

NEW SITE OF SCHOOL

AT CORNER OF DIVISION AND COLBORNE STREETS.

Board of Education Chooses—Decides to Ask City Council for $40,000—Arthur E. Ellis Appointed Architect.

The Board of Education, last evening decided to erect the new public school on the corner of Division and Upper Colborne streets. The city council will be asked to provide $40,000 for the site and the school building. Arthur E. Ellis was appointed architect.

The measurements are as follows: 258 feet on Colborne street, 225 feet on Division street, with from Colborne street back, 204 feet; depth from Division street back, about 250 feet. There are four dwelling houses, a laundry and a shop on the property on Division street. Disposing of the laundry and shop and their sites would leave a frontage on that street of 195 feet, which would be ample for school purposes.

It is estimated that these would bring in $11,000 to $11,100. The four houses could also be sold for a sum estimated at $2,000. Mr. Miller's present price for his property is $6,200; Kenny Bros.' is $3,350; total, $9,550. Deduct from this say $3,000, and sale price for the laundry, shop and houses, and the actual figure for the school site would be $6,550.

There was a lengthy discussion as to the price. Mr. Meek refused to vote to make the purchase at any hold-up price and insisted on expropriation and arbitration proceedings if necessary.

It was pointed out that Mr. Miller was asking only $200 more than he had paid for the property. The board became unanimous as to the location, the trustees all being satisfied that the site recommended was the correct one in order to give the best school service possible. In support of this opinion Mr. Miller was given a vote of 209. Children had to be transferred.

On motion of Trustees Walker and Lambert the property committee's first recommendation was changed to read as follows: "That a new school to meet the overcrowding of the eastern part of the city be erected, and that the site for the purpose shall be that portion of the corner of Colborne and Division streets known as the Miller Kenny property, which be purchased at the lowest possible figure, whether by arbitration or otherwise."

Mr. Meek, Mr. Donaldson and Mr. Bennett held that $40,000 was too much to ask the city council for. Mr. Meek declared that $30,000 was enough and moved that the new school be a duplicate of Frontenac school, with some structural changes and modifications for heating, and that the city council be asked for $30,000 for the building and the site.

The mover said that it cost $17,000 to build Frontenac school and he was satisfied a right school could now be built for under $25,000.

Mr. Bennett said that a great saving could be effected in a building like Frontenac school. He figured that about $6,000 less could have been put up Frontenac school as $3,000 could be saved in the heating system.

Mr. Meek's amendment was lost on a vote of 11 to 3, as only the mover and second and Mr. Donaldson supported it. The recommendation of the committee to ask council for $40,000 was adopted. The majority held that the large amount would be needed as it would cost close to $30,000 to erect the buildings.

It was then decided to appoint an architect, and Arthur E. Ellis received the appointment. A warm discussion took place as to the method of electing an architect, when there were three nominations before the board. The board decided that according to Bourinot the first person named should be voted upon, and if he received a majority vote of the board, he would be elected. If he did not receive a majority, a ballot would be taken on the second man, etc. Several of the trustees objected to this method, and Mr. Meek refused to vote at all. The vote was taken, and the result was that Mr. Ellis received eight votes, which elected him. His election was then ratified, Mr. Donaldson alone voting nay. The latter said he preferred an open ballot, and announced that he would support Newlands & Son.

Architect Ellis will now prepare plans and specifications for the new building, which will be begun in the spring. In attendance were: Dr. A. W. Richardson, F. R. Anglin, E. Bennett, P. R. Chown, James Craig, J. R. Donaldson, Thomas Lambert, W. H. Marnee, R. Meek, H. F. Metcalfe, A. W. Melan, W. J. Fenton, S. Roughton, J. R. Walker and Robert Wallace.

CHALMERS FESTIVAL ON THE LOOKOUT LORD'S DAY ALLIANCE

HELD LAST EVENING WAS MOST ENJOYABLE.

Gifts for the Poor Will be Distributed Saturday—Princess Street Methodist Sunday School Teachers Held a Tea.

