INTERCOLLEGIATE HOCKEY MEETING IN MONTREAL.

The schedule drawn up—Frontenac Senators Play Argonauts in Toronto on Jan. 7.—News About Other Hockey Leagues.

A special meeting of the Intercollegiate Hockey Union was held in Laval University on Saturday night, for which the recommendation of the Toronto University Hockey League to the union was the chief subject of discussion.

Ottawa College was admitted to the union and Laval University will form the eastern section of the union while McGill, Queen's and Varsity form the western section.

The University schools of Toronto entered a team in the junior league, which now consists of nine teams. The Ontario Agricultural College also applied for admission, but it was deemed impossible to admit them as Guelph was too far away from Kingston for one of these teams to travel.

Junior hockey is not a success financially as it is now, but is nevertheless worth while, but the Kingston teams could not afford to play in Guelph should Guelph win the western section. There are now five teams in the western section and four in the eastern section of the junior series.

The schedule for this season was arranged as follows:

Senior Series: Section A—Jan. 13th, Toronto at Queen's; Jan. 20th, McGill at Toronto; Jan. 27th, Queen's at McGill; Feb. 3rd, McGill at Queen's; Feb. 10th, Toronto at McGill; Feb. 17th, Queen's at Toronto.

Junior Section B—February 3rd, Laval at Ottawa College; Feb. 17th, Ottawa College at Laval.

Intermediate Series: Group A—Laval at McGill; H. A. winner to be declared by Jan. 27th.

Group B—R.M.C. I vs. Queen's H; a winner to be declared by Jan. 27th.

Group C—Toronto H, McMaster, and Trinity; a winner to be declared by Feb. 15th.

Group D—Winners of groups A and B to play home-and-home games before Feb. 15th.

Junior Series: Group A—St. Andrew's, T.C.S. (Port Hope), Toronto H, University College of Toronto; a winner to be declared before Feb. 15th.

Group B—R.M.C. H, K.C.I., Regiopolis College, Queen's H; a winner to be declared before Feb. 15th.

The winners of the two groups to play home-and-home games, the first to be played in Toronto.

Juvenile Hockey League.

It is desired by the executive of the juvenile hockey league that all those who are interested in the welfare of the league will be at the meeting to be held in the Y.M.C.A. building on Tuesday evening as they desire to get things moving as soon as possible. It is probable that the first league game will be played about Dec. 1st.

Y.M.C.A. Hockey League.

There has not been anything done as yet toward the formation of a Y.M.C.A. hockey league, which was talked of some time ago, but those who are connected with it will get together some time this week for the purpose of getting things in working order. The Y.M.C.A. boys are delighted with the proposition and will do their best to make the league a success.

Senior O.H.A. Schedule.

The senior O.H.A. schedule has been drawn up, and the Frontenacs play their first game in Toronto on January 7th, with the Argonauts. The games in group I are:

Jan. 12—Varsity at Frontenacs.

The games will not be started until after New Year's as the gymnasium floor is occupied at the present time by the city league, and the Y.M.C.A. leagues. These leagues will be wound up by the last of this month.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

"The Wolf" was the attraction of Saturday.

"The Wolf" was the attraction at the Grand on Saturday, matinee and night. The play was seen here last season and on that occasion was well received. It tells a story of the Canadian Hudson Bay country and is very interesting.

The leading roles were in able hands and the play was well staged. Edward Sloman appeared in the role of Jules Beaubien, a young French-Canadian and hero of the play, and Miss Nellie Cave, a Hilda McAvish, the daughter of an Irishman, and Harry Briscoe, the stern Scotchman. Harry Briscoe undertook the role of Andrew McAvish. The minor parts were ably taken.

STRENGTH OF CHURCH

IS MEASURED BY ITS DEVOTION TO GOD.

Rev. Talman Pitcher Makes Strong Appeal to Young People for Ser. vice—Sermon at Queen Street Methodist Church.

"Finally, my brethren, in strong in the Lord, in the power of his might,"—Ephesians, VI chapter, 10th verse.

The above text formed the basis for a forceful sermon, preached in Queen street Methodist church, on Sunday evening, by Rev. Talman Pitcher, of Ganongue, chairman of the Kingston district.

