'VARSITY BEAT QUEEN'S
 In Basketball Match, Saturday, by 41 to 13.

In spite of the fact that the score stood 41 to 13 against them, Queen's basketballers put up a splendid argument against 'Varsity at the college gymnasium, Saturday afternoon. The local students much missed Leckie, who was of such value to them last season. Menzies put up a star game for Queen's, but was very closely checked by 'Red' Dixon, of football fame. 'Varsity has beyond doubt the best basketball team that has ever played here, the passing and shooting being phenomenal. The scoring was done as follows: 'Varsity, Boddy, 5 baskets; Brock, 6 baskets; Gage, 5 baskets; Dixon, 2 baskets. Brock scored five free throws. Wardle and Menzies each secured a basket for Queen's. The teams were:

'Varsity—Dixon, Brock, Gage, Davis and Wood.
 Queen's—Yansickle, Watts, Erskine, Menzies, Wardle.
 Officials—Bowron and Birch, Y.M.C.A.

Bernier in the Game.
 Bernier, formerly of this city, played with the Canadiens, in their game with Renfrew, on Saturday night. He had been out of the game for some time.

Ladies' Curling Matches.
 The members of the Ladies' Curling Club had two good games at the rink, on Monday morning. Miss Beatrice Birch defeated Miss Fairlie, by a score of 10 to 3, and Mrs. R. J. Hooper defeated Miss Tangly, by a score 13 to 9.

Preston's Good Showing.
 Preston O.H.A. hockey team, who were tied with the junior Frontenacs last season for first honors, are starting out this year with just as good a showing as they made last year. They won their fourth straight game, Friday evening, when they defeated Berlin 7 to 1 at Preston.

Defeated at Gananoque.
 The junior Granites, who went down to Gananoque, Saturday, to play the Beavers of that town, had defeat ministered to them in a galling way, the score at the finish being 8 to 1 in favor of the Gananoque boys. The Granites were outplayed at every turn, their opponents being masters of the game. The score came as a considerable surprise to their friends, here, as they thought the Granites would be better.

Frontenac Routers Ready.
 "Jack" Cousins Routers club intends a big surprise when they open up at the Frontenac-Bellefleur game at the covered rink on Wednesday. It is hinted that the parodies on popular songs are of a decidedly clever nature and bound to make a hit. Many different members of the club come in for special notice and there will certainly be lots of enthusiasm. The routers meet at the Armories on Tuesday night for final preparation. It is expected that there will be 100 or more on hand.

McGill Professor to Lecture.
 Prof. Leacock, of McGill University, is to lecture in Convocation hall, Wednesday evening, before the Arts Society. His subject is, "What The Universities Can Do For Canada." Prof. Leacock has already taken a place among the leaders in Canadian public life. His sphere extends not only to political science, of which department he is senior professor at McGill, but students feel the general public have read his interesting humorous sketches in "Literary Lapses" and "Novels in Nutsells." Queen's has once before had the privilege of hearing Prof. Leacock and so his coming visit will be looked forward to with pleasure.

AT ST. JAMES CHURCH

PRINCIPAL OF WYCLIFFE COLLEGE THE PREACHER.

Dr. O'Meara Pointed Out the Spiritual Need in Canada Today—More Men are Needed for the Ministry.

The preacher at both services, yesterday, at St. James' church, was Rev. T. R. O'Meara, LL.D., principal of Wycliffe College, Toronto. At the morning service, the principal, at his text, John III: 35, 36, "Now the last day, the great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried saying, 'If any man thirst let him come unto Me and drink. He that believeth on Me as the Scripture hath said from within him shall flow rivers of living waters.'" After giving a word picture of the ceremony of the last day of the feast of Tabernacles, when water was brought from the Pool of Siloam in golden vessels and poured out on the temple floor, he proceeded to speak of Christ as the satisfaction of man's thirst. There may be every appearance of joy and happiness but many a life, in spite of its outward appearance, carries a burden of sin and the longings of a soul unsatisfied. Christ is the satisfaction of every heart longing. An earnest appeal was made to every one present, especially to the young, through belief in Him to find soul satisfaction. "Now every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters." "If any man thirst, let him come unto Me and drink." But this is not all. "From within him shall flow rivers of living waters." In most vivid living terms, every truth was made real by practical illustration; the preacher showed the influence that one man should have upon another, especially one college man upon another. The sermon was a strong presentation of gospel truth and a forceful appeal to young men from one whose life is devoted to young men, training them for the ministry of the church.

