FINE TEA AND SALE

WAS THAT OF ST. GEORGE'S CHURCH WOMAN'S AID.

Synod Hall Crowded With Buyers Eager for Christmas Bargains—There Were a Good Many Busy Workers.

The Churchwoman's Aid of St. George's cathedral was en vogue, being congratulated, yesterday, on the success of its tea and sale. Synod hall began to fill very early with buyers out for bargains, and from that till six it was crowded. Miss E. Badley took the money at the door and people passed on to have tea and cake, dispensed by Mrs. H. Hubbard, Mrs. T. D. R. Hemming, Mrs. Charles Taylor and Mrs. Bower, their assistants being Miss E. Loucks, Miss E. Pense, Miss M. Jones and Miss M. Taylor.

The table decorations were lovely, it being massed with scarlet and white flowers and rich with silver. At the work table, where Mrs. John Carson was convener, all sorts of pretty things were sold by Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. J. Twigg, Mrs. B. Watson, Mrs. Seels, Mrs. E. Rees, Miss A. Muckleston, and Miss L. Norton-Taylor. A group of useful and fetching things in charge of Mrs. A. Klugh and Mrs. B. J. Gardiner, and sweets were sold by Mrs. D. D. Young and Mrs. R. E. Kent.

Across the hall the vendors of home-made things had a very attractive table for a short time but it was quickly shorn of all its beauty and those in charge, Mrs. D. Stewart Robertson, Mrs. J. Hamilton and Miss Lenore Hamilton had nothing but a well-filled cash box left.

Mrs. D. Norton-Taylor, the president, welcomed all who came, and among the gathering there was one who brought great pleasure by her presence—Mrs. J. Waldron, who has been so much missed from all the cathedral gatherings during the months in which illness has kept her in the house. The day's receipts ran well over $200.

INCIDENTS OF THE DAY.

News Paragraphs Picked Up by Reporters on Their Rounds.

Evergreen, at Gilbert's store, Imperial Brand underwear makes a splendid Christmas present.

Snappy weather! Three inches of snow would give good sleighing. Duer's English strawberry jam, 35c. a large pot, 3 for $1, at Gilbert's.

William Swaine, piano tuner, orders received at McAuley's, Prince's. Big fur sale at John McKay's next week. Read particulars in Saturday's Whig.

Be sure and come to the opening of the popular Palace rink Saturday afternoon.

Two drunks, and two men in for protection formed the roll at the police station, last night.

Fancy California naval oranges, seedless and juicy, at The Fruit Exchange, 68, Brock street.

H. Cunningham, piano tuner, 21 King street. Leave orders at McAuley's bookstore.

Come and hear W. M. Donaldson, baritone soloist, at Wonderland theatre, to-night.

A shaving set from Best's would put him in a happy mood that would not soon pass away.

Every comfort is supplied for strollers at the Palace rink, which opens Saturday afternoon.

Good cooking, eating apples by the peck, bushel or barrel at The Fruit Exchange, 68 Brock street.

William Craig, Glenburnie, is still quite seriously ill, and his condition does not show much improvement.

To-morrow's Whig will give full particulars concerning John McKay's big fur sale. Watch for it.

Imperial Brand underwear can be bought from all the leading gent's' outfitters and dry goods stores.

Warden Thompson wants to have a high school at Sharbot Lake. It would be a great advantage to the back parts of Frontenac.

Come and hear W. M. Donaldson, baritone soloist, at Wonderland theatre, to-night.

R.M.C. cigarettes at Gibson's.

The Belleville Intelligencer, speaking of the Kingston mayorally, says: "No doubt McKay's fur will fly when he gets after C.J."

The makers of Imperial Brand underwear pay out $70,000 yearly in wages, which goes back into the hands of the Kingston merchants.

The McGill University vaudeville troupe are planning a first-class show and indications point to the possibility of a trip to Kingston.

MEETING OF BOY SCOUTS.

Was Held in St. George's Hall on Thursday Evening.