Chalmers Sunday school Christmas festival was observed last evening and proved a very joyous occasion. There was a well-laden Christmas tree, and a present for nearly everybody, and at the right moment Santa Claus himself appeared and passed them round. He seemed to know everybody, spoke to them of last year's visit, and asked them to be sure and bring up their stockings. Christmas was the fun was great. Supper was served at six o'clock and the still greater of it, is in one's nostrils. The little people furnished a delightful program—recitations and vocal and instrumental music. Chalmers orchestra made a large contribution to the enjoyment of the evening. Messrs. W. and E. Godwin, Farrell, Byde, Cameron and Stirling, and Miss Goodwin, pianist. A pile of gifts was brought for distribution among poor homes in the city to help the Christmas cheer, and at noon, Saturday, a spanking team and big sleigh will set out on this special mission. With thanks to all who worked so cordially and well for the success of the festival, and the National Anthem, the bright, pleasant event was brought to a close.

Sunday School Teachers' Tea.

An informal supper of the teachers of Princess street Sunday school was held last evening in the lecture room. About twenty-five teachers and officers sat down to beautifully laden tables, at which Miss Emma Wilder, as superintendent, presided. The object of the gathering was to arrange for the new graded system of lesson books to be introduced into the school. Already a teachers' training class has been organized under the leadership of W. G. Anderson, M.A., and now that the graded helps are to be introduced this school may be considered up-to-date in every particular. The attendance at the progressive school is over two hundred.

A HAPPY GATHERING

To Mark the Closing of the Year's Work.

The final meeting of the Pittsburg township council for the year 1910 was held in Barricfield town hall on the 15th. All members were present and after the business of the year had been transacted the genial reeve James Gordon, invited the members and a number of his friends to a rooster supper, which was held at G. Muller's. After the feast, "The King," "Our Country" and "Our Reeve" were proposed and ably responded to. The reeve made the speech of the evening. He outlined his work of the past season and showed how in every particular he had his township's interest at heart and did his utmost for its welfare. After the members of the council for the able assistance they had given him and hoped that, although he was going to make his home in the west and could not be a member of their council again he might be able to do so in the distant future. The councilors, each and every one, expressed his sincere regret at his departure and wished him health and prosperity in his new home. The pleasant evening was brought to a close by the singing of the national anthem. Much praise must be given Mr. Muller for his skill at catering.

THE POSTMEN OVERWHELMED

Ten Boys With Sleighs are Now Assisting Them.

The post office staff is now busy twenty-four hours a day. Postmaster Stewart has arranged for the boys to assist with mail order and parcels. The office space is very limited at this busy season, and, as usual, the postmaster's private room is utilized for parcels which remain until called for, as it is impossible for the carriers to deliver them. The amount of mail received is about twenty per cent. more than a year ago. Three extra clerks are busy inside, and each postman has a boy with a sleigh. The mail delivery on Monday will be extra heavy on account of Sunday intervening. Tomorrow the carriers will be very late in covering their routes.

At the Orpheum Theatre.

Unique and interesting is the act which is produced by Glasgow, the piano player, who lost his finger in an accident about nine years ago. He thought at the time that he would be unable to pursue his favorite calling, but an incident, which was disclosed accidentally by his brother, showed him how he could pursue it with ease. His playing and singing reached the heart of everyone who heard him and was extremely high class all the way through. Rivers and Rochester, the Australian duo, have something new in their performance that appeals to everyone hearing them. Their singing has a ring and charm to it. The pictures were all very entertaining and some of them amusing. Mr. Hirst sang "Simple Dotted Dimple" in a way which received hearty encore from music lovers.

Brownies for the Kiddies.

More kiddies by far want Brownie Camerons than will get them. Parents who can afford to attend at once see these, at Best's and select one for their boy or girl. A two dollar Brownie is worth easily $10 worth of toys to the proud owner.

FOR CANADIANS GUILTY OF SMUGGLING.

Customs Authorities are After Those Who Purchase Christmas Goods in the States—Vigilant Watch to be Kept on the Border Line—Women to Act as Inspectors.

