FOURTEEN TO FOUR

WAS THE DOSE GIVEN BY THE FRONTENACS

To the Montreal A.A.A. Hockey Team, Junior Champions of Quebec League—Kingston's Team Superior.

Kingston's pride, the junior Frontenacs, opened the hockey season, on Wednesday night, at the Kingston covered rink, in a very auspicious manner by administering defeat to the Montreal A.A.A. seven, junior champions of Quebec. The score was 14 to 4. When the announcement was made that the Frontenacs had accepted the invitation of the Montreal Club to visit Kingston and try conclusions with the Ontario champions, much interest was created, it being probably the first time on record that an interprovincial junior championship contest had been arranged in hockey. That the citizens appreciate the fact that the Frontenacs have by their splendid work and gentlemanly conduct done much to advance advertising the old Limestone city in the right way, was demonstrated when a crowd of fully 1,200 people gathered to cheer the local boys on to victory. And did they cheer? Well, you would have thought so, if you had happened to pass with in a few blocks of the rink last night when "Referee" Elliott blew his whistle at 8.20 o'clock, the following lineups up:

Montreal—Goal, Blumenthal; point Copley; rover, Reed; centre, Eves; rover, Clement; wings, Slater and Peverly.

Frontenacs—Goal, Williams; point David; rover, McAmmon; centre, Hunt; rover, Brouse; wings, Boyer and Millan.

In the second half, Marchand replaced Williams in goal and Somerville was given a try-out on Boyer's wing. The game started with a rush by the Frontenacs on the Montreal goal and for the first few minutes many shots were thrown at Blumenthal, who played like a veteran, and turned them aside. Finally, after about four minutes, Davidson made one of his notable rushes and opened the season with first blood for Frontenacs. "Scotty" had a few minutes previous been again elected by his clubmates as captain of the team, and like a good captain, led the way in the scoring line. Shortly after this, Hunt made a neat rush and a shot which found the net for the second goal. Montreal appeared to be a little bit lost on account of the strange rink, and sticky ice, but fought with a plucky determination that was much admired.

McAmmon, who had been demonstrating that he was in the right company, by playing a dashing game made a splendid rush and added another for Frontenacs. "Bouncer" Brouse was heard to murmur about this time, "Here's where 'Bouncer' shows his class," and after a neat dodging run, the locals again figured in the scoring column.

Montreal was showing some nice class about this time, but had been unable to get one past Williams. Finally, from a corner scrimmage, the puck was centered in Frontenacs' goal, and Montreal entered the scoring list. Boyer, who was playing a hard and useful game, got the next for Frontenacs, and one more was added just before half time, the score standing 6 to 1 in favor of the home team. The first half having been played under O.H.A. rules, the second was played under N.H.A. rules. This half was nearly a repetition of the first. Frontenacs started off at a fast clip and added two goals in a short time. Montreal then got busy and slipped one past Marchand. Frontenacs kept betting the "busy bee" theory work, and added a nice string, which Montreal had two more to their credit, the score standing: Frontenacs, 14; Montreal, 4, at the finish.

For Montreal, the work of Blumenthal, Clements and Eves was very clever, while for the Frontenacs' the centre team worked with a clock-like regularity that pleased the crowd immensely. Williams and Marchand each did well in goal, while Capt. Davidson showed up in his great form of last season and drew many rounds of applause by his fine rushing. McAmmon cover, made a great hit, and has never been seen to better advantage. He is in his right class with the Frontenacs, and the hockey fans say he must certainly remain there. On the forward line, Hunt showed great improvement over last year's form, and played a hard, heady game. Little "Bouncer" Brouse, the best junior "luck checker" in the game, was right up to form, notwithstanding his illness last fall, and played a dandy game. Leo Millan was seen to better advantage in the second half than in the first. His whirlwind rushes, in company with Brouse or Hunt, were very fine. Boyer, on right wing, certainly a comer, and showed much class in a difficult position. Somerville also shows lots of speed, but requires further development. He should improve rapidly in such company. Considering the early date of this game, the class of hockey shown was of a very high order.

Frontenacs may now very justly lay claim to the junior Canadian championship title, which they have won the O.H.A. honors from a field of about forty clubs, and then defeating the Intercollegiate champions in a very decisive manner, and by their performance last night, demonstrated their superiority over the Quebec champions.

Too much praise cannot be given Referee Elliott for the clean and able manner in which he handled the game. He ruled without fear or favor, and his old Kingston friends were pleased with his work.

After the game the Frontenacs entertained their opponents at King's cafe, and a most enjoyable hour was spent. President Hamilton, of the M.A.A.A. Hockey Club, who accompanied the team, in a few well-chosen remarks, congratulated the Frontenacs on their victory. He said in part: "We came to Kingston expecting to show you something in junior hockey, but we are returning sadder but wiser men."

"Chaucer" Elliott also congratulated the local boys. He said he had heard lots about the class shown by Frontenacs last season, but their play last night was a revelation to him. He intimated he would like to have certain Frontenacs players in Montreal, and that he would certainly play them in senior company.

