mary

The plaintiff's claim was for a defor a declaration that the said Joh

Charles R. Webster, barrister, King- tice. Mr. McIntyre he said he knew the late John Robertson from 1895 to th time of his death. He got acquainted with him when Mr. Robertson came to his office for legal advice. Robertson lived at Hartington, was the post matter, and also kept a small gro cery. Robertson did an extensive business, and held chattel mortages and notes. Witness first met Robertson on March 1st, 1906. Robertson garding the penalty for a person found guilty of stealing a letter from the MORE SUITABLE, post office. Robertson acted in a peculiar manner. On March 9th he again called to see the 973.94; bonded factory (vinegar), witness, and talked on the same sub- $89.96; other receipts, $26; total, $7, the appearance of the rooms and ject. On this occasion, he was still [589.43.

acting peculiar, much more so than at any other time. On March 12th, Robertson informed witness that a office, at Hartington, and that he (Robertson) had been accused of stealng the letter. Witness was surprised and said that surely they could not find out if there was any evidence matter. On March 14th, witness received a letter from Robertson, in AND. ODD which the old trouble about the let- Trimble, Alfred street.

Robertson thought that he would be placed on trial, and that he thought the case would be heard at Sharbot hawa. Lake. Robertson appeared to be feeling his position very keenly. He had at first thought of leaving Hartingthe proper thing to. do. Robertson said he hated the idea of being arrested. On the day following the receipt of the letter, witness said Rob ertson called him up by phone about the old trouble. Witness then told of Robertson be ing in the general hospital. On March 19th Robertson came to the home of the witness, just at daylight, dressed only with his trousers and shirt. Ronertson said he was going to be arrested, and gave witness a bunch of papers, including mortgages and notes for safe keeping. Later on witness called at the hospital and Robertson was under the impression that he had lost all his money and property. Witness endeavored to comfort him. telling him that he had everything

The question of the will, which was drawn up by the witness, was then taken up by Mr. McIntyre.
"How did you come to make the will?" the witness was asked.

Witness said he did so because hought it would quiet the man's Witness stated further that Roberton wanted to give him (the witness) his property. Witness had heard that etson had a wife, and he asked him, but Robertson denied it. Later, at Lachute, with the result that his wife and son were located. The son wame to Kingston subsequently.

Witness was asked for his opinion as regards the mental condition of Robertson on the day he made the will. He said that he was in about the same condition he had been in, when he

Witness then told about Robertson being removed to the asylum.

Witness said that on one occasion, when he went to the hospital, Robertson asked him for a revolver, saying hat he wanted to settle all his troubles. On this occasion Robertson's condition was very bad.

Witness had been talking to Robertson's request.

ly a resident of Hartington, told of knowing deceased. He was a well educated man, and able to take care of quainted with Robertson, and the latter had once told . him that he had trouble with his mind. About the year

1905, witness noticed that Robertson

his business. Witness was well filed with the court.

OPENED AT COURT HOUSE Matthias Clow, of Kingston, former-

The Evidence Taken in a Hartington Will Case-Order of Judge Over the Estate of Late Miss L.

A sitting of the non-jury assize court, opened at the court house, at ten o'clock, on Thursday morning, before Justice Middleton. These were acted somewhat queer, and that he was not in his usual good health. Robertson, as postmaster, received letters of instructions from the post office department, and these appeared will and testament of Lucretia Anna to prey on his mind. Robertson told Maria Gildersleeve, late of the city of witness that he was to be arrested for Kingston, spinster. Among her ef giving a wrong parcel to the wrong fects were found certain securities to person. The parcel was brought back, amount to $1,500, and a paper mem- but was torn open and on this acoranda, expressing her wish that the count Robertson thought he would money go to establish a fund for the have some trouble. While in the hospoor of St. George's cathedral. Ac pital, Robertson told the witness that companying this was a list of invest- he knew that he would be ruined. Robments of St. George's home. The will ertson mentioned something about a did not refer to such a fund, but the woman and letters. On one occasion, esiduary legatees were willing that Robertson swore, and accused him, the fund should be assigned to the his lawyer, and a woman of having synod of Ontario to be administered, | placed him in an asylum. On another n accordance with Miss Gildersleeve's occasion, Robertson said he did not memoranda and to be called "The remember having talked to witness, in Lucretia Gildersleeve Fund." S. C. McGill and J. B. Walkem, exe Robertson told the witness that he cutors of the will, petitioned the court | did not remember anything which had

