DEVOTION TO PET DOG COST
GIRL HER LIFE.

Seeking to Aid Injured Beast She Gets Too Close to Fire and is Fatally Burned.

New York, Dec. 7.—Inattention to her own safety while concerned for the well being of her pet collie dog, cost Miss Ellen F. Francis of East Quogue, L.I., her life, on Tuesday.

The woman brought the animal into the house to entrain a piece of wire from its foot. While intent upon the operation she failed to notice that she had got too close to the open grate fire in the room. Her dress ignited and in an instant she was aflame from head to foot.

Her mother, a invalid, was barely able to raise herself from bed and throw a blanket about the burning girl. But the young woman was so badly burned that her death followed in a few hours.

WEEK OF PRAYER

SPIRITUAL REVIVAL TO BE
CENTRAL THOUGHT

In the Various Addresses to be Delivered in Various Churches From Night to Night.

A meeting of the Evangelical Alliance was held in the Y.M.C.A. building, yesterday afternoon. The following arrangement was made for the annual week of prayer, which will be observed, January 2nd to 6th, 1911. The central thought is to be a spiritual revival:

1.—"What Constitutes a Revival?" Bethel church; speaker, Rev. F. H. Sproule.

2.—"Lessons From Great Revivals," First Baptist church; speaker, Rev. Dr. MacTavish.

3.—"Helps And Hindrances In Revivals," Sydenham Street Methodist church; speaker, Rev. Mr. Marston.

4.—"Personal Work During a Revival," Chalmers church; speaker, Rev. H. B. Whitmore.

5.—"After the Revival—What?" S. Citadel; speaker, Rev. T. W. Neal.

Mr. Ritchie, field secretary of boys' work in connection with the Y.M.C.A., was introduced to the meeting by the president, Rev. Dr. Macgillivray, and spoke briefly but very interestingly on his department of work.

HAS HAD SET BACK.

Third Degree Evidence to be Submitted.

Cambridge, Mass., Dec. 7.—As the trial of Mattie Le Blanc for the murder of Clarence F. Glover was drawing to a close the prosecution won its first important point since the case was taken up, in obtaining permission to have introduced the evidence given by the girl at her examination by the police immediately after her arrest.

This evidence was given in French through the aid of Miss Zella Gallant, a nurse in Waltham at that time, who was brought in by the police to act as interpreter.

Half a dozen witnesses were on the stand yesterday, and their evidence was partially contradictory as compared with what they had testified before other tribunals.

Seymour Glover, a beneficiary under the will of his brother, admitted that he had heard his sister-in-law, Mrs. Glover, express the wish that her husband behave himself. He said he had heard Clarence Glover say he feared someone would "plug" him if he continued going with other women.

Another witness picked up a comb in the laundry where the shooting is said to have taken place, and said that he had seen Mrs. Glover washing it.

HAD A JOLLY TIME.

Science Students at Spread on Tuesday Night.

"It is always fair weather when good fellows get together." Tuesday evening science students, at Queen's, and members of the "Twelve Point Five Club," gathered at the "Hub" hotel and held a banquet, provided by Miss Host-Peter Thompson, who ably looked after the boys. It was a jolly affair, in fact it was voted one of the best ever held in the history of the club. After the spread L. M. Marchand presided at the piano and for a few hours there was a feast of music. Mr. Marchand rendered a number of fine selections and vocal numbers of a high order were given by Messrs. Howard Scott, "Bob" Wilson and Frank McCullough. Mr. Roberts was present to represent year 13 and he delivered an able address. A few well chosen words he expressed his pleasure at having the opportunity of representing his year at this little gathering and touched on a few matters of importance to the members of the club. He well deserved the applause showered upon him.

A special feature of the evening was the presence of "It," who pulled off some "stunts" which made all the boys sit up and take notice. He gave a splendid performance. He gave the best ever given by him in the city. At a seasonable hour the gathering dispersed, all feeling that they had spent a most pleasant evening.

Her Motive a Mystery.

New York, Dec. 7.—Using the corded girdle of a bathrobe as a rope, Mrs. Wabel L. Brown, wife of a New York salesman, residing in Armar Villa Park, an aristocratic section of Yonkers, committed suicide, yesterday, at the home of her mother in Brooklyn by hanging herself to a hook on the bathroom door.
