Carrying Place Fire.

Carrying Place, Jan. 12.—A disastrous fire swept over the village on Wednesday night, destroying the store, postoffice and dwelling of J. R. Boyce. A few articles from the dwelling were saved. Everything else was lost. The mail is now distributed from the residence of Mrs. Church, near the railway station.

During the last fortnight, out-reever Rev. J. Wright, has been busy with marriages. Ross (shaw) and Miss Florence Hayes; A. Lovett and Miss Annie Peck and F. Taylor and Miss E. Chase were the couples united. M. Fitzgerald returned from the west on Saturday last, where he has been employed by the C.P.R. on a steam shovel. The Ladies' Guild, of Trinity church, Concession meet on Friday of this week to let a contract for the renovating of the Anglican church in that village. Rev. J. de P. Wright, in thanking his congregation, on Jan. list for their Christmas offering, said it was the largest he had received since coming to the parish. Dr. H. A. Boyce, of Kingston, made a flying trip to this village last week. He was interested in the building which was destroyed by fire. Mr. and Mrs. Bentley, after spending Christmas with their parents here, left to spend the rest of the winter at Toronto, in Florida.
