Ottawa, Dec. 6.—Oysters was the subject discussed in the house, yesterday afternoon, but it proved more interesting than many will perhaps suppose. Mr. Warburton, member for Queens, Prince Edward Island, talked of the oyster industry of the maritime provinces; quoted statistics to show that the care was not being taken of it that there should be, and showed that Canada had the finest oyster, perhaps, in the world. He was of the opinion that the proper preservation, care and regulating of the oyster beds of the maritime provinces was a matter that should be left to the Dominion Conservation Commission. "Do not kill the goose that lays the golden egg," advised Mr. Warburton. The not kill the goose that lays the golden egg," advised Mr. Warburton. Then he quoted statistics showing that, whereas last year Canada exported 226,128 gallons of oysters from the United States only 11,306 gallons were produced in Canada. He seemed of the opinion that there was no reason why Canada should not be able to supply sufficient oysters for its own needs, and that they should be regarded more in the light of a necessity than a luxury. The speaker developing oyster fisheries in Japan, France and other countries and showed many directions in which the Canada here of course, dwelling specially an the ones in the maritime provinces, Lately Col.
