GRAHAM THE VICTOR

HE WAS ELECTED MAYOR BY 102 MAJORITY.

Result of the Contest Was a Surprise—Over Confidence Defeated McKay—Three Old Aldermen Were Defeated.

Christopher J. Graham was, yesterday, elected mayor of Kingston over John McKay, by 102 votes. The result of the contest was somewhat of a surprise, as last week a very limited number of election workers could be found who would declare that the man from Victoria ward had any chance whatever of defeating his opponent. However, superior organization at the polls, a thorough canvass of the city and the advantage of being more widely known among the workmen were what placed ex-Ald. Graham at the head of the poll. Last week, bets were made that ex-Ald. McKay would have all the way from 200 to 500 majority. On Monday, there was a change of opinion, and in the afternoon after hearing how things were going in Rideau and Frontenac wards, Mr. McKay's leading workers admitted that the election would be close, and that Mr. Graham even had a chance of being elected. It became plainly evident that the workmen were supporting the building contractor, evidently because they believed that his long service in the city council should be rewarded.

MAYOR-ELECT GRAHAM.

The returns were slow in coming in, but the immense crowd which gathered in front of the Whig office remained almost till the last sub-division was heard from. Ontario, No. 3, came first, followed by No. 4. This ward gave McKay a majority of thirty-eight, Sydenham ward followed, with a majority of seventy-five, where 100 was expected. St. Lawrence ward, the business men's ward, was a decided disappointment, for, strange to say, Mr. Graham emerged with a majority of six, where forty was expected by Mr. McKay's supporters. Catarqui ward gave Mr. McKay seventy majority, whereas 100 was figured upon. It was in Frontenac and Rideau wards that Mr. Graham won the day, the former giving him 122 majority, and the latter 178. It was Rideau ward that really elected him for in the other six wards the two candidates ran almost equal. Ald. Graham's own ward, Victoria, gave him only thirty-nine majority. At six o'clock, the returns showed Mr. McKay in the lead, but as the Frontenac and Rideau figures came in, the majority shifted to Mr. Graham's side, and remained there till the last poll was announced, that of No. 17 Rideau. By sub-divisions, the vote was as follows:

There were aldermanic contests in five wards. Alds. Chown, McCartney and Robertson, who were up for reelection, were defeated. Abraham Shaw won from Ald. Chown, and Dr. A. E. Ross more than doubled Ald. Robertson's vote in Frontenac ward. In Rideau ward, Mayor Couper, who ran for an aldermanic seat, proved invincible, and defeated Ald. McCartney by 209 votes. Ald. Elliott and H. D. Bibby had a combat in St. Lawrence ward, but the former won in both subdivisions, and enters upon his nineteenth year in the council in that ward. R. Eggar and J. M. Hughes had to stand a poll, although the latter had retired. Capt. Fraser, of course, was elected. Ald. "Jock" Hartly certainly wore bells, for he gave R. J. Wright a hearty beating, and almost doubled the latter's vote. In Victoria ward, George Mill went down before J. W. Litton. The latter's victory was due to his being more widely known throughout the ward.

There were two school trustee contests. In Victoria ward, P. G. Lockett and George Rawden had quite a contest, but the former emerged with fifty of a majority. In Rideau ward there was a ballot, resulting in the election of H. F. Metcalfe. W. H. Guder, jr., retired too late to allow his name to be left off the ballot paper.

The aldermanic vote was as follows:

Table with columns: Sub-Divisions, McKay, Graham, and Totals for various wards like Sydenham, Ontario, St. Lawrence, etc.

Total 1,486 1,648 Majority for Graham, 162.

Table with columns: Vote by Wards, McKay, Graham, and Totals for wards like Sydenham, Ontario, St. Lawrence, etc.

Regrets for the Vanquished.

Mr. McKay received the returns in the Whig office and took his defeat gracefully. He was surprised at the vote in some of the sub-divisions, particularly in Nos. 3 and 6, but was cheerfully resigned, and accepted the voice of the people in a manner that won for him many warm friends. "Mr. McKay has been defeated today simply by over-confidence on the part of his workers," declared Ald. Elliott, standing on a chair to address the gathering in the Whig business office. He stated that such organized political opposition to Mr. McKay had not been expected. Politics had certainly been brought strongly into the contest on Mr. Graham's behalf and Mr. McKay's friends and supporters had been out-generaled. In that respect, Ald. Elliott regretted exceedingly that Mr. McKay had lost, but there was one thing that he could say and that was that he had fought fair and openly. He had done nothing to be ashamed of. It was just a question in his mind if it would not be better to get back to the old method and fight in the old political way. Ald. Graham's chief supporters had called for a no-politics campaign, but they themselves had fought politically. Ald. Elliott said, in conclusion, that he hoped to see Mr. McKay a candidate for the majority again, for he was sure he would be elected with proper organization.

Mr. McKay was loudly applauded when he stood up to speak. He thanked his workers for what they had done for him. "We certainly have been up against it," he said, laughing, "and have got the double-cross. In future, I say to the players of the game from the start and be better organized." Ex-Mayor N. C. Polson said that the Liberal party should always let itself be found on the firing line. That was the only way to fight, if victory was to be expected. It was impossible to maintain the unity of the party if its spirit was not retained. There seemed to be a tendency to try and adjust, in order to get things easy, rather than to fight. Mr. McKay, he felt sure, was able to face the music like a man. He hoped to see him again a candidate for the majority and if he ever was he would count upon greater efforts being made in his behalf.

Mayor Couper said that it was lack of organization that was the principal cause of Mr. McKay's defeat. He had found this out early in the day. It was sure that if Mr. McKay's forces had been better organized they could have won the day.