The approach of Christmas always increases the petty thieving, and on this account the Canadian customs officers have become more vigilant than ever in the past, although people who have been able to pass with something worth while had "to go some," to use a slang expression. If you have any idea of going over to the other side and bringing back some fine gift for some of the people at home do not forget that you will run a chance of getting caught. A word to the wise should be sufficient.

According to reports a very close watch is to be kept along the border line in order to stop the smuggling of goods purchased over in Uncle Sam's territory.

The claim has been made in various circles that altogether too many girls have been purchased on the American side and smuggled over to Canada. It is stated that one of the latest importations at one point along the frontier is a woman and it is said that her duty will be to break up the practice of wearing new clothes purchased in the States which, it is said, is frequently done by women living in the border line. Canadian girls will, in the future, have to stand the scrutiny of a woman inspector, and should there be an unnatural hang of the skirt there will be trouble.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

Murray-Mackay Company Gives Good Performances.

Last evening, at the Grand Opera House, a fairly good audience. Mr. Murray-Mackay company presents the comedy drama of "Sherlock Holmes," with all its plots and counter plots, and unravelled the tangled web, surrounded that wonderful detective, who not only recovered the stolen treasure of Aggra, but found a wife. "Sherlock Holmes" was well portrayed by J. M. Donahue. The role of "Mary Morton" was taken by Florence J. Murray in a reputable manner. Valuable assistance was given by Jessie Lyons, Miss Ired Bell, Nellie Shegman, E. Hubbard, H. B. Sherman and Tommy Covich. The specialties were entirely handed from preceding performance and were in every way thoroughly enjoyed. The singing of Charles Smith was fine. Tommy Towle's singing and dancing was greatly admired. Billed Red again sang some of the songs in favor of the "gods," who at her request sang the chorus alone. A whistling song by C. Smith was applauded. The scenery, which was very beautiful, added greatly to the success of the play, while the electrical effects were fine. To-night will be "The Firm." At the beginning on Sunday afternoon, the pretty story of "Jane Eyre" will be the bill.

"San Toy" Christmas Day.

A Montreal exchange has the following about the Lilliputian Opera company, which presents "San Toy," at the Grand, on Christmas Day, Saturday and night. A large audience greeted the Lilliputian Opera Company at the opening performance at the Academy of Music last night, in the attractive opera "San Toy" and their pleasure was not only demonstrated by their hearty applause, but by their persistent demands for encores. The company is composed of children of various ages, and some of them were truly wonderful. The company is a large one. Pearl Carlyle made a distinct success in the title role. White still in her teens, she is larger than the others, and with her attractive appearance, and with a beautiful voice, her magnificent rendition of the various numbers allotted her were enthusiastically applauded. One of the biggest hits of the evening was made by Baby Trace, only four and one-half years old. She entered into the spirit of the performance throughout and her melodious numbers brought forth the loudest applause of the evening. There was a clever competition of Lily and Allan Elster, but it was not splendid as the maid, but it was a clever dancer. Amelia Morton displayed much histrionic ability and Louise Condon was good as the Emperor.

May be Disappointed.

At the rate the fancy dressing cases are going at Best's, some who are waiting off till the last day are going to be disappointed and should make their selection at once.

Fur Neck Pieces.

Could You Use This Money?

Believing that we can save the student from $100 to $250 on the cost of a course in stenography, even though it necessitate going from his own town or city and still give him an education which is fully the equal of any, we offer to pay for up to $10 to the first person enrolling from any municipality. This is done to convince out-of-town persons that 30-day's stenography is really and truly genuine. We can afford to do this. We have enrolled 17 students from Orillia this year although they have their own Pitman College. We have enrolled five from Lindsay, four from Galt, etc., because one satisfied graduate carried home the truth. Write for full particulars. Moon College, 282-283 Yonge street, Toronto.

SECRETARY 'HANNA' MAKES SOME COLLECTIONS.

In regard to the Toronto Meeting—The Alliance Does Not Seek to Interfere With the Privacy of the Home.

Toronto, Dec. 21.—(To the Editor): When a report was circulated some time ago to the effect that the Lord's Day Alliance of Cobalt prevented the delivery of milk to the Red Cross hospital, the newspapers courteously published a correct statement. Will you kindly extend the same courtesy regarding the report of the Toronto meeting. During the year a number of complaints and enquiries came to the office of the Lord's Day Alliance about public activities and social usages that the enquirers believed likely to encroach upon the rest privileges of the Lord's Day.