In his opening remarks, the preacher pointed out that physically we were no stronger than our forefathers were, but yet we were stronger, and could accomplish much more. The men of today, could not run any faster than the men of a hundred years ago, but yet we could travel from Halifax to Vancouver, in a few days, and with very little fatigue. All this had been accomplished by the powers outside of ourselves, but at our command. We have been studying the laws of great forces around us. By the use of gunpowder, we had added to our power. Reference was made to the great power of the sun, the moon, the stars, the power of the great power of all that of God, and made a strong appeal for all to put their trust in Him, to allow Him to take them by the hand, and lead them.

"How strong is the church to-day?" asked the speaker. You may say that a certain church is very strong—that it has great wealth, that it has a great congregation, that it has a very large Sunday school and the largest number of young people, and that the people dress handsomely. But let me tell you, that church is weak. To be a strong church, it must be strong in the faith. That is the strength of a church. It is the spiritual life which makes a church strong—devotion is what counts. Give me a church devoted to God.

"I take off my hat, every time, to the old Christians. They laid the foundation, and made all the sacrifices. The young people of to-day do not know what it means to offer a sacrifice—to toil and give their time to the service of God. There is a great deal of sin and wrong in the world. There are enough young people in this church to-night, to make this city a power for good."

Mrs. Evans and Mr. Shea rendered a fine duet, at the evening service.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

The Rights of the Front Townships Set Forth.

Kingston, Dec. 19.—(To the Editor): In your issue of Saturday, a letter, signed by J. H. S., of Harrowsmith, appeared in regard to the county high school question. The writer speaks of putting a debt upon the county by giving a grant to the Kingston Collegiate Institute. Well, who will pay for the bulk of this suggested grant? Why the people of the front townships who are petitioning the county council to make an arrangement with the city institute to take county children. The townships of Kingston, Pittsburg, Wolfe Island, Howe Island and the village of Portmouth, which are interested, pay over two-thirds of the county taxes, so there is no need of Harrowsmith or Sydenham getting saucy. It is noticeable that the only kick comes from the Harrowsmith-Sydenham vicinity, which is very much interested in the Sydenham high school. As for the statement that the latter school is doing better work than the city institute, I need only to point out that at the meeting of county ratepayers about six weeks ago, nearly every one of them arose and stated that they simply would not send their children to the Sydenham school. Two declared that they would not do so if free tuition and board were thrown in. So there you are.—COUNTY RATEPAYER.

IN MARINE CIRCLES

VESSELS COULD NOT MAKE TRIP TO JOHN SHARPLES.

Ice Formed in the Harbor, But the Change in Weather Has Caused It to Disappear—Saw Big Boat Launched.

The steamer Navajo and the steamer Hinchley, which left on Saturday morning, for the scene of the wreck of the steamer John Sharples, had to return to the city, after going out a short distance, as they found that the weather was unfavorable for the work. The steamer Hinchley, shortly after arriving in port, cleared for Oswego.

There was quite a lot of ice in the harbor, up to Sunday, and marine men were saying, to-day, that if the weather had remained cold, people would have been able to drive over to Wolfe Island to-day. But, then, the weather man ruled otherwise, and the steamer companies are happy.

H. S. Folger left, on Sunday, on a business trip, to Ogdensburg and Cape Vincent. In Cape Vincent, to-day, the insurance men will hold an investigation, regarding the burning of the steamer Ottawa.

The veteran steamer Pictou, made a record trip, to Cape Vincent, on Saturday, in view of the very disagreeable weather. The steamer arrived here at 1:40 o'clock, and left again at 2:25 o'clock, arriving in Cape Vincent at 4:50 o'clock. This was, indeed, good time for this late season. On the trip over, the Pictou had an extra heavy load of freight. In three hundred cases of binions for Ross Bros, this city.

Conted over with ice, the steamer Glenella arrived in Fort William, on Saturday morning, on her last trip of the season.

Last night's wind storm was a severe one, but gave us some interesting news, as they were all snug in their beds. This is the time of the year the mariners take it easy.