In the evening the text was two verses taken from the sixth chapter of the Epistle to the Galatians, "Beware ye one another's burden" and "Every one shall bear his own burden." In his introduction the preacher spoke of the characteristic of the epistle to the Galatians, the severity and strenuous of its tone, and then passed to the apparent contradiction of the verses. The truth that they contain is that in regard to other men's burdens, we must help them bear their burdens, in regard to ourselves, we must manfully bear our own. There are many burdens of others that we can bear. There is the burden of care, the universal baptism where with all men are baptized. There is the burden of struggle, struggle with temptation, struggle with doubt, struggle of many kinds. There is the struggle of need. In each of these men can help their fellows through life and they were most earnestly appealed to that they should do so. But greater than temporal need is the spiritual need to-day in Canada, with the tremendous number of immigrants pouring in to the country. Every profession to-day is crowded but that of the ministry and he appealed earnestly for more men for the ministry. His college was sending out this year fourteen men but already two bishops, alone, had asked him for twenty-five. He thanked those who had helped Wycliffe College in the past for their continued interest and prayer.

Turning to the other text the burden that every man must bear, he spoke of this as the burden of each man's responsibility. A man lives for others and, yet, in a real sense, he lives his life alone. He must repent himself, he must believe himself, he must serve God himself. But you can have some One to help you in this burden of responsibility. "Cast thy burden upon the Lord and He will sustain Thee." The congregations at both services were large and there was a goodly number of students from the university present.

KINGSTON BANK RUINED

By Dealings With Great Western Railway Co.

The Toronto Mail-Empire in commenting on bank failures that have ruined Canadians says: "The Commercial Bank of Kingston was ruined by dealings with the Great Western Railway company, whose account was permitted to grow from a very small one to the largest on the books of the bank. The railway company raised money in England with a view to build a line across the state of Michigan, connecting Detroit and Milwaukee, but soon it needed money faster than it could be secured in the Old Country, and the Commercial Bank very kindly advanced what was needed. When the railway's obligations reached the sum of $1,200,000 the bank called a halt and tried to collect. The obligation was repudiated by the English directors, who alleged that the money had really been borrowed by the Detroit and Milwaukee Railway company. A law suit showed that the borrowers were officials in both companies, and the Great Western was relieved of its responsibility. A run on the bank followed and the doors were closed. Subsequently the depositors were paid in full, and the merchants' Bank purchased the salvage."

Didn't Allow Enough Margin.

An Ottawa despatch says: Rev. Mr. Sellery, Kingston, in preaching at Dominion Methodist church, here, on Sunday, referred to W. R. Travers, ex-manager of the Farmers' Bank. He claimed that too many financiers did not allow enough margin in their investments, and said that if Travers had allowed enough, he wouldn't be where he is to-day.

Kicked by a Horse.

While working in his blacksmith shop on Brock street, Saturday afternoon, Russell Vanhorne was kicked in the face by a young horse belonging to William McAdoo, Pittsburg. Fortunately the hoof of the horse was bare at the time, otherwise the result might have been a great deal more disastrous. The foot struck him on the upper lip.

MEETINGS OF THE Y.M.C.A.

There Were Large Attendances at Sunday's Sessions.

There was a large gathering of men at the two Y.M.C.A. services, Sunday afternoon and evening. The afternoon meeting was addressed by Rev. Ponder, of Queen's, who spoke along the lines of submission to the will of God and obedience to His commands in every respect. He impressed upon the minds of all present, the vast importance of doing something in the Master's service, no matter how small it seemed. John Shea sang two very fitting selections. E. W. Skinner, presided.

