BISHOP SAID HE HOPED

Young People Will Not Be Confirmed Merely for Form.

Speaking at the confirmation service in St. James' church last evening, on the words, "Abide in Me," taken from St. John xv, 4, the Lord Bishop of Ontario said that Christ wishes us to be happy and holy in all our works for His glorification and He tells us we cannot be so unless we abide in Him. The bishop referred to the fact that a great many people wish for worldly possessions such as riches, honor, position, etc., and in some cases these were granted to them. Occasionally we see those who have made good use of the opportunities which have been thrown across their path, but in a great many instances the coveted positions "when obtained work out the ruin of the possessor. The indwelling of God's holy spirit quiets all fears and enables all those who are possessed of it to face the trials and difficulties of the world without wavering.

In speaking to the candidates for confirmation, who numbered about thirty, Bishop Will said he hoped that they were not seeking to be confirmed because they thought they had reached the age, nor on account of undue pressure on the part of guardians or friends, nor for mere form, but he hoped that they were seeking to give their lives in Christ's keeping and would seek to do His will. He hoped that they would never lose an opportunity of doing good or saying a word for the Master.

THIS IS STARTLER

MRS. EDDY'S MONEY MAY GO TO STATE.

Request to Any Single Massachusetts Church Must Not by Lay Exceed $2,000 Annually.

Boston, Mass., Dec. 9.—An altogether new and unexpected development in the expected contestation of the will of Mrs. Baker Eddy, Eddy may be the reversion to the state of a large part of the more than two millions she willed to the Christian Science church in Boston. This may be brought about, whether the heirs-at-law contest the will or not. Under the revised statutes of the state, the income of the gifts or bequests made to any one church shall never exceed $2,000 a year, and while this provision of the law has never been lived up to, it is pointed out that it can be enforced by a suit brought through the attorney-general. If the state should win, the heirs-at-law of Mrs. Eddy would not benefit as the money in excess of that required to produce the income of $2,000 would revert to the state.

Pittserry Church Event.

Pittserry, Dec. 17.—The Ladies Aid of St. John's Presbyterian church, Pittserry, has just concluded their first bazaar, and met with grand success. They cleared over one hundred dollars. The Ladies Aid purchased a beautiful oil painted picture and presented it to Mrs. Reede as a Christmas gift. There was a fine display of beautiful and useful articles, and a most inviting spread laid out in the dining-room of the manse, which was prettily decorated. The members of the Clover Club looked very pretty in their caps and aprons as they waited on the guests.

Miss B. Stewart has resigned the charge of the school, and intends spending her Christmas vacation at her home in Toronto. Henry Grant has returned to Bow Island after spending the season with his parents.

Miss Clara Grant has gone to spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. A. Whitney, Bow Island, Alta. Miss Agnes Thompson has returned to her home in Deseronto after visiting here.

Miss B. Stewart spent the week-end at Millerton. Mrs. R. McVinch has returned home after spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. McClement. Sr. Mrs. Edward McMaster had a slight stroke of paralysis last Wednesday evening.

Prices Are Lower.

Watertown Times.

Bradstreet gives Christmas encouragement in showing in a statistical way that the cost of living on December 1st was lower than at any previous time this year, lower than December 1st, 1909, quite a considerable lower than it was March 1st, 1907, and very little higher than on December 1st, 1902. Housekeepers, who do the marketing may not be able to realize this, but figures do not lie and it is not to the advantage of Bradstreet to make them lie. The question is, what has become of the money that should have been saved by this decreased cost of living, notwithstanding the most rigid economy has been practised in trying to save it. There is little satisfaction in the figures when it is not apparent in the pocket book.

Mr. McCann was a Roman Catholic in religion and supporter of the conservative party. Four sons and six daughters, as well as his widow, survive.