Zion Church Bazaar Closed. Yesterday afternoon and evening uary estate of the said testatrix and brought the Zion Presbyterian church An order was made by the judge, di-cessful two days' sale. There was a good crowd all the afternoon and ev-George's cathedral, for payment of programme was given by a number of their house rent, in accordance with people including the Misses Spooner, the directions of the agreement, signed Miss Isabel Bureau, Miss Maude Cannen, Miss Jessie Reid, and Master J. B. Walkem, K.C., appeared on be- Sears, who gave several fine piano of the petitioners, and Francis solos. The ladies of the church are well satisfied with the result of Please Return "Dinny's" Ladder. Manager Brannigan, of the Grand claration that the last will and testa Opera House, is a most accommodament of John Robertson, deceased, da- ting man. He'll loan anything from a ted March 26th, 1906, was invalid, for live dollar note to a step ladder. How-want of testamentary capacity, and ever, he likes his loans to be return-Robertson died intestate. Deceased was the party who borrowed the twelveformerly postmaster at Hartington.

Donald McIntyre appeared for the plaintiff, and J. L. Whiting, K.C., for loan it to another party. Will the holder of the ladder please take no

> First Y.M.C.A. Secretary Here. Frank M. Pratt, of the General Trust ompany, Toronto, who was in the city for a few days, was the original Newsy Paragraphs Picked Up by Re-Y.M.C.A. secretary here, about twenty-five years, when the association had only two rooms down town. He was afterwards secretary of the Central Y.M.C.A., in Toronto for about twenty years, and a short time ago he wen with the General Trust company.

Inland Revenue Collections. Collections at the inland revenue of fice for November: Spirits, 84,947.53; malt, $552; tobacco and cigars, $1,

The local import duties during Noncrease of about $3,200 over the collections during same month of last the concert in Sydenham Street Metho- one son, Cecil, at home beside dist church, this evening, is in the wife city, and is stopping with E. F. PIECES, EASY CHAIRS, covered to ter was again related. In this letter Dr. John Brown, New York, of the floor of the gyneratium of the Y.M.

> Thomas Mills, banker, will be laid much. knee. His house phone in No. 116. Glenburnie, who has been ill for some a purse containing a small sum of Thursday. Although unable to attend money on the market this morning. St. Andrew's dinner, on Wednesday at Last.

All we need now is lots of snow to make ideal weather, and what you need are stylish and durable Furs that willprotectyou from the winter blasts. The mercury is likely down to stay, so buy now and get the full benefit of your Furs. Special value in Fur-Lined Coats for men and women at $50.

Elegant Catalogue on

$1.50 and $1.25 Cloth Books for 50c.

Original $1.50 and $1.25 Editions and Rebounds on sale all week at 50c.

The Barrier, Rex Beach. The Spoilers, Rex. Beach. The Fighting Chance, Robt. W

The Mistress of Brae Farm. Rosa N.

The Old, Old Store, Rosa N. Carey. The Veil, by E. S. Stephens. Half a Chance, Frederic Usham.

My Lady of the South Randall Parrish, The Lantern of Luck, by Hudson

The Flaw in the Sapphire, by Chas. Cardillac, by Robt. Barr.

STREET & SMITH'S LATEST PUBLICATIONS. Latest additions to the following Libraries have been received, including the December pub-

New Medal Library

Bertha M. Clay.

New Magnet Library. Far West.

The Men of the Mountain, S. R.

The Last Voyage of the Donna

The Prisoners of Chance, Randall

The Bronze Bell, Louis Joseph

Nancy Stair, Elinor McCartney Lane.

The Purple Parasol, by Geo. Barr

Diamonds Cut Paste, by A. and E.

Isabel, by Randall Parrish.

Crockett.

Idols, by W. J. Locke.

The College Book Store,

260 PRINCESS STREET.

Phone 919

Pure Rubber Hot Water Bottles

Red Rubber, Slate Rubber, White Rubber, 75c, $1.00. $1.25, $1.75, $2.00, $2.50. Large assortment. Fresh Goods Just Received. Rubber Bulb Syringes and Atomizers, 25c. 40c, 50c, 60c, 75c. $1.00. These Goods are all just fresh from the factory. No old rubber to become hard and useless.

Bags, guaranteed first and exchanged if found faulty.

The Rexall Store

PRINCESS AND BAGOT STS.