At the evening meeting there were about fifty men present, when an enjoyable hour was spent in singing the old songs which never grow stale. The men entered into the spirit of the meeting with great enthusiasm, and at the closing time were loth to stop. Mr. Kinch took charge of the service in his own good way, and made everyone feel right at home. The boys were favored with a solo from I. Beecroft, and a duet from Harold Angrove and N. Armstrong.

SON STRUCK HIS FATHER.

Father Had Black Eye in Police Court.

A man in the police court today charged with being drunk, had his left eye in deep mourning and his appearance was anything but good. The old song, "What's the Matter With Father?" was brought to mind on seeing him but the words were not quite fitting. Instead of being all right, father appeared to be all wrong, at least according to those who appear to know of the circumstances. It appears that when father came home the other night and started in to abuse his wife the son used his fists to good advantage and father had a black eye in less time than it takes to tell it.

IN POLICE CELLS.

Had to be Removed to an Hospital.

Old and very feeble, John Lorraine, or Mitchell, the name by which he is best known, staggered into the police station, on Saturday night, and asked for shelter. He is about seventy-five years of age, and has been living in this district for a great many years. After he had been in the cells for a short time, it was found that he was ill, and an order was secured for his removal to the Hotel Dieu. It was feared at first that he would be stricken with pneumonia, but, to-day, he was reported to be somewhat better.

Patriarch Visited Brockville.

Robert Meek, chief patriarch of the Ontario Encampment, visited Brockville, on Friday night, and the Recorder reports that he was well entertained. The officers of the Brockville encampment were installed, and, later, a banquet was served, at which Mr. Meek made a splendid address. Members of the Mallorytown and Prescott encampments were also in attendance.

Kingston Third Lowest.

Of the eighteen cities of Ontario, Kingston has the third lowest debt per head. The amount is $1,231,291, or $64.15 per head of population. The lowest debt per head is that of Windsor, with $57.13 a head. Belleville's is $88.82; Ottawa's, $93.62; Guelph's, $107.79; Toronto's, $110.55; Port Arthur's, $195.06.

Scotch Papers Copied It.

The article on "Scottish Patriotism" by Rev. John Mackie, D.D., which appeared in the Whig some time ago, has been copied in full by several newspapers in Scotland. Dr. Mackie has received letters of commendation from his Scottish friends, who appreciated his able article.

Is Doing Nicely.

W. F. Kelly, who was injured in an accident, Friday afternoon, having his right arm fractured, is still at the Hotel Dieu, and it was stated to-day that he was doing as well as could be expected.

Died in Dundee, Scotland.

Mrs. James Small received a cable, on Sunday, announcing the death of her mother, in Dundee, Scotland.

AT THE POLICE COURT

TWO DRUNKS FORMED THE LINE-UP TO-DAY.

One Had Seven Children to Provide For, and Was Let Go With Reprimand—The Other Was Given a Chance to Sign up on "Prohibited List."

There were just two "plain drunks," as the saying goes, in police court, this morning but there was a sad story concerning each.

The first man who stood up to the charge of being drunk, was a big strapping fellow. It was not his first appearance, and the magistrate gave him a sharp look. Then the accused told his story. He admitted having been drunk, but stated that he was sure that he was not under the influence. Just like a great many other people they drink too freely, get locked up, and he wonders how it all happened. Don't worry, a police constable will not go to the trouble of hauling a man to the station, if there is no need for it.

The magistrate put no faith in the man's story that he had just been having a few drinks. He knew the man's capacity all so this story did not go. He accused was severely reprimanded.

"You should be ashamed of yourself," said the magistrate. "You have a wife and seven children depending upon you and you should look after them. You will not come before me again. If you come before me again, I will see that you are sent down, and some other fellow will be given your children to take care of."

The other ink must go on the "prohibited list." This is his only chance, and has directed to the office of Inspector Wright, as soon as the court adjourns. He has been drinking quite freely of late, and the magistrate stated that he had received many complaints about his having ill-used his wife. He has promised to turn over a new leaf.
