MOST PITIABLE CASE

YOUNG MAN UP ON CHARGE OF VAGRANCY.

Served in South Africa, and is Now Broken Down in Health—Was Given a Chance by the Magistrate—Scenes in the Police Court.

There is a very old saying, that "one half the world does not know how the other half lives." It is an old saying, all right, but in police court circles, from time to time, it cannot but come to the mind of the officials and reporters who gather together for the daily session at the mill of justice.

Yesterday, a poor, forlorn young man, in ill-health, almost on the verge of collapse, stood in the dock. Vagrancy was the charge registered against him, in the big book on the magistrate's desk. His case was certainly one for pity. It was stated that he had relatives in the city. He was a young man who had lived in the city for many years, but still, there was not one person ready to give him a helping hand. True, the young man has a taste for liquor, but from all accounts, this has not been the chief cause of his downfall. The young fellow served in South Africa, so it is said, and when he came back he was taken ill, just like many other chaps who went out to fight for their country. It was not long before he suffered epileptic fits.

Although the charge was that of vagrancy, the magistrate did not press it, and gave the unfortunate fellow a chance to leave the city. It was expected that some people would open up their purse strings and give the young man a fresh start. There are many sad pictures in the local police court, but owing to the circumstances, this was considered worthy of special mention.

But then it is the way of the world. One man gets into trouble, and he has a dozen or more friends doing all they can to help him get out of it, while another fellow has to fight his battle all alone. Too bad. Many a man who has been given a little assistance when he made the first fatal step, has been able to pull himself together.

And the magistrate is always lenient with the man who comes up before him for the first time. He is given every chance. Some have been able to make good on that chance, while others have failed. In the case of the young man referred to, gathered in as a vagrant, the chance was given, but no person appeared to be interested in his case.

Labor Educational Campaign.
Word has been received in local labor circles, to the effect that Joseph T. Marks, editor of the Banner, the labor paper printed at London, Ont., and who has given addresses to the local labor men, has started out on an educational campaign among the Trades and Labor Councils in Western Ontario. It is not known as yet whether he will pay a visit to Eastern Ontario. Several big meetings will be held in Toronto and Hamilton.

The Blacksmiths Busy.
The icy condition of the roads will make plenty of work for blacksmiths inasmuch as the teamsters were unprepared for the change. During the soft weather they do not find it necessary to have their horses shod, but when a cold spell comes on, the make a rush for the shops. Ordinary corks will only last about a week, so if it continues cold, they will have to make another visit to the shop.

Hardly Room for Both.
In the face of the fiercest opposition from every school or college teaching the older systems, our business has increased during 1910 at an average rate of seven per cent. per month. We naturally expect this opposition for thirty-day syllabi shorthand marks the beginning of the end of six-months' stenography just as electricity did the coal-oil lamp and the horse-car. "Wireless" was doubted at one time, and some, even yet, abuse "Hydro-Electric." Our free lesson will convince you. Write to us and our return fare offer. Moon College, 282-286 Yonge street, Toronto.

A Utica, N.Y., Couple Wedded.
At the Sydenham Street Methodist church parsonage, Wednesday evening, Rev. Thomas W. Neal united in marriage Adrian Smith Malson to Miss Mabel Grace Storms, both of Utica, N.Y. The ceremony was performed at seven o'clock. The marriage will be of interest to many on account of the fact that Miss Storms is a daughter of Frederick Storms, a former resident of Wilton. The young couple stayed at the Randolph hotel, Wednesday night, and went out to Wilton, Thursday night.

American Chinese School.
According to可靠 reports Amy, China, has probably the only secular American Chinese school in China. This school was erected in 1898 at a cost of $14,000 gold, the money being contributed solely by the Chinese, and since its erection it has been supported entirely by Chinese subscriptions. The officers of the institution are Americans and the American consul is ex-officio chairman of the board of directors.

Yesterday was probably a record-breaker for the street railway company. The day was soft and very wet underfoot, and in the afternoon, when it started to rain everybody rushed for the street cars. On the 5.20 car there were seventy-six fares run, on the round trip. On the six o'clock car 101 fares were run on the round trip.

Installation of the officers of commissions 20 and 217 C.O.C.F., on Friday, Jan. 13th, Grand Officers Dr. J. H. Bell and W. F. Campbell will be present. Free to members and their friends who wish to attend.

Blake Connally, of Smith's Falls, a former Kingstonian, is in the city, renewing acquaintances.

Patrick O'Brien, who has been at Ottawa for some time, is at his home in this city.

