Told in Twilight

A most enjoyable tea was given on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Colin Macpherson, University Avenue. The hostess received in a pretty gown of blue tulle, veiled in white dotted chiffon, with broad bands of Persian trimming. The drawing room was beautifully decorated with a profusion of pink roses, and the dining room which looked lovely, was done with quantities of dark red roses. In the centre of the polished mahogany tea table, a huge cut glass bowl, filled with crimson roses, rested on a handsome lace centre piece, and the whole effect was most artistic. Mrs. Hugh Macpherson poured tea, Mrs. Charles Livingston served coffee, Mrs. James B. McLeod served the ice-cream; and they were assisted by Miss Myra Dyde, Miss Florence Elliott, Miss Helen Aglow, Miss Irene Williams, Miss Milly Henderson and Miss Florrie Stewart. Mrs. W. R. Sills was in charge of the tea room. Mrs. Macpherson presented each of her assistants with a bunch of lovely roses. The guests included Mrs. W. S. Ellis, Mrs. John Macgillivray, Mrs. E. Steacy, Mrs. Robert McKelvey, Mrs. W. L. Jordan, Mrs. J. C. Elliott, Mrs. W. Gill, Mrs. Hare, Mrs. David Murray, Mrs. John Nicolle, Mrs. David Laidlaw, Mrs. Lawrence Lockett, Mrs. Herbert Robertson, Mrs. W. Gordon Mylks, Mrs. Arthur Ellis, Mrs. W. Renton, Mrs. W. C. Baker, Mrs. George Mahood, Mrs. E. E. Sparks, Mrs. Ernest Sparks, Mrs. James Third, Mrs. James Minnes, Mrs. Olive Chown, Mrs. J. Boyd, Mrs. Thomas Mills, Mrs. T. G. Smith, Mrs. R. Uglow, Mrs. Hobart Dyde, Mrs. James Henderson, Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. George Cliff, Mrs. J. Massie, Miss Edith Massie, Miss Spangenberg, Miss Eleanor Macdonnell, Mrs. George Young, Miss Edith Young, Miss Mammie Anglin and Misses Sarah and Agnes Gibson.

QUEEN'S CONVERSAZIONE.

In Grant Hall Friday Evening a Grand Event.

The conversation, given by Queen's Alma Mater Society, in Grant hall, Friday night, was an unqualified success. The Grand Opera House orchestra excelled itself and was generous, indeed, with encores. The programme, which was given in the large English room, was unusually good. Miss Hope Morgan, of Toronto, and Prof. Manning, of Queen's, each gave several vocal selections, which were enjoyed and thoroughly appreciated by their audience. Miss Christine Cochrane delighted everyone with her violin solo. Several of the class rooms were artistically decorated with palms and evergreens, and the red room, with its cheerful fire, was a very popular place. Refreshments were served in the reading room in the arts building. The patronesses were Mrs. John Watson, Mrs. James Caddon, Mrs. E. F. Scott, Mrs. W. I. Goodwin, Mrs. F. E. Wilhoft, Mrs. W. S. Ellis, Mrs. G. W. Mylks, Mrs. J. W. Campbell and Mrs. Robert Laird.

Passed Examinations.

The list of those passing the civil service examinations are out. They include:

Classification in sub-division B., of the second division of the civil service: Allan B. Haffner, Kingston.

Sub-division B., of the third division of the civil service: William G. Hallett, Kingston.

Salvation Army Work.

Complaint has been made in some quarters about the convicts released from the penitentiary, not having overcoat. Capt. Turner, of the Salvation Army, meets with all the convicts as they leave, and makes arrangements for army officers to look after the men, wherever they may locate, and he says that he would be very glad to receive overcoats and other garments which citizens would like to give to help these poor unfortunate. The captain would also like very much to receive clothing suitable for children, for distribution. Donations could be sent to the citadel.

Placed Under Arrest.

Constables Arnie and Mullinger, to-day, placed under arrest a middle-aged woman named Mrs. Greer, who will be charged with using her daughter for immoral purposes. The warrant for her arrest was taken out the latter part of July, but Mrs. Greer left the city.

The Crescent Yacht Club, of Water- town, N.Y., has challenged the Royal Canadian Yacht Club, Toronto, for the George cup. A Watertown syndicate is arranging to build a new boat to succeed the Crescent. The Crescent has been bought in by Mr. Moore, a member of the club.