Manager Sutherland was then called upon, and assured the Montreal A.A.A. boys that it had been a pleasure to have such gentlemanly fellows as the guests of the Frontenacs. Winning was not everything. It was as creditable to be a good loser. William Y. Mills also added a few appropriate remarks. The Montreal boys left for home on the midnight train, after voting the Frontenacs the best bunch of good fellows in hockey.

Frontenacs play their first league game in Belleville on Monday next. A large crowd of "fans" will likely accompany the team.

James Sutherland, Jr., the Frontenacs' "lucky kid," was again "on the job" last night. Frontenacs have never lost a game when "the kid" was here.

"Chaucer" intimated that he had a couple of his senior team on the line last night.

WEDNESDAY EVENTS

HELD IN FIVE OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Christmas Entertainments in Princess Street Methodist, St. Andrew's and St. James'—Happy Times Spent by the Young People.

Santa Claus visited the young people at Princess Street Methodist church, Wednesday evening, at the annual Christmas tree entertainment, held in the church. Rev. F. H. Sproule acted as chairman. The weather was not such as to attract many out, yet the main body of the church was filled. The first part of the programme consisted of work by the primary classes, which, under the leadership of Miss Laura Wilder, acquitted themselves in a creditable manner. Their songs were inspiring. Recitations were given by the following little folks: Dorothy Jones, Ruby Macrieff, Mariel Diers, Harold Thurston and Howard Parsons.

The main part of the programme was a cantata entitled "Santa Claus At Santiago." A telegraph message is caught going over the wire saying that Santa Claus would be at Santiago on December 28, but the date is not caught. As there are several Santiagos, the children do not know which one it is. In the unfolding of the search, the true spirit of Christmas is brought out in an inspiring way. During the intermission, a dialogue entitled, "The Three Peaches," was given by six girls, and this was well received. At the close of the cantata, recitations were given by Milbred Filtz, and Donald Robinson. In the intermission Ethel Wiskin sang nicely.

The programme over, the prizes for best attendance were given out and then the heavily-laden Christmas tree was relieved of its burdens, and Santa Claus had his hands full. The scholars of the school were all remembered by their parents and friends.

A great deal of credit must be given the superintendent of the school, Miss Edna Wilder, for her time and trouble she was put to in training the children, also Miss Laura Wilder for the efforts which she put forth in training the little ones. The accompaniments were played by Miss Sherbino and Bertram Couper, while Miss Lottie Wilder led the chorus singing.

St. George's Cathedral.

As usual the Feast of the Holy Innocents was chosen as the day for the annual Christmas treat, of St. George's cathedral, and so, on Wednesday evening, the school hall was filled with a throng of boys and girls who had a good time, in a quantity and quality to make them happy and contented. There was a programme. During tea Louis Marchand played some jolly music, including many popular songs, in which the choir boys in the school joined, willing to stop the feasting for the music.

A gramophone, too, was a feature.

Canon Starr looked after the affair, and at the close of the programme distributed the prizes. Among the musical numbers were piano solos by little Miss Leila Preston, a small maid of eight, and she and her sister, Evelyn, aged seven, played duets. It would hardly be fair to say that delightful little fairies of children to call them musical prodigies, they are too sweet and childlike for that, but the little hands bringing from the notes a breadth and expression which one does not often hear from grown-ups. In one number "The Eight Bells," a tiny girl cousin jingled the bells, and tunefully sweet it was. It is to be hoped that in the coming years there may be wise teachers for the little girls who will allow them to develop their musical sensibilities and not overlay them with tiresome, dulling technique. The little girls were given an ovation.

At the close of the prize-giving, a special prize was awarded the genial sexton for "attendance," his record being not one Sunday missed in the year.

Very Few Thefts.

In spite of the fact that the stores were crowded for several before the Christmas, there were very few reports made about goods being stolen. Two or three reports reached the police, but this was an exceedingly good record, and there has been very little cause for complaint in this regard.

ABERNETHY'S

MILLARD-MILLER WEDDING.

The Ceremony Took Place on Wednesday Evening.

Two popular young people of this city were married, Wednesday evening, when Miss Loretta Miller, eldest daughter of Mrs. Mary Miller, William street, was united to W. J. Millard, of this city. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride, at eight o'clock, by Rev. Douglas Laing, in the presence of a few friends of both parties. The parlor presented a very pretty appearance, decorated in pink and white, and the bride looked charming in her gown of white embroidered mull over tulle. She wore the regulation quilt of white carnations and lilies of the valley. Her sister, Miss Myrtle, was bridesmaid, while George Millard supported the groom. Little Miss Lottie Saunders, cousin of the bride, made a charming ring bearer, and was dressed in pale blue silk. The bridesmaid's dress was of white embroidered mull.

After the ceremony the guests repaired to the dining-room where a supper was prepared. The table decorations were pink and white. After luncheon, the bride slipped away to don her travelling suit of Copenhagen blue empress cloth, with a hat of grey velvet to match. The young couple then went to their new home on Elm street, where they will in future reside. A large number of presents were received from friends far and near, testifying to the kindly feeling in which the young people are held by their acquaintances.

A number of out-of-town guests were present, including Miss Nellie Kelly, of Buffalo, and Miss Mabelle Lyons, of Gananoque. The good wishes of a host of friends go with the young couple to their new home.