Great Film at Wonderland.

The management of Wonderland has a unique film at their house for a few days. It is a picture of the southwest, which shows world champions riding and breaking bucking broncos and world's greatest rifle shots.

The picture is taken at an exhibition in Cheyenne, Wyoming, at which "Teddy" Roosevelt is present. The pictures are explained by a cowboy (who accompanies the film) in a very realistic way. A song sung by W. M. Donaldson entitled, "You Remind Me of The Girl I Used To Know," was well received.

Constable Mullinger III.

The many friends of Constable "Tom" Mullinger, will be sorry to learn that he is confined to his home, through illness. Last Saturday, while on duty, he had the misfortune to slip on a sidewalk, and hurt his back.

He will have to remain in the house for a few days longer. His friends hope that he will soon be all right, and able to go on with his "beat."

Portsmouth Philosopher.

The Portsmouth philosopher is out with a big stick after the people of Hatter's Bay who do not clean off their sidewalks. He said, this morning, that some of the walks had been left in a terrible condition, and that some of the villagers should be ashamed of themselves. "Get busy with the shovel," he says.

A number of tickets for Lena Ashwell at the Grand, Thursday, have been bought by people in Brockville, Gananoque and Napanee.

Big sale of watches, clocks, silverware, jewellery, etc., at 25 per cent. off at C. W. Lane's, Wellington St.

IROQUOIS CLUB DANCE.

Most Delightful Affair Held in Orpheum Hall.

Wednesday night the members of the Iroquois club held their second annual dance at the Orpheum hall and it was a grand success. Two hundred people were present and with a fine floor, good music, and a most pleasing programme—one that delighted everyone present—the club provided all that was desirable. The Iroquois club is composed of young Kingstonians and the members who have the arrangements for these events in charge are deserving of special praise for their work. Last night's event was voted by all to be one of the best dances they ever attended.

Seldom, if ever, has the Orpheum ball contained such a jolly crowd of dancers. The members of the R.C.H.A. orchestra took up their position about 9.30 o'clock, and it was just about one o'clock when the last number on the programme, "Home Sweet Home" waltz, was rendered. The programme consisted of seventeen numbers from the orchestra, with as many encores, and several fine "extras." The music was delightful.

During the evening the Iroquois dance, or "Paul Jones" dance, was introduced, and provided much pleasure.

Among other selections the orchestra provided the following: Over the Waves, What's the Matter With Father? Garden of Dreams, Time, Place and the Girl, Cuddle Up a Little Closer, Eternelle Ivresse, Marcella, Merry Widow, Put On Your Old Grey Bonnet, Senora, Turkey in the Straw, Comin' Thro' the Rue, Ringo, On My Fingers, Villa, Garden of Roses.

Refreshments were served from two large punch bowls under very pretty domes.

The dance was such a great success that the many who were present are already looking forward to the next, which, it is understood, will be held in the near future.

Among the out-of-town guests attending were Miss M. Clement, Misses Brennan, A. Brennan and M. O'Brien, Gananoque; Miss M. Mathewson, Napanee; Miss K. Smith, Winnipeg; Miss G. Graves, Galtrowsmith; Blake Connally, Smith Falls; J. Howes, Penetanguishene, including many from local points.

The fruit punch bowls were put up by N. R. Grimm.

A gentleman's umbrella was left in the cloak room after the dance and the owner can procure same from J. Sullivan.

PLAYING WITH A DOG.

Lad's Leg Was Broken for a Second Time.

A few days misfortune befell the little Keaten boy, aged six, living on Rideau street. It will be remembered that some two months ago, he was run over by a car, on the street, and had his leg broken. The injured member was set, and he was getting along nicely.

A few days ago, while he was propped up, on a couch, his pet dog commenced to play with him, and in the fun the boy was toppled over on the floor and his leg was broken again, in the very same place. The X-ray was used, and the injured member was set, and now the unfortunate lad is again a patient at the general hospital. He is doing as well as can be expected.

HIS SALARY INCREASED.

Rev. W. A. McIlroy is Appreciated in Ottawa.

An Ottawa despatch says: Rev. William McIlroy, a native of Kingston, and a graduate of Queen's, who is doing good work here, at the annual meeting, last night, of Stewarton Presbyterian church, of which he is pastor, had his salary increased from $2,000 to $2,500. It is only a year or so since he was granted an increase.

Since coming here he has materially increased the membership and has done his share towards getting a new church built and a new organ installed. A great many former Kingstonians who reside here, attend this church. The membership is $52, an increase of 175 during 1910.
