Rev. Dr. MacTavish Tells Why the Church is Not Accomplishing What She Might-Revival Meeting in Queen Street Methodist

There was a good attendance in Queen street Methodist church, Monday evening at the beginning of the second week of the series of revival meetings. The pastor, Rev. S. Sellery presided, and conducted the devotional exercises. The speaker of the evening, Rev. Dr. MacTavish, of Cooke's church took as his subject, Micah II, 72-"Is the spirit of the Lord Strait-

. Micab, he said, looked around him and saw that the people of God were grovelling in debasing things whereas they should have been soaring to things pure and noble; therefore he indignantly asked the question; Is the spirit of the Lord straitened? Are these his doings? The preacher then asked, Is the condition of things in the charch and world to-day not such as would suggest the same question, Granting that almost all good done in the world is done by the church, is she doing all that might be accomplished.
