But Horsey Came to Pen. for Two Years.

Deputy Sheriff Benjamin Watterworth, was in the city, on Thursday, from London, with Frank Horsey, a burglar, who was given ten years.

It is stated that the verdict came as a great surprise to the officers, and a disappointment to Horsey. It is alleged that when Horsey was asked if he had anything to say, when he appeared before the judge, that he expressed the opinion that his partner, who he declared brought him from Detroit for the purpose of committing the burglary, should "get as long a term as me."