INCIDENTS OF THE DAY.

porters on Their Rounds. William Swaine, piano tuner. Orders received at McAuley's. Phone 778. Patrick Corrigan, Lower Bagot street, left, to-day, at noon, for Northern New York. H. Cunningham, piano tuner, 21 King street. Leave orders at Mc-

The group lights which have been installed in the parlors of the Y.M.C. A. have made a vast improvement in give much better light. The first day of Crumley and Johnston's sale was a very busy one and the store was full all day with eager suvers. The firm had an extra sales force on and everybody was rushed as fast as they could go.

John Steven, aged sixty, a resident of Elgin, was placed in the vault there on Sunday last. He passed away, on J. H. Cameron, of Toronto, the no- Friday, suffering from heart trouble. ted entertainer, who is to take part at He leaves one daughter, Myrtle, and

Dr. John Brown, New York, met the boys of the senior class on the physical committee of the Interna- C.A., last night, and put them tional Y.M.C.A., left at noon for Os- through a series of acrobatic performances which the boys enjoyed very up for several days with an injured The condition of William Craig, Market Clerk McCammon picked up days, was somewhat improved on Extra well made chamois vests, $2 evening, he will nevertheless enjoy some of the haggis, thanks to the thoughtfulness of some of his brother

RECORD GRAIN RECEIPTS. Amount Received This Year Was

14,953,418 Bushels. Let passes were issued at the St Lawrence canal office during November for 2,779,729 bushels of grain, 4,221 tons of coal and 40 tons of flour. For the season of 1910, the amount of grain that arrived at this port was 14,953,418 bushels, of which 13,-889,560 bushels was en route to Montreal. Exactly 188 cargoes arrived here through the Welland canal. Tonnage of vessels to Montreal: steam (No. 26), 12,782, tons; barges

(No. 350), 169,715 tons; total (No. 376), 182,497 tons. During the year, 9,650 tons of coal and 445 tons of flour arrived here. The quantity of grain that has arrived here this season constitutes a

NOTHING TO IT.

The Cholera Patient is at Gross have made enquiries at Quesec, Mon-treal and the Soo regarding the story that the main, suffering from cholora on the S.S. Royal Edward, passed as good as T get good vision is causing T through Canada and say there is nothing in it A man with a name ! something similar to the one given is still detained at Grosse Isle.

Frontenac Hockey Executive.

on Friday evening to arrange for the T calling of a meeting af the club some time next week. James T. Sutherland is home to spend the winter, and there is no reason why the Frontenacs championship when "Father Jim" is $200.90 Guessing Contest. Get particulars at Best's,

OUR STOCK has never been as complete in detail as for this Christmas.

Practically everything of an Ornamental and useful nature, pertaining to a jewelry store, is represented here. We are pleased to show these goods and feel confident of your appreciation both of designs and prices.

SMITH BROS., 350 King St.

Jewellers Opticians Issuers of Marriage Licenses

A GREAT ARRAY

Xmas Novelties

Ready for your impection :-

Embroidered Handkerchiefs-121c. and up. Children's Fancy Handkerchiefs, at 5c. and up. Excelda Handkerchiefsat 10c. and up. White Hemstitched

In ladies' and gentlemen's sizes, 5c. each and up.

Fine Hand Embroidered Doylies-Assorted shapes, 59c, each and up. Hand-Emoroidered Pillow Cases-Fine linen, extra nice quality, $2.50 a pair. Sideboard Searfs-Hand-embroidered, neat and serviceable, 95c. and up.

Five O'Clock Covers-Linen, hand-embroidered, $1 Linen Tray Cloths, Scaris, etc .-

at popular prices, 35c. and

Newman & Shaw

THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE.

How Are

T headache and pain over the

COME IN AND CONSULT US. We are prepared to correct all cases of defective vision Frames or Mounts Repaired or replaced. Lenses of all ? kinds duplicated or changed if ?

Fur Setts

IN MINK. ERMINE. HUDSON BAY SABLE.

W. F. Gourdier, For Sale

A beautifully situated House on University Avenue, containing 16 rooms, modern improvements, furnace. Depth of lot, 185 feet Good stable.

Yours for $3,500

Telephone No. 539.

Pin Your Idea

To a Star Your idea of spotlessness, we mean. This laundry will match you-it will bring that visionary whiteness to your very home-in linens, in cottons and in woollens. CLEANNESS. You never saw such clean-"AND STARS?

Kingston Laundry, Cor, Princess and Sydenham

Well, we're the star cleaners