The Mayor-Elect Thankful.

The news of Mr. Graham's majority was enthusiastically received at the Standard office, and when the returns were all in, "Christy" was almost carried to the city hall, where he thanked the people for their support. He said that in his career as alderman he had tried to serve the people faithfully, and that they had nobly responded by electing him to the position of chief magistrate. He declared that he had conducted a clean campaign all the way through, and he thanked all who supported him. He said that he had every respect for his opponent, that he was a gentleman and an honorable business man. He pleaded weariness, and concluded by saying that he would at all times endeavor to do his best to further the interests and hoped for the support of the people.

Ald. Hoag was called to the platform and said that in Mr. Graham he fully believed that they had a man who would advance the interests of the city. W. F. Niekle, M.P.P., also spoke, and thanked the people for the hearty support which had been given the mayor-elect.

The Council of 1911.

The council of 1911, besides Mayor-Elect Graham, will comprise the following: Sydenham ward—Ald. W. J. Fair, R. Hanley, R. H. Toye. Ontario ward—Ald. T. F. Harrison, R. E. Kent, T. J. Rigney. Rideau ward—Ald. R. Armstrong, W. Chigston, D. Couper. Victoria ward—Ald. S. J. Bailey, J. W. Litton, A. Shaw.

Notes and Comments.

There was no majority election in 1910. The number of votes cast in 1909 was 3,307, Mayor Couper defeating Ald. Givens by 1,212 to 1,186. This year, only 3,134 votes were cast in the majority contest, or 173 less than two years ago. The unfavorable weather yesterday, caused many voters to stay at home. An unusual number of voters were found ill, when called upon.

The council of 1911 consists of twelve liberals and ten conservatives, though politics now count for nothing in city business.

In the new council are three doctors, three merchants, two lawyers, two insurance agents, two building contractors, one druggist, one horse dealer, one machine agent, one manufacturer, one mason, one inspector, one retired gentleman, one banker, one baker, one mariner.

In religion the new council stands thus—Methodists, 7; Presbyterians, 5; Anglicans, 5; Roman Catholics, 4; Baptists, 1.

In Rideau ward, some voters marked their ballots for both Mayor Couper and Ald. McCartney, thinking that two of the three candidates were to be voted upon.

The inaugural meeting of the city council will take place next Monday, at 11 a.m.

The four new aldermen are W. J. Fair, R. Fraser, Abraham Shaw and J. W. Litton. As Mr. Fair is an ex-alderman, there are only three new men to join the council.

The following telegram was sent to Ald. "Jock" Hartly by the Frontenac junior hockey team and supporters in Belleville last evening: "One hundred Kingston hockey enthusiasts send congratulations from Belleville."

"Jock" made a grand sweep in Catarqui ward.

Portsmouth Elections.

Richard Baiden was re-elected reeve of Portsmouth, on Monday, defeating Ex-Reeve John Fisher, by 80 to 75. The contest was quite a lively one. The councillors elected were: Joseph Kerr, 127; Michael J. Kennedy, 78; Joseph Forsythe, 74; James Hall, 72. Those defeated for councillors were: John Allmark, 60; E. Sullivan, 56; John Marks, 34.

Township Elections.

A. M. Rankin was re-elected reeve of Kingston, by 109 majority. John Stewart, Harrowsmith, defeated John Storms for reeve of Portland, by 176 majority.

Carload of Prunes.

A carload of prunes arrived here yesterday for the wholesale grocery of Robertson, Nicolle & Co., of this place, the fruit being a consignment from H. S. Gile, a well-known dealer and grocer, of Salem, Oregon. Mr. Gile is a former Smith's Falls boy and it is probable that when he left his native town he little thought the day would come when he would send a car load of prunes here in one consignment for one place of business.

Queen's Open Air Rink.

Queen's open air rink is about completed now and as soon as the holidays are over it will be in working order. The ice is brilliantly lighted with long rows of lights placed at short intervals and no doubt will be kept pretty busy by the numerous college hockey teams which will require it for practice.

ABERNETHY'S

FATHER McSHANE

Mentioned for Archbishop of Kingston.

A Montreal despatch says: "There is a great deal of interest in both ecclesiastical and political circles as to who is likely to be appointed Archbishop of Kingston, in succession to Archbishop Gauthier, who has been transferred to Ottawa to succeed Archbishop Duhamel. It is announced on the highest authority that Father McShane, of St. Patrick's, Montreal, is likely to be the choice. Father McShane was formerly attached to the household of the archbishop of Montreal, but was given charge of St. Patrick's some time ago, and has shown the highest executive ability in that position. He is a very popular preacher, and is highly esteemed by all classes. He took a prominent part in the organization of the great Eucharistic Congress, held at Kingston for the use of Kingston would surprise nobody, and would be a delight to his friends. Father McShane, however, is adverse to discussing the matter, and simply smiled when told of the report, saying that he was very happy where he is. His selection as Archbishop of Kingston, however, is favored in very influential quarters."

Had a Narrow Escape.

Monday afternoon, about 4.30 o'clock, while walking up Princess street, an elderly man had a narrow escape from being knocked unconscious from the front of Dalton's hardware store, when a large piece of ice fell off the edge of the roof and hit with crashing force on the ledge just above the man's head. Had not the ledge been in place, the man would in all probability have killed him, as it fell from the fourth story, and weighed about thirty pounds.

Big Weather Change.

The weather changed very quickly from the keen cold of Saturday morning to a light rain drizzle on Sunday afternoon. The moderation began at noon Saturday and continued steadily. The temperature was about as high as it was on the same day a year ago. On Sunday night, there was a big thaw, which continued on Monday. Walking was very unpleasant.