On Thursday evening, there was a meeting in St. George's hall, of the boy scouts of the city, representing St. George's, the Y.M.C.A., and Sydenham Street Methodist church. The meeting was called for the purpose of taking up the question of forming a council to govern the needs and management of affairs. Roy Ward was appointed acting secretary, and was instructed to correspond with the scout masters in the different cities and towns in this district. Another meeting will be held later on, when it is likely that this council will be formed. Information will be secured as to the rights and privileges of the scouts.

The boy scouts of Sydenham street church organized about six weeks ago and are meeting with great success. They have twenty-five on the roll.

The Emerald City of Oz.

Mr. Baum is the most inventive writer of fairy tales in all the world to-day. The "Oz" stories seem with favorites new and old, for children miss any old character and immediately demand reinstatement, so, after long experience, Mr. Baum brought along the old and created new ones for each succeeding book until now "The Emerald City of Oz" assembles more characters than possibly any other children's book contains. This is the most beautiful of all. It glitters and gleams with wonderfully coloured pictures, by John R. Neill. For sale by R. Uglow & Co. Price, $1.25 per copy.

Millinery at Half Price.

The brand new stock of George Mills & Co., will be placed on sale in their ladies ready-to-wear store, on Princess street, at eight o'clock, Saturday morning at exactly half price. The stock contains many choice patterns hats, exquisitely trimmed and representative of the best creations of the millinery art. This is Messrs. Mills & Co's first season in millinery and rather than carry over a solitary hat they are holding this sacrifice sale. It will mean money saved for the fortunate purchasers, but a big loss to the firm.

More Trouble in Portsmouth.

When the snow makes the sidewalks nice and slippery, the boys cannot resist the temptation to coast down the citizens' pathway and some of the village lads of Hatter's Bay have been summoned to appear before Magistrate Hunter, Saturday evening, in the village hall at Portsmouth, to answer charges of mischief. The affair is causing quite a lot of excitement in view of the fact that quite a number are implicated.

On "Prohibited List."

Inspector C. W. Wright, to-day, added three more names to the "prohibited list." One of the men goes on the list for the third time. Evidently it has been found that the list was of some service to him. There are some who claim that the list works out well, and there are others who say that it does more harm, but at any rate, there are a great many who have served several terms.

14th Regt. Christmas Souvenir.

The historical booklet of the 14th regiment, of Kingston, makes a Christmas souvenir that would be appreciated by former members and friends of the regiment who are living elsewhere. The publishers have 200 copies on hand and offer them for sale at ten cents each. The booklet may be had at the Whig office business counter and McAuley's bookstore.

Tribute to Liberal Rule.

Every well informed person knows that in the last few years Ontario farmers have prospered abundantly. The exodus of twenty years back is memory. Farm mortgages accumulated in the early days have been paid off freely, and there has been a great increase in the comforts and even in the luxuries enjoyed throughout the average farming community.

Did You Hear The Fire Bell To-day?

It strikes terror to the heart, especially of the man who is uninsured, or not adequately protected.

Too often it is the knell of ruin, blighted hope, crushed ambition.

Such a little thing will start a fire, and this is the season of greatest danger.

To no other individual does the saying "ponny wise and pouped foolish" better apply than to the man who runs constant risk of being burned out just to save the few dollars it costs annually for protection.

Come in and talk insurance. Any kind, all kinds. We believe we can interest you.

HELD A BANQUET.
Limestone Lodge, A.O.U.W., Had a Fine Time.

A fine affair, was the banquet held at the Hub hotel, Thursday evening, by the members of Limestone lodge, No. 91, A.O.U.W. Forty members were in attendance, and the lodge had as its guest of honor, Robert Longmore, D.D.G.M., of Camden East. William Pillar, master workman of the lodge, occupied the chair, and ably carried out the duties of toast master.

After the king had been toasted, the toast to "The Grand Lodge" was proposed, and responded to by Mr. Longmore, and Col. J. Massey.

"Sister Lodges" brought a reply from W. D. Graves, master workman of Kingston lodge.

T. D. Minnes, Dr. R. E. Sparks, Sergt. Robert Newbitt, William Murray and R. Greer replied to the toast of "Visiting Members."

During the evening songs were rendered by Mayor Couper and Col. Massey.