As has been the custom at national and international Sunday rest meetings a few of the matters about which most frequent enquiry was made were set down as the subject of friendly conference at the Toronto meeting.

The report published did not represent the conference as they should in some cases questions were set down as affirmative statements, in others qualifying sentences were omitted, or fragments of one sentence were attached to another, giving an entirely different meaning.

Such slips may have occurred from the necessity of condensation for lack of space.

For instance in considering public meetings of quasi-religious character the question was asked whether a certain meeting held in a public hall would be included. The answer of several persons was, we do not know, especially, but shall inquire.

Again, in reference to some social usages behind which many public law violators take shelter, the question was asked, simply, what counsel should be given in relation to them. The purpose was not dramatic condemnation, but rather friendly counsel, so in relation to certain gatherings in public places arrangements were made for conferences, not for dictatorial proceedings.

The Lord's Day Alliance regards the same as sacred, and to be strenuously safeguarded from any intrusion. It has not in the past, and does not seek to interfere in any way with the privacy of the home. On the contrary it has been busily engaged in securing the best home privileges for a large number of the 100,000 Seventh Day Adventists who are free to lay-in-the-week toilers now set free to rest on the Lord's Day. It leaves all such questions relating to the privacy of the home, including the sphere of public worship, to the churches, and concerns itself simply with the public observance of the Sunday laws.

It seeks to secure the observance of those in a fair and reasonable way, by non-prosecution, non-conviction rather than litigation in the whole of Canada instituted by the Lord's Day Alliance during the past year—so few, as to be scarcely worth mentioning.

To aid in carrying on the work in his way a conference in Toronto was held, for the purpose of giving kindly counsel which has been so frequently requested from different quarters, and it is a great pity that the press reports fail to make this clear.

I trust that in justice to a public work that secures such good results you will give space to this statement of the case.—Faithfully yours, V. G. HANNA, Secretary Lord's Day Alliance.

MADE A PRESENTATION.

Rev. Father Halligan Remembered by Altar Boys.

The A.O.H. hall, on Brock street, was the scene of a very pleasant gathering, on Thursday evening, when the altar boys of St. Mary's cathedral, with their parents, friends and teachers of St. Mary's school, gathered for a social evening, to which each had a tribute to Rev. Father Halligan for the deep interest he had taken in the boys.

During the evening Father Halligan was made the recipient of a fine fur-lined overcoat from the boys, the subscription for the same having been secured by the ladies of the parish. The relics present included Rev. Fr. Mea, Rev. Fr. McDonald, Rev. Fr. Hanley, Rev. Fr. Meagher and Rev. Fr. Halligan. Rev. Fr. Hanley occupied the chair.

After the meeting had been opened several of the boys contributed solos, which were very much appreciated. Rev. Fr. Hanley followed with an address. Then came the presentation.

Vincent Kane read an address which accompanied the gift and Victor Nicholson handed the fur-lined overcoat to Rev. Father Halligan. The latter was taken very much by surprise, in fact before he was able to reply. He then returned thanks for the kind remembrance in a very able address. Father Halligan has been a warm friend of all the boys and he is beloved by all of them. They took this means of showing their appreciation.

The gathering was brought to a happy close by the singing of the National Anthem.

WAS HERE IN SUMMER.
Fire Chief Horan, of Chicago, Killed in Fire.
Fire Chief Horan, killed in the big fire at Chicago, paid a visit to Kingston, last summer, with a party from Chicago, and spent several days, on a fishing jaunt, in this district. While here he met Chief Armstrong and made an inspection of the department. The members of the department, and others who had the pleasure of meeting him, while he was here, were very sorry to hear of his untimely end.
"He was one of the finest men I ever met," said Chief Armstrong, "and I am very sorry to hear of his death."
The fire was in the Nelson, Morris company packing plant. The firemen battled the flames from beneath a heavy wooden canopy, which collapsed and caused the death of the chief and several of his men.
